case to have been disposed of on the 22d. In Houck's case the warrant was issued on December 22d, the commitment on file is dated December 19, and the bill is dated December 27th. In Schmidt's case the warrant was issued on December 25, the commitment is dated December 20, while the bill is dated December 29. The 'squire said the only explanation he could give of the desorepancy was that he had entered the cases on small slips of paper, and the mistake as to dates was made in transcribing the same in his com plaint book ; there was no intention to defraud when the bills were made out, as he was entitled to the fees charged, having done everything for which the charges were of the train for Laboater. This closed the testimony on the part of the defeuse, and the commonwealth called Commissioner Summy in rebuttal to testify as to the admissions of Justice Frank at the hearing before Alderman Fordney, as to giving these men whisky, but the court ruled that the testimony offered was not admissable in rebuttal.

The defendants' counsel said they had no further evidence to offer and the testimony in the case was declared closed. Defendants' counsel offered to submit the case without argument, but the commonwealth's attorneys would not agree to the proposition. It was finally agreed that each side should take an hour in the argument of the case.

The case was argued by Messre, North and Brown for the defendants, and by Messrs. Martin and Steinmetz for the commonwealth. The jury was charged by Judge Patterson and retired to deliberate at 12:30, when court adjourned to 2:30 o'elock

At 3:05 this afternoon, the jury rendered a verdict of guilty in manner and form as they stand indicted. CURRENT BUSINESS.

MES. MOORA'S CONDITION.

tter husband Reports Her in Improved Health in Far Off Japan.

The German Reformed Messenger of this week has several letters from Rev. J. P. Moore, missionary to Japan, in reference to the health of his wife, who has been very ill. Mis. Moore, it is well known, is the daughter of Mr. John A. Arnold, of this city. The latest letter is dated Sop tember 27 and is as follows :

We came last Monday, Sept. 224, to Miyano shita, a place about fifty miles from Tsukiji, situated among the mountains and a famons place as a summer and health resort, to which many of the missionaries and others come to recruit. As it was thought highly important that Mrs. Moore should have a change, we brought her to Yokohama. Here we remained ten days, and Mrs. Moore improved very materially so that it was considered reasonably safe to move her to the country. I hired an easy carriage to bring her from Yokobama to the foot of the mountains, six miles, she was carried in a "Kago," a sort of basket chair suspended from a pole and carried by three men. This and pack horses are the only means of ascending the mountains outside of walking. Men, if they are well, generally prefer to walk.

Here are bot mineral springs which are very health giving to invalids. The water gushes out of the mountains boiling hot, and is conveyed in bamboo pipes to the different botels and utilized for bathing. house.

Mrs. Moore has improved since coming here. The journey hither was a terrible strain on her, and she suffered much from it, but the good effects of mountain air and mineral baths are already apparent.

The locomotive jumped the track, plunged downward and mashed isto the engine house of the Reading from into the engine house of the Reading from works. The tender became detached and was hurled across the track, and the two cars tollowing piled up and were wrecked, tearing the track for some distance. Engineer George Clay went down with his engine, and was soverely abaken up. The locomotive's head sank two feet into the ground and a cloud of steam arose, but Clay hobbled out of the wreck comparatively unharmed. His ficeman, William Kendall, also emerged from the wreck unhurt, but both were sprained. Trains were delayed all day. Several men at the bottom of the treatie bridge made DATTOW CROAPES.
