HOUSING MEETING OF MERCHANTS.

New York Business Men Celebrate Cleveland's Election—Business Speakers Address the Vest Assembly.

The merchants of New York held a meeting at the academy of music, Saturday night, to celebrate the election of Cleveland and Hendricks. All the exchanges and trades that were represented in the parade of November 1 sent delegations. The building was packed, the delegations were numerous. It was plain that the crowd fully believed that their candidate had been elected. Carl Schurz and Samuel J. Randall sat together near the chairman, August Belmont. Mr. Belmont in his opening address said that the Democratic party had won the victory and nothing would be allowed to interfere with Cleveland's inauguration. Every time this sentiment was expressed during the evening the building shook with applause.

Carl Schurz said: "I am here to exchange congratulations with you of the independent Republicans who felt it to be their duty to turn their backs upon the candidate of their party and to support Grover Cleveland as the exponent and representative of official integrity and administrative reform. [Great cheering.] This is not a mere party triumph, but is emphatically the victory of honest government in America, and of national honor in the eyes of the whole world. [Cheers.] Its greatness cannot be measured by the size of our own majority—for that majority is not very large—but it may be measured by the power we have had to overcome and the greatness of the results it has accomplished and is still destined to accomplish. [Great cheering.]

Samuel J. Randall said: "The Democratic party has as much at stake in this country as the Republican officeholders at Washington.

"We have acquired the capacity to control the government in better and purer ways than the country has recently been accustomed to.

"We mean to make no assault on any of the material interests of the nation. On the contrary, we mean to see that no unkind thrust is made at capital.

"We mean to secure, if we can, a solid financial policy; to put an end to the corruption of administration, and we believe that the past life of Grover Cleveland [cheers] gives promise of those reforms when he shall assume the executive control of the government.

"I consider that our duty should make undetermined that no wrong shall be done, I would be moderate in my expression, and yet I say that any attempt to deprive the people of the fruits of this great victory will be resisted in every proper and legitimate way [Great applause].

General John B. Gordon said: "For you this is a season of joy, but what is it to the south? Here to-night our battle is over and we are one. We have said before, but were not believed. We loved good government and we love liberty and we intend to stand side by side with you in the future in defense of both. This victory means the revival of the good old days when to speak of the dishonor of a public servant was to consign him to infamy. [Applauded.] We never mean to know that hereafter there is no North, no South, but we are all Americans. It is not a victory of party, but it means that a great nation stands forth discredited and we are determined to see that we shall forget the Independent Republican who has worked so nobly for us, and we shall never forget you; and when at the end of Grover Cleveland's administration the country stands prosperous and free let us ascribe to those brave men the glory that is due them." [Great applause.]

Hon. Daniel Dougherty, of Philadelphia, made a short address, in which he said: "Grover Cleveland has been elected and by the living God all the powers on earth and in hell will never tear the purple from his shoulder."

TANDEMILL SENDS CONGRATULATIONS.

Governor Cleveland has received four thousand telegrams of congratulation. W. H. Vanderbit sent this on Saturday: "I congratulate you and the people of the whole country upon your election to the presidency of the United States. You are your election, in my opinion, to the fact that the people believed you to be an honest man and not to any particular effort made by any faction of either the Democratic or Republican parties. Independent men, who care more for good government than for parties or interests, have made you their choice because they were convinced that your administration would not be for the benefit of any political organization or favored persons, but for the interest of the whole people. This is just the result which we most desired. We have reached a time when party amounts to little; the country is above all and wants an honest government by honest men. The belief that we will find it in you has led to your election."

REPORTS OF CLEVELAND'S COMING MARCHES.

Rev. James McLeod, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Indianapolis, and who formerly occupied the pulpit of a Presbyterian church at Buffalo, N. Y., says that he has it on good authority that Governor Cleveland will shortly be married in marriage with a young lady of Buffalo.

DRIVEN INSANE BY THE RETURNS.

Colonel Lendall Pratt, of Hyde Park, New York, though seventy-three years old, worked hard all through the campaign to elect Blaine. He unsettled his mind by his labors and on Wednesday the conflicting news of the election completed the wreck and he became a raving maniac. He was taken to the county insane asylum, where on Saturday morning he killed himself by wrenching the bars from the window and jumping to the ground, twenty feet below.

PAYING ELECTION BETS.

From the New York Times:—The Presidential election bets on the result of the general election were paid Saturday. Addison J. Cammack, who is credited with having wagered $25,000 or $30,000 on Cleveland, received two or three checks from Blaine men who were satisfied that the question was settled.

SWEPT BY FLAME.

A town in Florida devastated by fire—Searcy & Miller's Loss.

A fire broke out in the spirit and oil store room of Devereaux, Rogers & Son, at Palatka, Fla., at about 10 o'clock Friday night. The flames communicated to the main store and thence to adjoining buildings. A large part of the business portion of the town was soon involved in the conflagration. A fierce wind blew from the northeast and the flames spread rapidly defying all the efforts of the fireman. The hotel Palatka, Griffin's block, Graham's hotel and adjoining stores, the store of Vertrees & Co., Houghton Bros., Kennedy & Co., Dunn, Lanna and Hart's offices, the Larkin house, the Presbyterian church, the magnificent Putnam house and many other buildings are in ruins.

The loss is estimated at $300,000, on which there is probably an insurance of half that amount. A steam fire engine and men were sent from Jacksonville. The fire was subdued at a late hour.

A LIFE LOST IN A FIRE.

At 11 o'clock Friday night a fire broke out in Dupaty's hotel, at Thibodeaux, which resulted in the destruction of the entire business part of the village of Napoleonville, including the Masonic hall, Odd Fellows' hall, and many stores and residences. The only important buildings saved are the court house, Parish jail, Catholic church and Episcopal church. Captain J. B. Whittington, a prominent lawyer, perished in the flames. He was sleeping in Dupaty's hotel and every effort was made to rescue him, but without avail. The losses aggregate $200,000, with $50,000 insurance.

TWO HOUSES FIRED BY INCENDIARIES.

Early Saturday morning an unoccupied house in Berlinville, L. I., valued at $1,500 and owned by Robert Tucker, of New York, was burned to the ground. Shortly after another house, belonging to the same party, was discovered to be on fire. Two men, who were running away, were arrested on a charge of setting fire to the buildings. They gave their names as Carl Schultz and William McKenna. Schultz confessed that he and McKenna had set both the houses on fire. They were committed to await the action of the grand jury.

The Man With a Cross Wife.

This man may have high ambition and noble aspirations, yet he cannot be expected to enjoy very good health, especially if the lady is a devotee of tea. It is a great pity to give any man chronic dyspepsia. If he takes Brown's Iron Bitters he will soon be a new man. Dr. J. C. A. Williams, of Boston, Mass., says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters and it has done me a great deal of good."

Postmaster Samuel A. Smith.

Of Monterey, Mich., delivers himself in this wise: "For colic, burns, sore throat, and inflammation, Zeller's Ointment cannot be beaten. I say keep it up to the standard, and it will satisfy the people. I shall send for a new supply soon. For sale by H. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street."

An Editor's Tribute.

Theron P. Kentor, editor of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Gazette, writes: "For the past five years have always used Dr. King's New Discovery, for coughs of most severe character, as well as for a number of other ailments. It never fails to effect a speedy cure. My friends to whom I have recommended it speak of it as a high tonic. Having been cured by it of every cough I have had for five years, I consider it the only reliable and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, etc." Call at Cochran's Drug Store, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa., and get a Free Trial Bottle.
