Dr. Atlas's Successor. From the Harrisburg Patriot. Hon. Levi Maish, ex-member of Congress from the York, Adams and Cumberland districts, and well and favorably known throughout Pennsylvania, has been appointed a trustee of the state lunatic hospital near this city, vice Dr. John L. Atlas, of Lancaster, who recently resigned on account of the infirmities of advanced age.

A "Grand Rally" at Jaxington. The Republicans had advertised for a grand rally at Lexington and tonight's parade Wednesday night, which turned out to be a failure and a fiasco. One speaker was there, and that was John H. Landis and no parade was organized. About fifty persons in all, men and boys and some ladies, were present. This was the outcome of this grand rally which they had advertised all over that part of the county, with the portraits of the Republican candidates and a lot of able speakers announced. Landis made a short address.

Surprise Party. Yesterday B. K. Myers, of 124 East James street was 56 years of age and he celebrated the event by giving a surprise party to his wife in the evening. A large number of invited guests were present, and during the evening Mrs. Myers was presented with a handsome Bible by her husband. Samuel Levant made the presentation speech which was responded to by W. F. Hambricht on behalf of Mrs. Myers. Afterwards all sat down to a handsome collation.

Expelled From a Meeting. From the Lebanon Advertiser. Four Lancaster young men were bounced from the skating rink Thursday evening for misbehavior. They imagined they were running the business but sadly got left. The enterprising, wide awakes house of A. C. Yates & Co., whose card appears elsewhere in our columns, is fully prepared for the coming season, with a large and complete stock of ready-made clothing, and in need of goods in this line to make it a point, when in Philadelphia, to call at the Ledger Building, Sixth and Chestnut streets. An examination of the goods, the general map, as well as the quality of material coupled with the extreme low prices is almost sure to lead to a purchase.
