PEDAY EVENING, NOV., St., 1884 STREET IN YAMAS QUILLOUS.

The Diames and Popules and Ostobres the Supposed Viscopy.

The banners of Cleveland and Hendricks and Blaice and Logan are still flaunted thing the corridors of Viscop cellege, Togatheopele, R. J. The girls of the siling have had a great time over polities. On the night before election they faterained to have an election among themselves. The majority for Blaine was very large, and included every one of the professors and teachers, who also voted. After the vote the Blaine party determined to have a parade. They brought out their middles from their rooms, and formed a torchlight procession, which marched through the corridors of the college, theoring for Blaine and Logan. Bome of the Clevesaud girls attached the procession as it moved along, throwing water on some of the girls.

Next day being election day Blaine and Logan badges, red, white and blue neckties and ribbons, and miniature flags were posity and in the evening the senior class got up souther parade. As the lady principal had forbidden any more carrying of candles the girls took umbrellas, and with them outspread and with each bearing the name of "Blaine" in large white letters, they marched through the college and shouted and cheated to their heart's content.

On the day of election the feeling was shouted and cheated to their heart's content.

On the day of election the feeling was too feverish to allow of much studying. The girls rushed pell mell for the bulletin boards, and the college halls fairly rang as the dispatches favorable to Blaine were made known.

In the evening the Blaine girls again obtained permission to parade and to display fireworks. At 8 p. m. the procession paraded through the corridors, singing and cheering. At the same hour Superintendent Van Vilet started the fireworks on the grounds. When the marching was over the procession was brought to a halt before the closed doors of the dining room where stood the president and lady principal, who had provided oysters and crackers for them and had invited the teachers and other students to join Now the Cleveland girls want to know when they can celebrate.

Melsconter's Struggles.

The price of M-issonier's wonderful little picture, "The Vedette," is stated to be $22 500. Fifty years ago Meissonier's inimitable drawings fetched from $4 to $8 apiece. In orfer to finish them he had to spend half the day in the "Bibliotheque Nationale," in Paria, studying Indian en gravings, which afforded subjects suited to the taste of the dealer whose orders the great French artist—then unknown to fame—was executing. Meissonier has him self left it on record that his lunch then consisted of a raw apple, and his dinner. (when he could afford one) of soup, fried potatoes, and a bit of bread. He could only afford to sleep one night in two, and for six months he claims to have lived on a sum of firty france.

Changes of temps rature are spt to occasion dangerous affections; in the full blooded apoplexy is to be feared. All, no a young and old, should have Baampaste's Fills ready; they are never falling. Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. SLAYMAKER, Agent for REIG ART'S OLD WINE STORE, by a prominen practicing physician of this county, who has attensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the at-tention or those afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweeps way their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive, we present to the isvorable notice of invalids—expectally those afflicted with that miserable disease, Dypspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

BRANDY. The aged, with feeble appetite, and more or less decility, will find this simple medicine, when used property, ▲ Sovereign Remedy For all their ills and sches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

Reigart's Old Brandy Sold by our enterprising iriend, H. E. S.LAY MARKE. This brands has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the proference over all other Brandles—no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles. preference over all other Brandles—no matter with how many jaw breaking French titles they are branded. One fourth of the money hat is yearly thrown away on various impo-tent dyspepsia specifics, would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases, in proof of the curative power of

in cases of Dyspepsia we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we will cite:

A hard working farmer had been afflicted with an exhausting Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every aind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact he wasobliged to restrict his ciet to 'rackers and state bread, and as a beverage he case. McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Mothodist and the near now, presched at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against at kinds of strong dring. When adviced to try

Raigart's Old Brands.

Reigart's Old Brandy In his case, he looked up with astonishment; but after hearing of his wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy fainfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, an before the second was all takes he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he choose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicies, he has been of very little necentary benefit to the doctor.—A Practicing Physician.
