When the train reached Owego it was raining, but a large crowd was at the depot. Ex Senator T. C. Platt was at the depot. Ex Senator I. C. Platt introduced Blaine, who made an address from a decorated flat car prepared for the occasion. He expressed pleasure that the rain had not dampened the ardor of the Republican masses. He then pointed out the great increase of wealth of New York state from 1860 to 1880. No intelligent man. he said. Democrat or Republican, would deny that this was due largely to a protective tariff.
