Body of a missing Man Found.

Alfred Chapman, aged 33 years, a well-known and respected citizen of Schenectady, N. Y., disappeared on October 19 Jacob Mohr, a farmer, is supposed to have been drowned at Hoffman's Ferry on November 7. In the search for Mohr's body in the Mohawk river Chapman's body has been found. The case is very mysterious. Chapman at the time of his disappearance had $1,500 in his possession, and only $39 were found on the body. Nothing can be discovered of the balance. The explosion of a dynamite cartridge brought the body of Chapman to the surface. The disappearance of Mohr is also surrounded with mystery.

Medical Men Puzzled About a Death.

The case of James Wilsey, the young man who, on the night of June 21, at Deposit, N. Y., killed Allen McClure with a single blow of his fist upon McClure's chin, is exciting great interest here among medical men and scientists. It has been proved that the man when struck was in a condition of perfect health, and that he did not die of heart disease, as asserted; nor is there anything upon which to base the allegations of the defense that the man died of apoplexy, as none of the usual indications of that affection were found.

Duty on Tin Plates.

Secretary McCulloch and Assistant Secretary French gave a hearing Tuesday to a committee from Philadelphia representing the importers of tin plates, who complained that a uniform rate of duty on tin plates had not been imposed at New York, Philadelphia and other ports, and asked that the matter be investigated. They were informed that their request for an investigation would be complied with, and if it was found that there was a difference in the rate of duty imposed at different ports, steps would be taken to apply a remedy so as to insure a uniform rate.

Cure of Rheumatism.

OCEANUS POSTOFFICE, ROCKAWAY BEACH, N. Y., March 1, 1883.

I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism. Some six weeks ago I had a bad attack and was laid up for a month; nothing appeared to me of any good. I got a box of Brandreth's Pills at last, and took three and four every night for a week I got better every day, and in a week I was well. On this beach we have no doctor, and our main reliance is on Brandreth's Pills and Allcock's Porous Plasters.
