A Gang of Hoodlums Outrage an Aged Woman in New Jersey—A Sheriff's Deputy Killed by a Horse.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 18.—Sunday night a gang of hoodlums broke into the house of Mrs. Bridget Leno, a dispirited shanty on the meadows. Her aged husband, who made a feeble defense, was brutally beaten. Meanwhile Mr. Lynch had fled, but they pursued her and disregarding her appeals for mercy dragged her into some bushes and repeatedly outraged her. Felix Woods, aged 18, Anton Dickinson, aged 19 and Michael Nash, aged 18, were identified as the ruffians and have been arrested.

The sheriff appeared on the scene and rescued the prisoner before death ensued. His injuries, however, will probably prove fatal.

Death of Richard Harrington.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 18.—Richard Harrington, the well known lawyer, died at Dover, this morning.

Harrington was a member of a famous family of Delaware politicians. He became notorious through the "safe burglary" cases in Washington, and suffered odium from his connection therewith. He was also the recipient of Mr. Blaine's warm letters of 1883, which was construed as an invitation to the Blaines to give Beaver and Folger the knife.

Deceased was a man of some intellectual and social parts, but rather indisciplined and political associations wrought an early and inglorious close to his funeral career.—Eos. [N.]
