SALT RHEUM.

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Posi-tively Cured.

CZEMA, or Salt fibeum, with its agonising fiching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA. SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kinneys active, will specally cure Eczema, Tetter Ringworm, Psoriasis, Lichen Pruritus, Scalled Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly, and Pixply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Salt Kheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Curioura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Curi ura and Curioura Soar (the great skin cures) externally,

Chas. Houghton, esq., lawyer, 28 State St., Boston, reports a case of Sait Rheum under his observation to: ten years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured by the Curreura KERMEDIES, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

F. H. Drake, esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered untold tortures from Sait Rheum, which appeared on his bands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. After the most careful dectoring and a consultation of physicians falled to relieve him, he used the Cutioura Reskudies, and was cured, and has remained so to date.

Mr John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes:I have suffered from Salt Kheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time, Three boxes of Curicua, and four bottles Rssolvent, have entirely cured me of this dread in disease.

THE MILLIONAIRE CATTLE MEN. An Idea of the Westin Represe St. Louis Convention - Some Figures That Are Starting.

An idea of the enormous wealth which is represented by the delegates to the Cattlemen's convention which assembled in St. Louis Monday, may be gained from the following references to a part of the companies and associations that have sent delegates, the statement being obtained from the officers of the various companies The largest and riobest association in the country, perhaps, is the Texas Live Stock association, which extends nearly all over the state of Texas, and embraces in its membership a large number of the members of fourteen of what are known as district associations. Wm. Lambert, its secretary, says the association owns a million head af cattle, the same number of sheep and 350,000 horses, and that a moderate estimate of their value would be $45,000,000. The largest of the district organizations in the state is the Southern Texas Live Stock association, which owns 420,000 head of cattle, 450,500 horses and a large number of sheep, the whole valued at over $9,000,000. They also have 4.650,000 acres of land valued at $11,625,-000, making their entire property worth about $21,000,000. The other large dis-trict associations in Texas are the North west Texas Cattle Raisers' association, Colorado and Brazos Cattlemeu's associa tion, Pan Handle Live Stock association and the Colorado and Concho Stock association, all of which own immense herds and send large delegations to the conven-association, whose range practically covers Colfax, Mora and San Miguel counties and embraces 15,000,000 acres, on which 800,000 head of cattle graze, besides a large number of horses. The other associations of New Mexico are the Aqua Caliente, with 240,000 head of cattle and a capital of $2,500,000; the Wagon Mound association, with 170,000 head of cattle and a capital of $2,000,000; Lincoln county association, with 400,000 head of cattle and a capital $3,000,000; Central New Mexico association, with 500,000 head of cattle and a capital of $6,000,000; Dona Anna association, with 85,000 head of cattle and a capital of $1,000,000 and the Southwestern association, with 90,000 head of cattle and mapital of $2,000,000. Of the ranches owned or controlled by St. Louis men and whose headquarters are in that city, the largest interest is that of Hunter & Evans, which embraces several ranches in Texas, the Indian Territory. Kausas and Nebraska, and has 286,000 head of cattle, a capital of $562,000, and owns and controls 11,464,000 acres of land Next comes the Continental, with $5,000 head of cattle, and a capital of $2,700,000, and in land $24,880 acros; Clark cattle and land company, with $0,000 head of cattle and a capital of $500,000, and in land $00,900 acros; Niobrara Cattle company, with $1,000 head of cattle and a capital of $200,000, and in land $0,000,000 acros. Daine, Cattle company, with $2,000,000, and in land $0,000,000 across. acres; Rainor Cattle company, with 15,000 head of cattle, a capital or $250,000, and 100,000 acres of land, and the St. Louis Cattle company, with 15,000 head of cattle, a capital of $200,000 and 200,000 acres of land. Their Ractoriest Peculiarities-Did-Time As a rule the men who stand out most prominently in the history of the Senate were of such habits of speech that there was little occasion for them to revise the reports of their speeches. Webster, as I said, was a slow speaker and a careful one. Seward usually wrote his speeches before-hand and committed them to memory, so that often he did not require them to be reported at all, turning them over in manuscript. This was not always the case, however. I remember on one occahe asked me to come and take breakfast with him and take a speech that he was going to deliver on some important subject. I did so, but when he got ready to speak he said he desired to have his speech taken again, as he would make some changes from the original one. So it was reported and the manuscript furnished him, and when it was returned I found that it was neither the first nor the second speech entire, but a third one, embodying portions of both the others. Seward was pretty careful about his sentences, and would often change a word here and there to polish them up, as it were. Summer was rather a slow speaker, and did not make many changes in his speeches. Mr. Chase, of Ohio, was much given to making changes in his speeches. Lincoln? Well, I never reported him, but know that he was a very slow speaker. Douglas was the opposite, a very rapid speaker. Evarts? Well, everybody knows about his long sentences. They are terrible. I remember one in his speech on the impeachment of Johnson which made. I think, eighty odd lines in the Record. I never knew but one man like him, and that was Bell, of Tennessee. No; there are not many men now in the Senate who are especially difficult to report. Mr. Edmunds is one of the fastest talkers. You would not think so to listen to him. He speaks in a rather low tone, a sort of conversational manner, and rushes out his sentences in a hurry. Ingalls is a pretty fast talker, but his enunciation is so distinct and clear that it is a pleasure to report him. Mr. Beck is a very fast talker, and will keep it up for hours, too.

Logan is about an average. Blaine. Well, he is not the most agreeable man in the world to report. Fast at times, and sometimes not so fast—a sort of jerky way that is not comfortable to the sten-

OLD NOTIONS ABOUT BRIDESMAIDS, ome Presty and Quaint Superstitions o From Cassell's Family Magazine. Instead of being so many graceful ornaments at the marriage ceremony as nowa-days, the bridesmaids in olden times had various duties assigned to them. Thus one of their principal tasks was dressing the bride on her wedding morning, when any omission in her toilet was laid to their charge. At a wedding, too, where it was arranged that the bride should be followed arranged that the bride should be followed by a numerous train of her lady friends, it was the first bridesmaid's duty to play the part of a drill mistress; "sizing them so that "no pair in the procession were followed by a taller couple." She was also expected to see that each bridesmaid was not only duly provided with a sprig of rosemary, or a fioral posy pinned to the breast folds of her dress, but had a sym-bolical chaplet in her hand. In many parts of Germany it is still

In many parts of Germany it is still customary for the bridesmaids to bring the myrtle wreath, which they have subscribed together to purchase on the nuptial eve, to the house of the bride, and to remove it from her head at the close of the wedding day. After this has been done, the bride is blindfolded and the myrtle wreath being put into her hand, she tries to place it on the head of one of the bridesmaids as they dance round her; for, in accordance with an old belief, whoever she crowns is sure to be married within a year from that date. As may be imagined this ceremony is the source of no small excitement, each bridesmaid being naturally anxious to follow the example of the bride. Referring once more to the bridal wreath and chaplet, it is still a current notion in many parts of our own country that the bride, in removing these, must take special care that her bridesmaids throw away every pin. Not only is it affirmed that misfortune will overtake the bride who retains even one pin used in bride who retains even one pin used in her marriage toilet, but woe also to the bridesmaids if they keep any of them, as their prospects of marriage will thereby be materially lessened.

Changes in the N. Y. State Uffices,

From the Eochester Union

The Albany Times calls attention to the fact that the advancement of Lieut. Gov. Hill to the governorship will have one singular effect. It is not the Democrats but For instance, the trustees of the public buildings who have charge of the comple-ted portion of the capitol, the state hall, and the executive mansion and the adjaand the executive maneion and the adjacent grounds, are the governor, lieutenaut governor, and the speaker of the Assembly by right of office. This board is Democratic. When Lieutenant Gov. Hill takes the governor's place Senator McCarthy, president of Senate pro tem., a Republican, will take the lieutenant goveror's place, and with a Republican spe of the Assembly will make the board Re publican. The lieutenant governor is also ex officio, a commissioner of the canal fund and of the land office, a member of the canal board, a trustee of the idiot asylum and of Union college, a regent of the university, a member of the state board of charities, From New Mexico seven associations are represented, the largest of which is the Northern New Mexico Cattle Growers' and of the state board of equalization o assessments. To all these positions Sena-ator McCarthy will succeed, but in none of the boards will it have any political effect, except in that of the trustees of the public buildings. It is this board which has the appointment of a large number of orderlies, watchmen, &c. Luckily, however, the rules of the civil service are in force, and it is not to be supposed that any Democrat will lose his place simply on ecount of his political opinions.
