THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

DEFENDED BY A NEW YORK PAPER

The "Journal of Commerce" writes that it had no share in the election returns.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The Journal of Commerce, which recently commented unfavorably on the Associated Press in connection with the collection of election returns from this state, says this morning editorially, that at a New York meeting of the Western and New York associated press to investigate the complaints, the arrangements for reporting were shown to be as perfect as could well be, and wholly without partisan bias.

Justus Hiller, of Conestoga Centre, heard number of young men on Tuesday evening on charges preferred by Emanuel Zercher, one of the officers of the Evangelical church of that village, for disturbing a religious meeting.

Magnanimous Victors. From the Columbia Courant. Who can blame the Democratic editors for throwing up their hands, tearing the heavens with shrieks of distress?

Who can blame the Democratic editors for throwing up their hands, tearing the heavens with shrieks of distress? What is much more gratifying is that they are showing a tender regard for the doleful plight of the Republican editors, and are inclined to let even Mr. Blaine down easy.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

From Our Regular Correspondent. The Susquehanna river raised 15 inches since Sunday night, and is still swelling.

Alley G. has been granted on 6th and 7th streets. Martin Houck's Seventh street houses has been completed.

Columbia has eighteen bootblacks, and they are all negroes. The kitchen in the residence of J. T. Wilson on Cherry street, was flooded yesterday, by the bursting of a boiler.

The Columbia Relief association meets on Saturday afternoon in the opera house. C. L. Filbert won the 33 pound turkey pulled-off last evening by Harry Belzler.

H. C. Young threw the dice for him and made 47 points. Jacob Webster scored 43 points, and won the 33 pound turkey, raffled-off in the Farmers' hotel last evening.

Choice of English Protestant churches will meet in the M. E. church, this evening, to practice for to-morrow's union Thanksgiving services.

The wages of puddlers in the Susquehanna rolling mill is to be reduced 20 cents on the ton. Day laborers will only be required to work 9 1/2 hours per day, instead of 10, but their wages will be cut down 5 cents per day.

A. P. R. R. brakeman, from Harrisburg, fell off his caboose this morning as his train on Cherry street, by striking his head against a track, an ugly wound was made.

Fred. Miller, brakeman on the C. D. local, had his right hand caught and mashed last evening, while coupling cars at St. Charles furnace.

Our merchants are erecting street lamps in front of their places of business. They give a much better light than gas.

F. G. Blanchard, R. C. engineer, has recovered from his recent illness and is again able to be at his regular work.

Mr. Simon May, cashier in the Columbia National bank, has resigned. The board of directors say they are decreasing the expenses of the bank.

Mr. May entered the bank February 1, 1884, and on December 3, 1878, was elected cashier. He has ever been a faithful and honest worker for and in the interest of the bank.

The Shawnee Active association's ball in Armory hall, last evening, was poorly attended. It is hoped better luck will attend the efforts of the Sons of Veterans, who give a ball in the Armory this evening.

THANKSGIVING AMUSEMENTS.

Numerous Divisions by Which The Day Will Be Spent. There will be quite a number of Thanksgiving amusements in this city, and those who desire can have plenty of fun.

This evening the festivities will begin, when the Lancaster Bismarck will give a grand vocal and instrumental concert. The society will be assisted by Prof. Carl Thorbahn, of the opera house orchestra, Madame Matz and a large orchestra.

The Liederkreis will give one of their pleasant soirées in their hall this evening, and a good time is assured. The skating rink on West King street and at Manchester hall offer attractions for Thanksgiving day, and will no doubt be liberally patronized.

To-morrow afternoon Prof. Ed. Hall will give his usual Thanksgiving concert in Schiller hall. In the evening there will be a large year party in Zehle man's new building, on Duke street, and the cantata of "Under the Palms" will be produced at the opera house.

Shooting matches in and around the city, and plenty of sport will be offered to gunners. The saloons in town will set out big lunches, and many people will treat their dinner with the liberal landlords.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mr. Justina Mason. Mrs. Justina Mason, wife of the late John Mason, died at an early hour this morning at White Horse hotel, Salisbury township, of pneumonia, from which disease she had been a sufferer.

The husband of deceased died in January last and was one of the most highly respected citizens of the county. Mrs. Mason was a most estimable woman and leaves four sons to mourn her loss, the eldest of whom is Richard B. Mason, of this city.

Sudden Death of an Aged Lady. Elizabeth Hershay, an aged lady residing at No. 535 Beaver street, died suddenly late on Tuesday afternoon. She ate a hearty dinner, after which she visited a neighbor. She returned home between 3 and 4 o'clock and while walking in the yard fell over dead. Coroner Shifor was notified, he empanelled a jury and held an inquest. The verdict of the jury was that death resulted from heart disease.

Death of Frank Quinn. Frank Quinn, a well known resident of this city, died at his residence, on West German street, this morning. He contracted a severe cold on the night of the presidential election and has been confined to his bed since. In early life he was a conductor for President Buchanan. By thrift he accumulated quite an estate, being the owner of a large number of houses. He leaves a wife but no children.

Gone to Georgia. B. J. McGraw and W. U. Hessel left Lancaster this afternoon, to be joined in Philadelphia by B. E. Jamison, and returning on D. C. by the Atlantic City party leaving Washington to-night for Atlanta, Ga., where they will participate in the Thanksgiving jubilee of the Georgia Democrats on Friday. They go upon the invitation and will be the guests of Hon. Jos. E. Brown, U. S. senator elect, Messrs. Havell and Grady, of the Atlanta Constitution, and other prominent Democrats of that state.

Police Cases. The cross actions for assault and battery between Max Miller and Philip Haines, came up for a hearing before Alderman Mettison, yesterday. The cases had not proceeded far before both parties waived a hearing and entered bail for court.

Edward Speer an old soldier, was arrested yesterday for drunken and disorderly conduct and threatening persons on the street. He was sent to jail for ten days by Alderman Sanson.

Malicious Trespass. Conrail Holborn, one of the boys charged by Geo. B. Wilson, the owner of Westland, with malicious trespass, was heard by Alderman Barr this afternoon. A penalty of $5 and costs was imposed. A similar case against Clayton Kepner was withdrawn upon the payment of costs. It is Mr. Wilson's intention to prosecute all persons trespassing on his premises, as he has been greatly annoyed.

Funeral of Dr. Keck. The relatives of Dr. Charles Keck, the man who committed suicide at the Key stone house on Monday evening, arrived here this morning. It was decided to bury the body in this city. The interment took place this afternoon in Zion cemetery on the lot of Wm. Boehm.

Attended Services in Reading. Father Pieper, of Columbia, and Father Kaul, of this city, took part in the exercises incident to the forty hours devotion, on Tuesday evening at St. Paul's Catholic church at Reading.

Critically Ill. Hon. Thos. E. Franklin was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday afternoon, since which time he has been in a semi-unconscious condition. He is considered to be in a very critical condition.

AMUSEMENTS.

Reads "Check" on Saturday evening. Roland Reed, a young actor who is steadily pushing to the front rank, will give "Check," a piece which has made a great hit, at the opera house. He is popular here and large audiences always greet him.

"Under the Palms." On Thursday evening, the cantata of "Under the Palms" will be presented in the opera house by the choir and St. Robert's Minstrels. This season Hyde & Behman the popular managers, tried their luck with a musical company, which has so far proved a great success. The company's best night was Friday night, and he visits to Lancaster of minstrels has been very few of late. The troupe includes Melvina and Heath, the Chipper quartet, Fred, Mathews, Charley Banks and others.

DRAMA.

Here—in this city, on the 23rd inst., Henry, son of John D. and Mary J. Buth, in the 2nd year of age.

Dearest Harry thou hast left us. Here thy lot we deeply feel. But we need not grieve for thee. He can all our sorrows heal. Grief is but a passing ailment. The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from the residence of his parents, No. 620 North Christian street, on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Lancaster cemetery.

At White Horse, on the 23rd inst., Elizabeth, wife of William H. Lancaster, in the 71st year of age.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from her late residence at White Horse, on Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the house, in the cemetery of St. John's Episcopal church, at Compassville.

Here—in this city, on the 25th inst., from May, eldest daughter of Isaac N. and Margie Bender, aged 4 years, 11 months and 9 days.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from the residence of her parents, No. 422 North Mary street, on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Lancaster cemetery. J. J. Schaeffer, Undertaker, Lancaster.

Here—in this city, on the 26th inst., Samuel, son of Joseph and Annie Hagen, aged 1 year, 1 month and 12 days.

We had a little Eddie once. He was a good little fellow. We loved him, all perhaps too well. For soon he slept and died. Past his pain. He who suffered is at rest. With the angels and the blest.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from the residence of his parents, No. 422 North Mary street, on to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in Lancaster cemetery.

Lyon—At Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 13, 1884, Mrs. Ann Parr Lyon (nee Hubby), relict of John Lyon, formerly of Huntington county, Pa., aged 96 years, 25 days.

The subject of the above notice was the wife of the late Joseph Hubby, of this city. She was born in Lancaster, October 21, 1788, and resided there until 1838, when she removed to Philadelphia, and resided there until her husband's death in Pennsylvania, where she resided many years.

The subject of this memoir was one of those gentle and lovable ones who attach themselves to those with whom they come in contact. Never making enemies, and drawing all towards her by her gentleness and kindness and her cheerful and cheerful disposition.

Her temperance in all things made her an extraordinary example for an age beyond the allotted time, and that from her death, including a short period of confinement to bed until the last year of her pilgrimage, and even then she was most of the time in bed. She retained possession of all her faculties, except memory, until the last.

She became a member of the Presbyterian church about 40 years ago. She delighted to do the work of her church, and took an active part in all that pertained to her prosperity. Through not demonstrating, she was a true and devoted Christian.

There are yet a number living in Lancaster who will remember her and mourn their loss. —(U. I.)
