JOLLIFICATION. Drowds in the Oly-Tus Final Arrange. McGrann's park Wednesday afternoon, all dy which the Democratic ox, donated by Mr B J. McGrann, was to be roasted. A very large corps of butchers and ansistants wore at work under the direction of Messrs. Geo. Darmstetter, The killing of the animal was done to and Geo. Darmstetter, The killing of the animal was done by Messrs. Gauss, Hamp and Dinkelberg. After he was dispatched he was prepared and placed on a large spit over a fire of burning coal and the roasting began. The precious sacriflee was watched all through the night by the special police force on duty at the park. The roasting proceeded under the supervision of George Peterman and an able corps of assistants. About 10 p. m, the scene was much enlivened by the arrival of a large delegation from the oity armed with coffee and sandwiches great crowd is present on the ground this moroing watching the proceedings with keen interest.

By nine o'clock this morning there was a large crowd on the grounds. The roast ing of the ox was completed by 10 o'clock and the fire was allowed to burn down. The large animal looked like a tremendous piece of roast beef. Large quantities of meat, which were roasted in town, were piled upon huge tables with great stacks of bread. The roasting place is enclosed by a circle of tables from which the lunch will be dealt out. The enclosure is guardid by a strong force of police, and no one but these employed on the grounds and ladies are allowed within. Thousands of people visited the grounds to-day for the sle purnose of seeing the great beast. It is thoroughly cooked, and all unite in praising the gentlemen having charge of the affair for the manner in which it was conducted. The management on the grounds is first class and those the committee appointed to look after affairs are present almost to a man. A feature of the jubilee is the efficient police force, which consists of about forty men. They were sworn in by Mayor Rosenmiller and every one can rest assured that the best of order will be maintained.

The descrations in the city are of the handsomest kind, and the town presents a holiday appearance. Everywhere the bouses are covered with flags, buntings and evergreens, and the pictures of the two lucky candidates can be seen upon all sides. It is impossible to give a descrip-tion of the descrations to day, but it will be given to morrow in our account of the The yield of corn will aggregate 1,809,000 sarade.
