A Brakeman Instantly Hilled by the Oar Four Minor Accidents—The Successful Opening of a Sunting Mink

Jefferson Hershey, brakeman on P. R. R. night shifter, No. 440 was instantly killed at the Keeley stove works' siding, where he had been working yesterday at 5 a. m. The exact manner in which he met his death is unknown, but it is bemet his death is unknown, but it is be-lieved in attempting to get off the tank bumper to the tank step, he slipped and fell. No outory was made. Engineer Jeff Harabey felt his engine move over an object and immediately stopped and inves-tigated. Herahey was found with his neck and breast plonened to the rails by one of the driving wheels. Death was instantaneous. Undertaker A. J. Musser took charge of the remains, and Deputy Coroner J. P. Frank held an inquest. "Death by an accident" was the verdict the jury rendered. The remains were sent to Bruckharts, where the parents of deceased resides.

deceased resides. Hershey was aged about 21 years. He was formerly employed on the R. & C. R. R., but meeting with several socidents, he quit that road and went to the P. R. R. Putnam Circle, No. 118, B. U. H. F, of Pa., will meet at noon to-morrow and attend his funeral at Silver Springs.

RINK OPENING.

Fully 1,200 persons attended the opening of the Columbia rink, on Saturday even ing. It was a most enjoyable affair. Ex-pert skaters from Lancaster, Harrisburg and York, were present, while with those from Columbia, made the total number of from Columbia, made the total number of persons skating at once, 450. Prof. Fred Norris of Toledo, Ohio, and an eight-year. old miss from Lancaster, astonished their audience with their wonderfal exhibition of fancy skating. The order kept was not of the best, but the crowd was so large that the misdemeanor com mitted must be overlooked for this once. It will not be repeated. The Columbia orchestra did its best-at least it looked as though it was. We say looked because it could but seldom be heard. The opening will long be remembered by Columbians who were present as a most enjoyable occasion. Mr. Notris will give exhibitions each and every evening this week.

MUSIC WALL, BURLINGTON, Iowa, Nov. 3, 1833. Mesore, Kranich & Bach : Gustiamus. The plano recently purchased from you for my recitals, is so exceptionally fine that I test constrained to give this, my first testimonial in invor of any particular in-strument. Its highest tones are clear and brill in t and the middle register is well ad pted to the cantible style, and the base is rich and powerful, without the coarse pui-sative tones so common to most plano to tes. Added to tuese rare qualities, your instru-ments have a bright responsive touch and a finish to all the mechanical details. With sin-oere comgratulations, finish to all the mount cere congratulations, I am your obedient servant, A. J. Gooparcy, Prof. of Music A. J. Gooparcy, Prof. of Music

It is commended to the at-tention of those afflicted with

Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the curs of some of the destructive diseases which sweeps way their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive, we pre-sent to the invorable notice of invalida-es-pecially those affloted with that miserable disease, Dypapensis, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

SAMUEL DERR,

A Sovereign Remedy

For all their fils and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and us but one article, and that is

Reigart's Old Brandy,

Sold by our enterprising triend, H. E. SLAY MAKES. This brandy has stood the test for years, and has nover failed, as far as our ex-perience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies—no matter with how many isw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impo-tent dyspepsia specifics, would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases, In proof of the curative power ci

Reigart's Old Brandy

In cases of Dyspepsia we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we bers of witnesses-one case in particular we will dite: A hard working iarmer had been afflicted with an exhausting Dyspepsis for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every sind of food; he had sour eroctations con-stantly -no appetite-in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to cruckers and stale bread, and as a beverage he use. McGran's koot Beer, he is a Methodist, and the n as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnesity against al finds of strong dring. When advised to try Beigenet's Old Breader ESTATE OF JAMES KIRE, LATE OF Lancaster City, deceased. Letters testa-mentary on said estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebt d thereto are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claim. or do-mands against the same, will present them without delay for settlement to the under-struct design in Lancaster.

Reigart's Old Brandy

In his case, he looked up with astonishment; but after hearing of his wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. Ho used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, an ' before the second was all takes he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he choose to est. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medi-cine, he has been of very little pecuniary ben-efft to the doctor. - A Franciscing Physician. HAIR BALSAM. A beneficial dressing preferred to similar articles because of its purity and rich per-fume. It RESTORES TO GKAY HALK IM YOUTHFUL COLOR and prevents dandruf and falling of the half. See and $1.00.
