WINTER.

O winter! thou art not that haggard Lear,
With stormy beard and countenance of woe,
Enving amain, or dumbly crouching low.
In heary desciation mocked with fear.
To me thou art the white queen of the year,
A stately virgin in her robes of snow,
With royal lilies crowned, and all aglow
With boly charms and gems celectial clear.
Nor doet thou come in barren majesty.
Thou hast thy dower of sunbeams thrice re of Fearful Destitution Discovered, The directors of the poor of Eric, this state, discovered a case of fearful destitution Tuesday night. Information was given that on the outsirts of the city Widow Cronin and ber atirts of the city Widow Cronin and her unmarried daughter Kate were dying of cold and hunger. On reaching the hovel a sickening sight met the officials. With mow three feet deep around the house and wind beating through the roof there was neither fuel food, nor light. During the night the daughter had given birth to a child, which lay frozen at her side on a chair. The young mother was almost dead. Pride and a desire to conceal the daughter's condition caused them to endure privations without applying for

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist Minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman, I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present protession, 40 years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy: "Thomas' Eelectric Oil cured me." I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eelectric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had inpitheria, and Thomas' Eelectric Oil cured them," and it taken in time it will cure seven out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill i with Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon in one head by sniffing as hard as they can. Oil, and then piace the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head, by sniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice it twice a week. I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. For deatness and carache it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever relt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I are new suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves melike Thomas Excledire Oil."
