MANY LIVES LOST.

A PANIO IN A THEATER IN GLASGOW

Eixteen Persons Crushed to Death and Many Seriously Isjured.—A Discharged
Employe the Author of it.

A serious panic occurred Saturday evening at the Star theatre Glasgow Scotland, caused by a cry of being raised.
During the rush by the audience to escaps from the building, sixteen people were killed and twelve more seriously injured.

The performance at the Star theatre The performance at the Star theatre had proceeded without any interruption until shouted "Fire!" The whole audience instantly rose to their feet and made a rush to the several doors. The great mass of people who occupied the pit, in escaping therefrom, met the crowd that was descending the stairways from the gallery and a fearful block ensued. Loud cries of distress and shouts for help arose from the mass of frightened, panic stricken and struggling humanity.

The crowd was adjured by the officers of the theatre and by the police to hold, back but the warning and appeals were unheeded. The crazed crowd frantically rushed toward outlets, trampling and rushed toward outlets, trampling and jumping over one another until they reached the street. When the theatre was finally cleared sixteen corpses were found on the stairs leading from the gallery, and tweive persons were so badly injured that they only gave evidence that life was not extinct by their piteous moaning. The fire brigade turned out promptly, but they were too late to be of much of fective service. The police force, aided by volunteers, rushed into the building and endeavored to keep the entry clear by aiding all they could fo escape to the street, but the crowd was so large that they were sadly interfered with in their humans labor. humane labors.

The city ambulance corps conveyed the victims, the living wounded with the dead so mixed that it was only possible to recognize them after their arrival at the

The man whose cry of "fire" caused a panic in the Star theatre Saturday evening has been arrested. He was drunk when he raised the false alarm. Persons who were in the theatre at the time describe the scene on the staircase as terrible. The steps were strewn with ribbons, hats, sacques and shawls. The fourteen victims were first sufficated and then trampled to death. The panic lasted fifteen minutes It is a noteworthy fact that the authorities had disapproved the means of exit, and it was contemplated to construct an additional exit from the gallery. The scenes witnessed when the relatives identified the dead were most affecting. Among the victims were eight females.

BURGLARIES AT UNIONTOWN. Nearly $1,000 Worth of Property Taxen-

Only Hat Store. Uniontown, Fayette county, was surred up Sunday over some extensive robberies that occurred Saturday night. The heaviest loser is John A. Niccolls, whose dry goods store was robbed of about $800 months of its most valuable fabrics, inworth of its most valuable fabrics, in-cluding two scalskin sacques, valued at $525; embroidered flannels, silks and velvets. The entrance was effected by prying open a back window by means of a small crowbar, which was found this morning lying in the old Methodist graveyard. Some flaunch was also found there. About 2 o'clock a. m. man and woman were seen standing on the corner near the opera house, and on examination this morning the tracks of the burglars at the store window proved to be those of a man and woman. Sus picion pointed to a man and woman going by the name of Sharp, who have been in town several days pretending to take orders for the snlargement of pictures. They had been in several stores examining goods, and while the woman would ask to be shown the articles the man would walk about the store, apparently examining the premises. This morning a search warrant was gotten out and search was made of the parties at the boarding house of William Murchy, where they had been staying. They took it very coolly and were perfectly willing to be examined. Nothing was found. Other burglaries were committed in Uniontown Saturday night, the houses of I F. Thompson and Moreor Datwaillar suffering. The latter Mayor Detweiler suffering. The latter had a gold ring and other articles to the extent of $40 taken. The similarity of the entrances by the back window imply that the same parties perpetrated all the offerses. William Heller was also robbed of his gold watch Saturday night.

CAPTURED BY THE MAHOL.

A PLUCKY MAIDEN. Girl at Palmyrs, N. J., Grappies with a Several daring robberies have been committed around Palmyra, N. J., within the last few days, and the community has become thoroughly alarmed. On Friday night two other robberles occurred. The first house broken into was that of Savory Toy. His daughter, a brave young woman 17 years of age, was awakened by a noise of some kind, and by the light of a lamp burning in the hall she saw a burly colored man ransacking the bureau drawers in an adjoining room. The thief heard a slight apiece that moment and crawled slight noise at that moment and orawled under the bed, and after waiting there a few minutes crawled out again, whereupon the young woman bravely grappled with him, at the same time orying loudly for help. The ruffian struggled for a moment to endeavor to break the girl's hold, and failing to do so dragged her into the hall and threw her headlong down a long flight of stairs, injuring her so that she became unconscious. At this juncture Mr. Toy appared on the scene, but the this fescaped. peared on the scene, but the thief escaped, carrying away with him a gold watch and chain, a lot of jewelry and a quantity of clothing. Sunday morning Miss Toy had partially recovered from the effects of her partially recovered from the effects of her fall, but was suffering considerably from nervous prostration. It is supposed that the thief then went to the residence of William F. Morgan and carried off a large quantity of men's clothing and other things. This robbery was not discovered until morning. The thief had discarded the clothes he wore and left them in the yard, and probably donned a suit of the stolen clothes. A description of the thief was sent to the central station. Philadel-

REDUCTION IN THE DEST. What It Amounts to and the Decrease in the

The reduction in the public debt during October amounted to $8.307,193, and for the four months of the present fiscal year $32,900.373. The total debt now, ess $434,008,572 cash in the treasury, is in October, 1883. Customs receipts were $15,183,178, one and a-half million less than in October, a year ago. Internal receipts were $9,629,733, or one and three quarter millions less than in October, 1883. Internal revenue receipts for the four months of the current fiscal year, compared with the corresponding period in 1883, show a falling off of $500,000, This decrease is due chiefly to small receipts from the tax on spirits. The taxes on the big whisky product of 1881 were paid last year, and the smaller product of 1882, available during the current year, yields taxes, so that there will probably be a falling off of $8 000,000 revenue from source before the close of the current fiscal

Gordon thereupon consented to the plan proposed. Meanwhile a panic arose and 8,000 soldiers and civilians deserted in a body. Two thousand men remained faithful and embarked with General Gordon. The rebels were advised of what had harrassed the retreat to Shendy, where masses of rebels, provided with artillery, disabled the flatilla. Only Colonel Stewart's vessel succeeded in passing Berber, and shortly afterward it was wrecked. The remainder of the flatilla was obliged to return southward and on reaching Shendy the entire force was captured.
