A CURIOUS HISTORY. ROUGHED FOR AS DEAD FOR YEARS. His Adventures Wandering During Seventeen Years--The Reason Why he Stayed Away from His Village.

When Dunn brought word to Rye that he had seen Johnny Hodgins it turned the village up side down.

It was true. Michael had been a coachman and Hodgins was a boy and used to let him drive his horse.

John found things a good deal as he had left them, and there was nothing to feel badly about but the death of his father.

As soon as the neighbors had stopped pouring in he began to tell his own version of the story.

Robesonia was the scene of a terrible and distressing accident shortly before three o'clock Thursday afternoon.
