Hill, Lancaster county, late the property of Mercy K. Johnson, dee'd, about 100 acres, to Sarah Alice Bicknell, for $5,600 The farm of John C. Wright, Fulton township, 20 acres, with new buildings, was not sold as advertised on the 16th inst. The barn on the Pennock farm, near Andrews Bridge, which was built about a year ago, came near being wrecked last week. The king brace sprung from its in the London and Commercial, $1,000 in position, kneeked a post out and the whole front sagged down, seriously threatening the safety of the whole structure. Its dangerous condition was discovered by Mr. Pennock on Monday evening, when he summoned a number of men to assist him, who worked late into the night in putting heavy posts under the girder to prevent it from breaking and save the

On Thursday afternoon last a fire broke out in the woods of Slater F. Brown, in Fulton township, which spread with fearful rapidity and for a time the dwelling of Alfred Huss, as well as the new school house at Goshen, were in great danger. Fortunately the neighbors discovered the smoke and turned out on masse with rakes and shovels and finally arrested its career. One enthusiastic nighbor stopped on his way to get a bucket of water with which to subdue the flames. It is supposed the fire originated by a tramp kindling a fire in an old stump.

Dr. Apple's Lecture.

The introductory lecture of a course to be delivered before the Y. M. C. A. of Franklin and Marshall college by Rev. Dr. T. G. Apple attracted a good audience to the college chape! last evening. The subject of the discourse, "Impressions of Europe," was suggested by Dr. Apple's recent trip to Europe. His critical government and of the manners and customs of the people, were happily compared and contrasted with those of our country, and afforded both entertainment and in struction to his auditors. The next lecture of the course will be given on the evening of the 11th of November.

Last evening between 7 and 8 o'clock Fulton House, Lancaster county, containing 88 acres, was sold at public sale on situated on North Prince street between Monday to Alban Cutler, of Drumore James and Frederick; an alarm was struck

> The saw mill was owned by Philip Lebzelter and was operated by Edward Eberman, who sawed lumber for himself and other parties. There was a great deal of valuable machinery in the building, including several fine saws which were owned by Mr. Lebzelter. It is nearly all ruined. There was considerable sawed lumber in the shed is the rear of the mill and it was badly damaged. Mr. Lebzelter is unable at present to estimate the Bowery company. Some of the lum-ber belonged to Philip Lebzelter & Co., and they are insured for $1,500 in the Lancashire. Mr. Eberman's loss on stock, tools, &c., will be between $200 and $300, and he has no insurance. It is believed that the fire originated from the boiler. A great deal of sawing was done yesterday, which was stopped shortly after five o'clock and no one visited it again until after the fire broke out.

HABEAS CORPUS BEARING.

Forther Light on the Charges M ace Against Two Colored Suspects. William and Robert Brown, the colored men arrested on suspicion of being thieves, were taken before Judge Livingston on a writ of habeas cor-pus this afternoon. The commitments as filed at the prison were defective and the court remanded the prisoners to the county prison until to morrow morning and instructed Alderman Samson to have a new complaint made by C. S. Chapman, the gentleman who lost his money. Mr. Chapman arrived in this city this afternoon and made the following statement to a representative of the INTELLIGENCER: His residence is at Hartford, Connecticut, and he exhibited a prize calf at the Bloomsburg, Columbia county fair. He was on the road to Hagerstown from Bioomsburg on Sunday night and at Bridgeport, Cumberland county H. A FRIGHTFUL MURDER.

OUT AND SLASHED WITH A KNIFE.

Terrible Deed of a Drunken Man While on a Hailway Train—A Man Arrested in Chicago for Murder.

CAIRO, Ills., Oct. 22.—A frightful murder occurred Sunday night on a train on the Paducah & Memphis railroad. Herman Marshall, of Dyersburg. Tenn., was on the train drunk, going up and down the aisle, knife in hand, threatening everybody and using the most disgusting language. Finally he insulted a man named Boon Hulsfotties, who struck him. Marshall then out and alsabed Hulsfotties' head and shoulders in a sickening manner. The victim turned and fled to the platform. Marshall followed, plunged the knife into Husfetties' stomash, and throw the bleeding man from the train as it passed over a bridge. The train backed and ploked up the wounded man barely alive. Marshall continued his promenade through the care, daring any one to touch him. No one dared and be escaped.

Herman Marshall, of Dyersburg, Tenn., was on the train drunk, going up and down the aisle, knife in haud, threatening everybody and using the most disgusting language. Finally he insulted a man named Boon Hulsfetties, who struck him. Marshall then cut and slashed Hulsfetties' head and shoulders in a sickening manner. The victim turned CALLING ON BLAINE. The Taffy He Gave to Some Indianapoli Clergymen and Germans.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—A party of German Americans called on Blaine yesterday and presented him with pressed confidence that the Germans were his friends. Later on about thirty clergymen called and presented another address, extending to him as Christian ministers and irrespective of party considerations, a cordial welcome to the city. The address said further: "It seems fitting now that you are in a city, from which for none other than partisan reasons, poisoned arrows have been shot at you, we should at least refer to that fact, but let us assure you that the Christian people about here have no sympathy with any such mode of warfare." Blaine in reply spoke of the influence wielded by the clergy, and cordially thanked the delegation for their ALMSHOUSE PRAUDS IN BERKS. Mishter and Brover, of Reading, Charged With Bribery and Conspiracy.

READING, Pa., Oct. 22.-This morning Detective Lyon swore out warrants here for the arrest of Martin Luther Fritch, a well known Reformed church minister, and chaplain at the county almshouse, and Samuel G. Wenrich, a wealthy cattle drover, who has been furnishing the almshouse with large consignments of cattle. They are charged with bribery and conspiracy in connection with the almshouse frauds, now being investigated by a committee of citizens. The accused entered bail for trial. Other arrests will follow. Lyon charges that Fritch and Wenrich conspired together and then attempted to bribe a poor director to vote for their caudidate for steward and against the present steward by offering him several hundred dollars. This transaction, it is said, took place in a dark entry. Recent testimony before the committee goes to show that the poor directors re ceived supplies of whisky as presents from the poor house contractors; that the cat-tie were bought for $100 and sold for $35 and that out of 600 tons of coal purchased 60 tons were dirt, though an exorbitant price was paid for the whole lot.
