STURDY INDEPENDENT REPUBLICANS. At Rochester, N. Y., the day opened wot, but was fair by ten o'clock. The election is proceeding quietly and the vote full. The Independent Republicans are polling a large vote. The Irish vote for Blaine is not greater than was anticipated ; the Republicans claim Monroe county by 5,000 majority and the Demo-cratic concede 2,500.

GREAT DEMOCRATIC INCREASE. At Hud on, N. Y., all was quiet at noon the largest vote being recorded ;the Demoeratic electors running considerably ahead of the local and state tickets with a largely increased Democratic vote over 1880. Reports from the country towns are to the same effect. Many St. John and few But ler votes are being cast. EINGS COUNTY GOOD FOR 18,000.

Y., NOV. 4.—In a Demo-oratio ward they are rolling up a large majority for Cleveland, while Republicans are working hard in their wards to pull it down. largely Republican, but Cleveland's own ward) appeals are being made to vote s to support him as a matter of pride. It is believed the Democrats will carry the ---- ward. Just before eight o'clock Cleveland ap peared at the polls and supplied with a straight Democratic ticket, took his place at the foot of the line patiently waiting his turn to vote. A large crowd gathered to watch him vote. As he deposited his ballot they gave him three cheers and a tiger. At 9:15 a. m., he left for Albany. SOHENECTADY, N. Y., Nov. 4.-Both sides are working desperately here. This county will give Blaine 400 or more majority. TOWNS IN NEW YORK.

At Newburgh, N. Y., the Prohibition and Butler vote is slight. Many Butler men are voting for Blaine. The Republi-cans claim that Blaine's majority in this city will be 400, a small increase over Garfield's. PROBABLE DEMOCRATIC GAIN OF 400.

STAPLETON, N. Y , Nov. 4 - All quiet. Richmond county will give Cleveland 400 majority larger than Hancock's.

cutting. The Situation in New Jersey. TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 4.—The weather is cloudy and threatening. Up to 9 o'clock the vote was light, but after that hour it grew heavier and now promises to be very large. The Republicans express much confidence. Prosecutor Beasley has ordered the arrest of number of Republicans ordered the arrest of number of Republicans potters on the charge of bribery, and trouble is feared. Up to one o'clock a large Republican vote had been cast. The Democrats are apparently holding back. In the Seventh district, the Democratic stronghold, Butler leaders are openly dvocating straight Republican tickets.
