SALT RHEUM.

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Posi-tively Oured.

ROZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with Curioura Soar, and a single application of Curioura, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of Curioura Rasolvant, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will specally cure Eczewa, Tetter Ringworm, Psoriasia, Lichen Pruritus, Scalled Head, Dandraff, and every species of Itehing, Scaly, and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedles fail.

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedles; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Curicura Resolvent blood parifier) laverally, and Curi una and Curicura Soav (the great skin cures) externally,

Chas. Houghton, esq., lawyer, 28 State St., Boston, reports a case of Salt Rheum under his observation for ten years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured by the Curicusa Remedies, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

F. H. Drake, esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered unfold tortures from Salt Rheum, which ap peared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. After the most carofu doctoring and a consultation of physician failed to relieve him, he used the Curricus REMEDIES, and was cured, and has remained so to date.

Mr. John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes:—

ONE HUNDRED TRAILS OF EPISCOPACY

An Important Contential Observance in New York—Total Absticance Union—The Catbolic Piesary Council.

Many Episcopal churches throughout the world held commemorative services on Friday, it being the one-hundredth anniversary of the Episcopal consecration of Dr. Samuel Seabury, the first bishop of the Episcopal church in America, which occurred in Aberdeen, Scotland; the consecrators were prelates of the Scotlish Episcopal church. This church was, as it continues, an independent body, sustaining no constitutional relation with the government. The dauntiers New England ment. The daunties New England Presbyter on his search for Episcopal con-secration had knocked at the doors of Lambeth and presented his canonical oredentials to the English bishops ordentials to the English bishops only to receive a mortifying, half-contemptous rebuff. These Sootch bishops, exercising their functions under heavy social and political disabilities, promptly and heroically took in hand the representative of the handlut of Colonial Episcopalians and sent him back in bishop's orders. The English establishment a few years later, awoke to some recognition of years later, awoke to some recognition of their objections to American churchmen and conferred the episcopate on Drs. White and Provoost. But American churchmen have a keen delight in tracing back their historical lineage to those fear-less prelates in America 100 years ago. Since Nov. 14, 1784, when Dr. Seabury was made bishop, the Episoopal church perfected an organization which stretches across the continent under the jurisdiction of sixty-four diocean and missionary bishops, with about 3,000 clergymon, and an estimated membership of more than 500,000. The Catholic Total Abstinence Union. The Lecture and Publication Bureau of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of American met Tuesday in Baltimore. All Minerican met Tuesday in Battimore. An interest in the members were present, namely: Bishop Ireland, of St. Paul,; Rev. James M. Cleary of Wisconsin, president of the Union; Rev. James P. Mealia, of Brooklyn, vice president; Rev. Thos. McMillan, C. S. P., of New York; Philip A. Nolan, of Philiphes. of Philada, general secretary of the union, and John H. Campbell, president of the C. T. A. Union of Philadelphia. An extended plan of operations for the winter was mapped out, and it was resolved to send total abstinence speakers to all parts of America to enlist Catholics in the total abstinence movement. In the evening a public temperance meeting was held at St. Alphonsus' hall, which was addressed by Bishop Ireland, Fathers Cleary and Mealia and John H. Campbell.

The work of the plenary council in Baltimore on Friday consisted of the reports of several of the committees and it is expected that some of the subjects will is expected that some of the subjects will be veted upon Sunday next at the public session at the Cathedral. All the proceed-ings in the public sessions are in the Latin language, while the discussions in the secret sessions are in English. There was a conference, Friday after con at the Cathedral of the archbishops and bishops, at which the work of the week was re-viewed, but nothing of the marticular subviewed, but nothing of the particular sub-jects nor the conclusions remobed were permitted to be given to the public. Fri-day night at the Cathedral Most Rev. C. C. " LIGHT OF ASIA DEAD."

orepaugh's facrod White Eisphant Dies of Lung Faver. Adam Forepaugh's" white elephant, the "Light of Asia." is no more. The sacred beast died at the headquarters of the great showman, Lehigh avenue and Edgemont streets, Philadelphia, on Friday morning. The body has been shipped to Dr. Boyd, of Chicago, where it will in all probability be set up in the Academy of natural sciences. About one week ago Mr. Adam Forepaugh conceived the idea of training the sacred elephant. Unfortunately he selected a cold, wintry day for the performance. The elephant showed such wonderful sagacity that his trainer failed to note the flight of time, and it was nearly dark before he allowed "Light of Asia" to return to his stall. The keeper carelessly left the window open, and all night esaly left the window open, and all night lessly left the window open, and all night long a cold blast blew upon the sacred beast. The next day the "Light of Asia" was taken seriously ill, but Mr. Forepaugh considered himself equal to the emergency, and he immediately began administering what he considered the proper medicines. The white elephant grew medicines. The white elephant grew medicines. The white elephant grew worse day by day, however, and it was discovered that he was suffering from lung fever.

About 9 o'clock Friday morning the sacred beast breathed his last. The attendants say that the companion elephant of the "Light of Asia," upon seeing her friend fall over dead, walked up to him and endeavored to raise him up with her trunk. Failing in this, she then placed her front foot on the white elephant's side and pressed upon it several times. her front foot on the white elephant's side and pressed upon it several times, evidently for the purpose of proving beyond a doubt that life was extinct. She then walked slowly away and began to bellow most pitifully. The other elephants soon took up the cry, and Rocks, one of the largest of the trained elephants, beat his trunk against the brick walls of his stall and endeavored to break loose. He gave one tremendous lunge forward in the effort to break the heavy iron chain that effort to break the heavy iron chain that encircled his right foreleg, and pulled his leg from its socket. It has since been im-possible to approach Rocks with safety, and he stands on three legs groaning con-possible to approach Rocks with safety, and he stands on three legs groaning continually.

Mr. A. J. Forepaugh made a post mortem examination of the body of the white elephant, and found that death was due to lung fever. The fiesh was subsequently removed from the bones, and the skin, bones and head—the latter perfectly intact—were sent to Chicago.

Mr. Forepaugh in speaking of his loss said: "By the loss of the white elephant I am out of pocket $52,000. I sent the body to Dr. Boyd because he secures every beast that dies in my possession. I gave the body of the big war elephant Romeo to him, and it is now on exhibition in the Academy of Natural Science in Chicago. This fail I have been very unfortunate. Recently I lost a Bengal tiger, valued at $1,500. The big blue-faced mandrill died about two weeks ago. I will never buy another white elephant. The people didn't appreciate the one I had, and they wouldn't appreciate another unless he was as white as snow."

DARKER'S TONIO.

Where the Fire is Out. Magic No More a Mystery-Seer

From Across the World. "Haroun of Aleppo," said Sir Philip Derval, "had mustered every secret in nature which the nobler magic seeks to rathom. He discovered that the true art of healing is to assist Nature to throw off the discovered to summon, as it were, the whole system to eject the enemy that has fastened on a part. His processes all includes the reinvigoration of the include ple of life."

In this the Eastern sage merely et pated the practice of the best physicians of to-day. What life itself is, nobody knew then—nobody knows now. But we have learned something of the resons who the what life itself is, nobody knew then—accordy knows now. But we have learned something of the reasons why the mysterious tide rises and falls. Provided the great organs of the body are not irreparably destroyed, medical science can always relieve, and often save. Yet no reputable physician now adheres to the barbarous and stupid processes of depletion, such as biceding, by which it was attempted to cure disease by reducing the patient's ability to resist it. Nowaclays we do not tear down the fort to help the garrison—we strengthen it. In this intelligent and beneficent work, it is conceded that PARICER'S TUNIC leads all other medicines. As an invigorant it acts immediately and powerfully upon the circulation and the organs of digestion, thus giving Naturo the assistance she calls for. It follows that all aliments of the stomach, kidneys and liver are at once relieved or cured. No other preparation embodies the same qualities or produces similar results. It is deliclous to use, and the best known anti-intoxicant. Price, Soc. and $1 Histor & Co. New York.

Breesisg and Undressing the Sick.

A medical paper gives detailed directions for doing this. The whole may be summed up by saying that such work ought to be done carefully, kindiy and gently. But there are a great many sick tolks who are almost able to dress themselves, and will be entirely so if you give them Brown's Iron Bitters. The Rev. S. Cain, Louisville, Ind., says, "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for nervous prostration, and found it entirely satisfactory,"

If you are a minister, and have overtaxed yourself with your pastoral duties, or a mother worn out, with care and work or a man of business or labor, weakened by the strain of your everyday duties, or a man of letters toiling over your midnight work Hop Bitters will most surely strengthen you. If you are suffering from over-eating or drinking, any indiscretion or dissipation, or are young and growing too fast, as is often the case,

"Or if you are in the workshop, on the farm, at the deak, anywhere, and feel that your system needs cleansing, toning, or stimulating, without intoxicating, if you are old, blood thin and impure, pulse feeble, nerves unsteady, faculties waning, Hop Bitters is what you need to give you new life, health and vigor."
