J. E. ROTE. LANCASTER, PA., Oct. 22, 1884. The satisfaction expressed by an appreciative public, with the many improvements we have made in the past, has encouraged us and given us renewed stimulus.

Our studio has been remodeled entirely, giving us one of the best lights in the city for the working of the instantaneous process.

Good taste in the decorative art has made our studio a place of pleasant surroundings, and as the face of the subject always reflects the impressions made by things pleasant or unpleasant, the most beautiful part of the picture is assured, and the expression is the life and the light.

Yours, etc., J. E. ROTE, No. 106 North Queen St. lunel-1td
