Benefits of the Rational Hanking System and Ruggestions for his Continuance— nome Important Statistics. The annual report of Mr. H.W. Cannon, comptroller of the currency, shows that during the year ended November 1, 1884, 191 banks have been organized, with an aggregate capital of $10,042,230, and that circulating have been issued to these new associations amounting to $3,866,280. Since the establishment of the national banking system, on February 25, 1363, there have been organized 3,261 national banks. The total number in existence on November 1, 1884, was 2,671, which is the largest number that has been in operation at any one time.

Eleven national banks, with an aggegate capital of $1,285,000, have failed and been placed in the hands of receivers during the

The different items of resources and liabilities, as tabulated, indicate that the business of the national banks during the past eleven years has generally increased. Whatever course may be deemed lex pedient by Congress in regard to the funding of future payment of the public debt, the comptroller is of the opinion that it is perfectly safe, and will afford great benefit to the public, to permit an issue by the national banks of circulation to the extent of 100 per cent. of the par value of the bonds deposited, instead of 90 per cent.

Even admitting that the bonds represent-ing the public debt when funded at lower rates might at times in the future be below par in the market, the government would f forced to redeem the notes of involved national banks, always have the right to cancel the bonds on deposit securing the same, and thus extinguish an amount of its debt equal, dollar for dollar, to the

It is further submitted that the profit on circulation may be increased to a point which will induce the banks to keep up the circulation to a maximum, and stop the contraction of their circulation which is now occurring, by repealing the law taxing such circulation at the rate of one half of 1 per cent semi-annually.

In concluding this subject the comptrol ler wishes to have it distinctly understood that he is not in favor of any measure which will cause inflation. He is of opinon that the present aggregate paper oir culation, made up of legal tender and national bank notes and of gold and silver, certificates, is ample for all the needs of business. He believes, however, that the audden contraction of national bank ciration, which without appropriate legisla tion, is imminent, will seriously embar ass the business of this country, and that if the contraction is permitted to go on it may result in the entire discontinuance

In regard to circulation based on silver, the comptroller says: "The people of the United States now hold a paper circulation United States now hold a paper circulation based upon silver dollars in an amount equal to more than one third of the national bank circulation." If it is for the best interests of the United States to issue a circulation based upon silver, the comptroller believes that the circulation should be issued upon coin or bullion which contains a pulliciant purpose. which contains a sufficient number of grains of silver to have an intrinsic value in the markets of the world equal to its

CHICAGO'S SENATORIAL DISPUTE.

Count of the Votes the Grand Jury shows more Democratic Votes than Returned. Wednesday's developments in the Brand Leman senat rial contest have been extremely astonishing and discouragng to the Republicans. Judge Blodgett decided that the Federal grand jury had a right to examine the ballots cast in the disputed precipct, ignoring the protest of the Democrats ; but he also held that they could not go further than an examination of the votes of congressmen. On this decision it was not clear how any light could be thrown on the senatorial fight, but the jury broke the seal on the ballot envelope and discovered that the vote on senator was clearly recorded as returned by the county canvassing board. This discovery rather staggered the Republicans, but the ballots were gone over and the vote on congressmen was found to be correct as returned. District Attorney Tuthill insisted upon a count on senator, notwithstanding the protests of the Democrats on the jury, who claimed that such a proceeding would be illegal, according to the judge's instructions. The count was made, however, and was not concluded until midnight. Wednesday morning it was learned that 498 ballots had been cast for Brand and 180 for Leman, a Democratic gain of 24 and a Republican loss of 31. It was found that there nere were few pasters on the tickets, but that Republican loss of the standard republicant rep that Brand's name was on many Republi-can tickets. The number corresponded with those on the poll books, and ascording to these, Strausser, the Republi-can judge, and Shuster, the Republican supervisor, had voted for Brand. It was also found that several of the 280 voters who made affidavits that they had voted for Lemon had cast their ballots for Brand. Several reputable voters testified before the grand jury that they had voted for Leman, and that the ballots bearing their numbers in the box had been put in n place of their own since the election. John B. Jeffrey, who printed the ballots in this district, testified that there had been no split ballots printed. The state canvassing board is taking testia.ony in the case at Springfield. It is reported that the grand jury has decided to return several indict-

A FIREBUG'S DARING ESCAPE. While Being Taken to Jail He Nearly Kills His Capter and Fleer.

Chief Burgess Brehony, of Mahanoy Plane, Pa., discovered the Merchants' hotel, at that place, to be on fire early Wednesday morning. He gave the alarm and the guests of the hotel made their escape from the building. The flames were subdued after a hard struggle, the fire apparatus being limited and a high wind blowing. Investigations proved that the fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, as the outside boards of the building were ignited in several places after being saturated with coal oil. Suspicion at once pointed to John Kelly, who, several nights before had been ejected from the hotel for raising a row while drunk. Kelly has a bad reputation and was seen in the vicinity shortly before the fire was discovered. Several other in the fire was discovered. Several other cir-cumstances being reported, confirming the suspicion, he was arrested and piaced in the borough lockup, where he admitted his guilt. Burgess Brehoney started for Pottsville with Kelly to commit him to the county jail. While on the train Kelly complained that the handcuffs hurt him, and the right converse lockup. PHILIP SCHUM, SON & CO'S. and the right one was loosened. As they reached an unfrequented spot Kelly slipped the left handouff off and felled Brehony with a heavy blow on the head. Kelly

I did not expect to live more than three months. I began to use Hop Bittters. Directly my appe-tite returned, my pains left me, my entire sys prisonment in Paris. M. Morin, however, by a system of dilatory motions, carried the case from court to court. Madame tem seemed renewed as it by magic, and after using several bottles, I am not only as sound as a sovereign, but weigh more than I did be-fore. To Hop Bitters I owe my life. R. FITEFATRICK. Hugues became angry, and on Thursday, hearing that the Assize court of the Seine would grant another adjournment of a fortnight, proceeded there, and upon the court rising for luncheon Madame Hugues, her husband and counsel, in descending the staircase, met M. Morin, when a tragedy ensued, Madame Hugues stabbing M Morin. After Madame Hugues had been arrested, which was immediately after the assault, she declared to the commissary of police that she hoped she had killed the man, who during the past two years had been killing her by inches by his atrocious

A Thief Masquerading as a Pugilist, Tom Jones, a reputed New York pugilst, in training at Nanticoke, Luzerne county, for a prize fight, was arrested on Wednesday night. He is supposed to be an accomplice of Sam Shepard, the shop lifter, of Cleveland, now in prison here. Jones was committed Thursday afternoon for his appearance at court. As soon as the charges against them are disposed of they will be taken to Bloomsburg, where they are wanted for burglary. Shepard's right name is supposed to be John Templeton, recently employed on a brig at Cleveland. Their thieving operations in that vicinity will reach several thousand dollars.

Incendiaries at Allentown. The building occupied by Schlegel, Ziegenfuss & Co., and Ritter & Boyer, as Ziegeniuss & Co., and Ritter & Boyer, as a furniture factory and plaining mill in Allentown, was burned down at 12 o'clook Wednesday night. The loss of Schlegel, Ziegenfuss & Co., is $10,000. Ritter & Boyer also suffered to the extent of $3,000 and the Pretz estate, which owned the building, engine and boilers, to the amount of $8,000. The flour mill of Pretz, Weinsteines. Weinsheimer & Co., adjoining, was damaged to the extent of $500, and the build ing of the Elliger real estate association on the opposite side of the street, $2,500 The fire is attributed to incendiarism.

"My wife has been a severe sufferer with indigestion, and kidney and liver troubles. I feared it would terminate in Bright's Dis-ase, as there were the symptoms.
