THE WISHBONE.

Slender and shining, prophetic bone,
We pulled it the future to divine;
Her bare pink palm, the bit in my own,
Told that the wish and the wishbone both were mine.

"What did you ask for?" whispered my Rose,
Looking up shyly with eyes so true,
"I wished," I answered, drawing her close,
"The woman I win might look like you.

"Her eyes as brown as a forest brook,
Her cheek as pink as a sea shell's tint,
A tender mouth and a saucy look,
And pale brown hair with a golden glint;

"In short, that my future wife might be
You, dear little Rose, and only you."
Hiding her face in my breast, said she,
"Isn't it funny?—I wished that too."

An English Ball Dress.

From the London Truth.

As Lilla is going to a ball next week, she chose a dress for the occasion. You may think it rather sombre, but it suits her wonderfully. The material is net, in a deep tone of moss-green, and the trimming consists of trails of nasturtiums in their natural colors, made of velvet and the leaves of silk. There is no tucker to the bodice, which is silk matching the tulle in color. The waterfall back is at present in some disgrace. Whether it will come into favor again when the regular dancing season begins, it is difficult to say; but now the favorite sort of drapery is that which falls in loop-like folds to the very edge of the skirt. The tulle in Lilla's dress is very fully and thickly draped over a foundation of yellow-red nasturium-colored silk, which is just visible enough to warm up the dark green. Her stockings are of the precise tint of this silk, and her shoes of dark-red satin, embroidered in nasturtium colors. Her gloves are silk, matching the shoes, and are tied above the elbows with many-colored velvet ribbons. Her fan is a large, brown-green leaf, made of plush with a bunch of velvet nasturtiums tied upon it with long, drooping, velvet ribbons, like those on her arms and on her dress.

A seasonable Remark.

From the Detroit Free Press.

"You are not like autumn," she sighed as the persistent lover sat out the hours

"Why, my dearest?" he inquired with a fond and foolish expression

"Because autumn leaves, but you never do."

"Bright's Disease" is regarded by many as incurable and it is well nigh so, except when opposed with HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY. Letter from J. Malcolm Smith, Clerk of Westminster County, New York, for Nine Years.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Nov. 7, 1882.

I have for many years been troubled at times with muscular rheumatism and pleuritic pains, and have always found Allcock's Porous Plasters to be quick and efficient in affording relief.

In December last I had an attack of Pneumonia, which left one of my lungs in a weak and extremely sensitive condition, accompanied at times with severe pain. The application of one plaster relieved the pain in a short time, and I have worn one almost constantly since, as a protaction to the weakened lung.

I have used Allcock's Porous Plasters for myself and family for over twenty-five years, always with speedy and beneficial results, and I do not hesitate to recommend them for their mild counter-irritant qualities, and for their efficiency in relieving soreness of the lungs and pains of a rheumatic or neuralgic character. J. MALCOLM SMITH.

Be sure to obtain "Allcock's" Porous Plaster, as all others are worthless imitations.

Get the Best Dyes. The Diamond Dyes for family use have no equals. All popular colors easily dyed fast and beautiful. Only 10c a package at druggists. Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington Vt. Sample card, 32 colors, and book of directions for 2c stamp.

Very Remarkable Recovery.

Mr. Geo. V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She used two Bottles of Electric Bitters and is so much improved that she is able now to do her own work."

Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative powers. Only 50 cents a bottle at Cochran's Drug Store, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa.

Honesty the Best Policy.

In advertising a medicine it is best to be honest; deception will never do; the people won't stand it. Let the truth be known that Burdock Blood Bitters cure scrofula, and all eruptions of the skin. This medicine is sold everywhere by druggists. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street

No Deception Used.

It is strange so many people will continue to suffer day after day with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sour Stomach, General Debility, when they can procure at our store SHILOH'S VITALIZER, free of cost if it does not cure or relieve them. Price, 75 cents. Sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster. fed14-eod5

A Word of Caution.

Railroad men, mechanics, commercial travelers, base ballists, farmers, and others who labor out of doors, are peculiarly liable to accident and injury. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for bruises, burns, bites and sprains, is one of the finest applications yet devised. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.
