But at the same time the fact is known to be that Blaine and Logan have not en elected; and that they have not carried every Northern state but Con necticut and New Jersey, nor have they my chance of carrying either of the Vir Could admits it, the Press follows, and the others must come tumbling after.

Chairman Barbour, of Virginia, replies to the Republican committee's ertion that his state is doubtful, by the declaration that it is not doubtful and has never been doubtful at any time lince the election. He declares that it has given the Democratic majority expected of it by his committee, and that the telegrams sent over the country since the election have been so wanting n any foundation as to suggest the nion that a conspiracy has existed to laisely claim the state for some wrongful

Mr. Hendricks sends from Indiana a similar statement. He too declares that Indiana has never been doubtful, that its majority for Cleveland and him self is not less than eight thousand, and that the agent of the Associated Press has intentionally sent false reports of been avenged. Indiana's vote out to the country.

In New York state we find a similar charge made about the Associated Press reports, substantiated by the plainest evidence that they have been cooked to serve the purpose of claiming the state for Blaine. There is to day but one newspaper in New York city that con-tinues this claim, and that is the Tribune, the organ of the national committee and of Blaine. The Sun, which is of the states. It says that it finds the usual sources of intelligence upon which It has been accustomed to rely to be unreliable and that it has had to resort to special means of obtaining the vote of the precincts. This almost unanimous charge of the press against the Associated Press, which is served by the Western Union telegraph company's agents. is abundantly sustained by the examination of its reports, which have been so clumsily prepared to deceive as to declare on their face the deception atattempt has been made in the returns, iron hand." sent over the country by the Western Union telegraph company's agents, from the Viiginias, Indiana and New York, to conceal the true vote of these states. It is also clear that this deception was mittee and its organs when they, after the contrary. two days observation, claim the election of their ticket. It is a fair presumption that Mr. Blaine, an astute politician, thoroughly understood that he was defeated, when he united in chorus with his committee and organs in claiming his election and demanding that he be not defrauded out of it.

Now what does all this mean ? Does i indicate that the Republican national committee and its candidates intend to claim the presidency or was it only a scheme of Jay Gould to rig the stock market? The presumption is that the claim of election was made with Intent to enforce it by the most desperate resources. It is hardly credible that Blaine and his committee would claim yesterday what they knew they would have to disclaim to-day or to morrow. A formal declaration of this kind is one made to be maintained And yet we have no idea that this one will be maintained. Mr. Blaine is a bold and desperate man, but he has not sand enough for such an enterprise ; nor will be have the needed backing. We do put Butler to flight. not fear that his party will stand by him under the demonstration that his claim of election is false. The temper of the people is altogether against forcible and fraudulent election settlements. They have had enough of them. Their ex perience eight years ago will last at least this generation. We had satiety then of such methods of settling elections-Vary few will want to fight for Mr Blaine, as they will have to fight to seat him if he is not elected. This is too well understood to be doubtful, and a fight cannot be got up by a few. All the people will have to spoil for it before we get st all. Cleveland and Hendricks will be seated peaceably. Mr. Blaine and his committee will back water speedily. Their ally, Mr. Jay Gould, has set

m the example. Mr. Gould may have n scared into his acknowledgment of Cleveland and his congratulatory dis natch by the demonstrations of the peode and the uncovering of the malicious falsehoods of his telegraph company, or sight by an accident while out shooting in 1853. When Mr Giadstone became and his national committee when had no further use for them and have left them to stick in charge the duties of that position with trap into which he led them, success. Mr. Gould has a habit of deserting his allies in stock speculations and getting out at the back door when he has garn gred his profits. Quite probably Mr Gould has made a pretty penny on the stock exchange and in election betling, by his manipulation of the election poor a to create a doubt of the result; burned Thursday morning. The loss will and now when his profits are ready to reach $100,000. The streets are filled with create in he quickly picks them up, deserts. Braine and halls Cleveland. This would be seen and halls Cleveland. This would be seen and halls cleveland. The would be seen and hall over the seen and h Jay Gould all over. Mr. Blaine and is committee perchance may be part are of the profits; in which case they to obtain an accurate account of the loss of eash as a consolation for their ert fication. Or they may have been t out in the cold in Gould's retreat berg's piano and fancy goods store and a and have nothing but a bitter memory abused confidence to take with them in their collapse; in which event their dition is pitiable indeed.

THE doubtful states seem to be eliminated now, and Cleveland and Hendricks score 219 electoral votes with a solid South reinforced by New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Indiana, Mich. igan is still somewhat uncertain, with however strong probability that it is Republican. It seems that the wonderful crop of doubtful states was made so big by the deliberatingly false news of the telegraph. There never were any very doubtful states but New York, and that was really doubtful until last night. Now there is an assured plurality in it for Cleveland of not less than one thousand, which may reach two thousand. The New York Sun's tables makes it 1,194. The York New Times foots it up 1,276. The Herald makes it 1,986; and the World about 2.550.

The full official returns from every cuaty in the state give Cleveland New York by a good plurality. The World claims 2,148, the Herald 2,000, the Times 1 400 and the Sun 1,300. There is great joicing here, the streets being full of people shouting and cheering. The feeling that the Associated Press was trying to ter the returns so as to enable Gould and Cornell to speculate aroused bitter antag-onism. Merchants held a meeting and appointed a committee to confer with emient Lwyers and the national committee, and resolved to prevent any repetition of the fraud of 1876

I: was learned that Jay Gould, A. B. Cornell and S. B. Elkins held a conference after which Gould and Mr. Cornell met in the Western Union building, examined the Associated Press election returns, and immediately the Associated Press changed the form of its bull tins and began claiming the election of Blaine. Crowds gathered and sang out: 'No-no-no more 1876!' and posted the Tribune. Jay 1876!' and posted the Tribune, Jay Gould's and the Western Union buildings with a large placard bearing Cleveland's picture. Thousands of people marched the streets crying: "Blame-Blainecontinental liar from the state of Maine.'. apisin Williams and his brutal police men made an onelaught upon the crowd and scattered them about. SHALL NEW YORK BE STOLENT A Concerted Effort to Capture the State

New York Dispatch to the Times. There is no doubt about Cleveland bay ing a majority of some 2,000 over Blaine in New York; but it may now be regarded as certain that concerted action has been taken to manipulate and reverse the majority. Jay Gould and Elkins have been in consultation frequently since the elec-tion, and they have decided that Blaine's election must be claimed although they know him to be beaten, and that the vote of New York must be manipulated of transfer the state from Cleveland.

The preliminary step to this contempla ted introduction of fraud as a factor in the contest was an order to the leading organs of the party to claim not only New York for Blaine by several thousand, but to per-sist in claiming Virginia, West Virginia, Florida and Indiana for Blaine, although bey know that all of them are lost Blaine's election is, therefore, to be claimed as secured without New York to inspire the party to support the fraud that must be practiced in New York. By the time that the fall vote of the other states claimed becomes known, they hope to have perfected and executed the fraud in New York, without which Blaine is defeated.

The organs have been instructed and now claim everything-not only New York, but both the Virginias, Florida and Indiana, and dispatches are now sent out from leading men connected with the head quarters claiming large majorities and Slaine's certain election. They know that they must drop all claim to the other states in a day or two ; but they mean to concentrate everything to manipulate New York as their final effort to save Blaine. How or where they will strike is not yet known but the associated press reports of to day and to-night have been colored and made confusing as far as Gould's Western Union could do it, and to morrow will probably develop where and how the Blaine majority is to be manufactured as directed by Gould and E kins. That they mean to do it, is no longer doubtful. They will stop only when they see that they cannot or dare

Chairman Mauning takes in the whole situation in his bulletin of this evening He has the official returns from every county ; he knows that Cleveland has the state and he proclaims the purpose of the Democratic board of canvassers to count and declare the vote as it has been cast by the people. But for the board of convassers Gould would undoub edly succeed in the attempt to return Blaine by fraud; but that obstacle is insuperable and the fraud will not succeed. If attempted it will greatly disturb the country, but the sentiment of the entire business community here is intensely bostile to any and every form of fraud, and it will be very dangerone for Gould to persist in his desperate attempt to commit the second theft of the

This return makes the House stand 112 Re-publican and 57 Democratic. The official ount may make a few changes in this list.

Obed Robinson was prosecuted yesterday before Alderman Fordney, for having committed an assault and battery on Grace Ward. The accused entered bail for a hearing.

John Potts was arrested by Officer Alt, by Offiser Rees on a warrant issued by Alderman Samson, charging him with schools and adding 168 attending night larceny. The prosecutor is Adam Steiner, of Providence township, and he claims that Beck, who was a tenant of his until recently, moved away and took with him a large lot of cornfodder, the property of the prosecutor. Beck was locked up at the station house and will be heard this even-

John Maynard, of West Hempfield township, had in his employ for some time a boy named Henry Myers. On several occasions he missed money, and a few days ago when four trade dollars were stolen, Myers was missing. Believing that the boy stole the money he made complaint against him before Alderman McComony and Myers was arrested. He admitted to the constable that he stole the money. His case was heard this afternoon and in default of bail Myers was committed for trial.

Thus far four arrests have been made of parties charged with being participants in the fight at Siegler's hotel on Wednesday evening. The parties accused entered bail before Alderman Barr for a bearing on Tuesday evening.

The mayor committed a drunk for ten days to the county prison and a vagrant to the workhouse for 80 days. Ralph Trewitz was arrested at Chester yesterday on a bench warrant issued by our court. Some mouths ago the gran jury found a true bill against him for committing an assault and battery on Amos Raese and Trewitz fatled to appear when called for trial. To-day Reese agreed to a settlement of the case upon FILLING VACANCIES. Mr. McComsey, after expressing gratification at the amicable organization of the board, moved to renew the resolution adopted one year ago, agreeing that vacancies occasioned by death, resignation or removal, should be filled by the party losing the member.

Mr. Warfel called attention to the fact that, while he endorsed this sentiment, such a resolution could have no binding force. If anything was to be done in the matter, a rule of that sort ought to be

Mr. Baker thought it foolish to socumber the books with such a resolu-Mr. Brosius thought the members had no right to bind themselves, and, when the question was called, the resolution was defeated by a vote of 14 to 13. CITY SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

LANGANTER PA., NOV. 6, 1884 To the Board of School Directors of the City GENTLEMEN : - Your city superin endent presents the f

the public schools for the month of October:

The whole number of pupils enrolled was 275 in the high schools; 410 in the first divisions of the secondary; 601 in the second divisions of the same; 883 in the first divisions of the primary and 1,171 in the second divisions of the same : exclusive of the East Strawberry street school of which the enrollment was 43, making a total enrollment of 2,making a total enrollment of 3,-382 in the schools, and adding 243 carolled in the night schools; the whole number of pupils edu-cated in the public schools during the mouth was 8,625. The average attendance was 267 in the high schools, 877 in on a warrant issued by Alderman Barr. the first divisions of the secondary; 540 John had been on a spree for several days, in the second divisions of the same, 770 in and a member of his family had him the first divisions of the primary and 972 looked up to give him a chance to get in the second divisions of the same, exober.
Samuel F. Beck was arrested last night school, of which the average attendance > schools, a grand total of 3 130 average percentage was 88. The number of visits made by the city superintendent was 94, those made by directors to the day schools were 29, to the night schools 97, total 53, as follows: Hon, J. B. Warfel 18, H. E. Slavmaker 1, Dr. J. Levergood 4, J. Oohs 7, H. R. Breneman 8, Dr. D. R. McCormick 1, W. Johnson 7, D. Smeych 7, H. Gast 3, Geo. Darmstetter 2, J. W. Byrne 2, Rev. C.

Reimensnyder 1. With the opening of the South Prince 17th inst., our schools will be fully organized. Some of the schools in the northern part of the city are, however, too large to do effective work not only so far as the in-tellect is concerned, but more especially as regards morals and manners, the heart and social affections. The New street advanced primary has been relieved by the transfer of a large portion of the first class into the secondary school, where they will continue their studies until they are prepared for the secondary grade. It will however be seen at once that this is a temporary reduction of the grade of this secondary school and entails considerable additional labor on the teacher which I could not have required of her under the rules but which I am happy to say she not only most cheerfully assumed, but herself suggested the arrangement.

It is not so easy to reduce the number of pupils in the East Lemon and West James street lower primaries. Here the only remedy is more primary schools, and this means more room. With the rapid means more room. With the rapid extension of the city toward the north and west this will become an absolute necessity by the opening of the next term, and I suggest as the best and cheapest means of relief, the building of an addition to the West James street school house, giving us two additional rooms at a cost of probably not over $3,000. This would enable us to enlarge the West James street district and consequently effectually diminish the num. ber of pupils attending the East Lemon and West James street primaries.

Respect u ly, your obedient servant, R K. BURHHLE.

THE COMMITTEES. President Levergood, after reading a note from Secretary Johnston, apologizing for his absence and saying that he was sick, announced the following commit-
