cations against him was to say to any unprincipled man, "No matter what your life is, if you can only get the nomination for president you will be elected." Will you tell your children lying is a safe thing? Truth was the one safe thing that hed society together, the bond that puts trust between man and man. He was not going to join the Democratic party. He had fought against it all his life. KEEP OUT & BAD MAN.

He was only working to keep out a bad man and put in a good man in the presi-
