COLUMBIA NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondent

To-morrow is election. Every voter knows that the Democrats will win and that is what they will do.

SPRITED DEMOCRATIC MEETING

A large and enthusiastic Democratic meeting was held in East Petersburg, Saturday evening, at the public house of N. S. Fry.

NO POLITICS THERE

The workers of the Chickies Iron company will parade through Marietta this evening, in their working clothes, headed by the Mechanics band.

The Democratic meeting to-night, at the corner of Manor and Dorwart streets, promises to be largely attended.

compare Your City Tickets With This

Following is the state and county ticket to be voted exclusively in the city:

Fraudulent Tickets!

Democrats beware of spurious tickets!

The Republican managers have had tickets printed in imitation of the Democratic tickets, but which contain the name of S. T. Davis, the Republican candidate, instead of Henry Rabter, the Democratic candidate for Assembly, from the city district.

Examine your tickets carefully, and see that they contain the name of Henry Rabter, for Assembly. It is probable that other bogus tickets are in circulation. Examine your ticket carefully before voting.

There is no circulation in the city Democratic tickets for the upper and lower Assembly districts. It is the expectation that city Democrats will vote their regular city tickets which contain the name of Henry Rabter for Assembly. Beware!

An Historical Gavel at a Universalist Convention

From the Reading Intelligencer.

At the recent session of the Universalist general convention, held at Peoria, Ill., Rev. F. A. Biebee, of the church of the Restoration, Philadelphia, presented the convention, on behalf of Rev. James Shrigley, of that city, a gavel which had been made by the donor of three different pieces of wood, each with a history of its own. One was cut from the first house of worship in Ephrata, Lancaster county, Pa., in which the Rev. Conrad Beissel preached Universalism early in the 18th century. Another was cut from a rafters of the old house in Oley, Berks county, Pa., in which Dr. George De Havenville preached Universalism in 1745, and the third piece from a cedar post originally supporting the grave of Thomas Patter, in Good Luck, N. J., who accepted the first Universalist church in which the Rev. John Murray preached in 1780.

This morning the regular monthly meeting of the board of prison inspectors was held and a number of bills were approved.

The contract for furnishing rye offed to the prison was awarded to Henry Hershey at 25 cents per bushel. Henry Doerr was awarded the contract for beef at 6 cents per pound.

This afternoon the inspectors and county commissioners are holding a joint meeting in the court house to take some action in regard to the gas at the prison.

Meeting on Cicilians.

There has been a great deal of betting by politicians of this city to-day. Most of them were made on the state of New York, and, although odds in favor of Cleveland are being given in all the large cities, the bets made here are all even. Two gentlemen bet $500 even on the result in New York, at noon.

Picture.

The Harrisburg Telegram of yesterday contained a good picture of Henry Rabter, proprietor of the Grapo hotel, who is the Democratic candidate for Legislature from this city, with a history of his life.

The Agriculturists.

The Lancaster county agricultural and horticultural society was to have held a stated meeting in their room in city hall to-day, but there was not a quorum present.

Choren soaping.

The Bethel, of the Church of God, in Washington borough, will be reopened with appropriate services, November 9th. The public are invited to attend.

Yesterdays.

John Martin Herr, of Hawkesville, who driving near the Reformed church, in Quireyville, had his horse scare and ran the buggy against a hitching post, breaking the top of the vehicle and throwing Mr. Herr from his seat. He escaped with slight injury.

The remains of John Ahmest, of Port Deposit, who was residing in New Oxford, Pa., died Thursday, of pneumonia, in Philadelphia. His remains were interred in Marietta, yesterday.

Several turnpike companies of the county to-day elected officers for the ensuing year. The following were elected this morning:

LANCASTER & HILLSBOROUGH TURNPIKE. President—Wm. Henry G. Long. Treasurer—William P. Brinton. Managers—John C. Hager, Samuel H. Reynolds, George L. Baskwater, George D. Slaymaker and Samuel P. Keller.

CONEWING & BIG SPRING VALLEY TURNPIKE. President—Dr. Henry Carpenter. Secretary and Treasurer—Robert A. Evans. Managers—S. H. Reynolds, Charles H. Loeber, John B. Kreider, Christian Lefevre and Dr. Wm. Compton.

There are no companies remaining companies will be published to-morrow, as the voting does not close until 4 o'clock.

A DIRTY TRICK.

Democratic Turnpikes Laid Off in Marietta because of their Politics.

We are informed that Arthur Bennett, a cigar manufacturer of Marietta, has discharged the following workmen who are Democrats, at the instance of George H. Ettla, and for the purpose of keeping them from voting in Marietta, which Mr. Ettla wants to show a great Republican majority because he wants to be a senator and to demonstrate by his works that he deserves high reward from his party. The men discharged were John Holtzler, Charles Rothwiler, Peter Hare, Frank Hare, Elmer Dumbred and Albert Sheild. They say that none of their Republican fellow workmen were discharged, and that their politics alone was the cause of their being "laid off."

The act has here the Blaine party in Marietta, as it has made the decent Republicans indignant and lost Blaine some of their votes. None of the discharged Democrats will lose their votes and some of them will vote for Blaine.

Sale of Stock.

Jacob B. Long, broker, sold to-day at private sale 19 shares Farmers' National bank stock at $10 1/2 per share, 4 shares Cosmopolitan & Big Springs turnpike at $20 per share and 2 shares Western market at $51 per share.

BURLINGTON MUSIC SCHOOL.

MUSIC HALL, BURLINGTON, IOWA, NOV. 3, 1884.

Messa, Kravich & Bach.

GENTLEMEN: The piano recently purchased from you for my recitals, is so exceptionally fine that I feel constrained to give my first testimonial in favor of any particular instrument, its highest tones are clear and brilliant, and the middle register is well adapted to the cantabile style, and the base is rich and powerful.

Added to these rare qualities, your instruments have a bright responsive touch and a flash to all the mechanical details. With sincere appreciation,

J. A. GOODRICH, Prof. of Music.

The Kravich & Bach piano is the favorite at the Sacred Heart Academy, and is in constant daily use, besides a number of private parlors in this city.
