elecutionist; singing by the school, far better by the way, than a good many COLUMBIA NEWS ITEMS. Sunday schools in our city sing; music by the young Messrs. Evans of Manheim township, members of Keffer's orchestra, and Prof. F. W. Haas, who seems to be a great favorite of the school; and a very fine megic lantern exhibition by Richard McCaskey of Lancaster, The best of order was maintained during all the exercises, and shortly before 10 o'clock the assemblage was dismissed to their homes with the dexelogy. the dexology.

SODALITY ENTERTAINMENT. The young men of the sodality of St. Anthony's church, gave a very pleasant Thanksgiving entertainment in the chapel last evening. The attendance was very large, every seat being occupied and the aisles being crowded. A burletta called the "Office Seekers," in which there were seventeen performers, was followed by "Our Country Cousin," a German farce in which there were 14 actors, all of whom in which there were 14 actors, all of whom did very well indeed. There were some fine musical selections by the ladies of the Sacred 'Heart academy, and a duet on the violin and cornet by Jerome Hiemenz and Charles Ursprung. The whole concluded with a langhable panorama, in which the brave policeman, the aggravated doctor and the clown in the barber shop and photograph callers were conspicuous characters. tograph gallery were conspicuous char-

OBITCARY.

Death of William Web B. William Welsh, a well known resident of the Ninth ward, died at his residence, 444 West James street, on Thursday morning after an illness of several weeks duration. Deceased was an employe of the Pennsylvania railroad for about eighteen years, and only ceased work a few months ago, when compelled to by failing health. He leaves a son and daughter to mourn his loss; the son being Walter Welsh He was a member of St. Bernard's society since its organization. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning.

Deceased was a life long Democrat an at the recent election, although very ill he made a request to be taken to the polis to vote for the last time. It was done and he was particularly well pleased when the glad tidings were announced to him that the man of his choice had been chosen president of the United States. DEATH OF MRS GRIER.

Mrs. Mary. E., wife of Mr. W. H. Grier. editor of the Columbia Herald, died at ber home, No. 109 S. Second street, this morn-Her remains will be interred on Monday, Dec. 1st, 1884, from her late home, in Mount Bethel cemetery. Mrs. Grier was a member of the 4th stree Presbyterian church and a good, faithful and efficient Christ's and a source of re-lief to the poor of Columbia. She has been ill a long time, but endured her sufferings with martyr-like spirit.

Taken to the Eastern Pentrentiary. Sheriff High, Daputies Hippey and Strine and Tipstaff Hollinger, took six prisoners to the Eastern penitentiary, at Philadel-phia, on Thursday morning. They were convicted at the last term of the court for picking pockets, attempted rape and felonious assault and battery. Those felonious assault and battery. Those taken down were Henry Young, Chares E. Taylor, Charles Fisher and John Welsh for robbing H. K. Keller, Charles Wise for attempting to kill his wife, and Herman Bollinger for attempted rape. The last named received the longest sentence, four years and seven months, and the others from 11 months to two years and The Philidelphila Press given a padded account of an alleged intent to escape on the part of the prisoners. seems to have been the work of a reporter who works on space and was short of an

Some days ago the INTELLIGENCER noted celebration of the Hagel gans-Lieppe nuptials, which occurred in Reading last week After an extended wedding trip, including Harrisburg, Wash ington and other points, the bride and groom reached this city, and a reception was held last evening at the residence of the groom's mother, on Reckland street. A large number of Languager friends gathered to congratulate the happy couple, and an elegant turkey supper was partaken of and enjoyed. The new man and wife will make their home in Reading, and The new man and to-day, accompained by a number of Reading guests who have been here for several days, they left for that city.

A Colored Ball to Marietta. Last evening the colored folks of Marietta held a bail in Central hall. The attendance was very large and persons were present from Philadelphia, Reading and Lanepater. It was a tony affair and those who attended it rank rather high in society. Among those who represented Lancaster were Mrs. Kittis Waters, Miss Washington, Misses Addie Lebar and Har riet Handy, and George A. Burton. The last named, as usual upon such occasions, looked very nobby. He were a full suit of black, with high slik hat and his appearance at the ball caused quite a flutter among the ladies. George was not cap-tured, however, and he returned safely to the city with the ladies, whom he had so gall untly taken charge of. He reports the ball a big success. A i nnaway Team.

The team of David G. Hirsh ran off on Thursday afternoon and Israel Newman, one of the occupants of the buggy, was badly bruised. The cause of the runaway was the buggy striking the railroad track at Duke and East King street and break The horse commenced kick ing and Mr. Newman held on to him until he was struck on the leg by the horse when he was compelled to let go. His companion William Deer, jr., jumped from the buggy and escaped injury. Mr. New-man was thrown out. The runaway horse man was thrown out. The runaway horse was caught on North Duke street. The plainants.

The McDonough company is the one buggy was badly wrecked.

Paying Election Officers, The United States marshals who were employed at the late elections were paid off by Marshal Kerns in Philadelphia on Wednesday. Each received $10-$5 for one day's services at the polls and $5 for calling at the marshal's office to be sworn in. It is not known whether Letter Carrier Deen's gang of heelers, some of whom acted as marshals in this city, have been paid or not. It is likely the town will know it when they are. Next week the Philadelphia supervisors will be paid, and each will receive $25. A number of persons here are also interested in that

A Former Lancaster Counting in Trouble From the Reading News,

John H. Stauffer, of Lancaster county, formerly a salesman in the store of Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, and who commenced business as a dry goods merchant in Columbia about October 1st, had his stock seized and store closed by Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, of this city. One of Stauffer's other oreditors has had a warrant issued for his arrest for obtaining goods under false pretense. It is understood that Mr. Stauffer made false representations as to his financial standing and obtained goods thereon, hence the warrant for his arrest.

Wans to Catch Buzzard. A dispatch to Philadelphia papers says that the Compassville Horse company of West Caln township, Chester county, has organized for the purpose of capturing Abe Buzzard and other outlaws. This is a good move, if true, and it is very doubtful but it is likely that Abe will laugh at the efforts of this formi dable band of horseman and will remain in his monutain home as unconcerned as heretofore.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT The Observance of Thanksgiving Day in the Borough-Entertainment to the "Hamblers"- Death of Mrs. W. Hayes Grier, Thanksgiving in Columbia was very lively. All day hundreds of persons per-ambulated the streets, and all were more or less sober. The Union Thanksgiving services in the M. E. church in the morning drew a large audience, the prayer, music and addresses being exceptionally fine. In the afternoon Gen. Welsh post, No. 118, G. A. R., paraded through our principal streets, and won considerable applause by their excellent marching and

W. F. Harman wagered with Frank W. F. Harman wagered with Frank Stocker that Blaine would be elected president. Losing his bet, he yesterday afternoon wheeled his opponent through Columbia, headed by a drum corps. The Metropolitan rink had a big day and it is estimated that nearly 2,000 per-sons paid admission at the afternoon and evening sessions.

The Thanksgiving dinner and supper, held in Shuler hall, by the ladies' aid society of the Bethel church, was not well patronized. It will remain open this and to-morrow evening.

THE "RAMBLERS" HANDSOMELY ENTER-TAINED.

The "Ramblers," a party of gentlemen four of whom are Columbians, made a tour of Europe early this year. Yesterday Wm. B. Given, esq., handsomely enter-tained them, together with several of his most intimate Columbia acquaintances The Rambiers consists of Horace Weeks of Philadelphia; Joseph Haverstick, esq., of Philadelphia; D. G. Matlock, connected with the J. P. Morris iron company of Philadelphia, his son, Geo. P. Matlock; S. T. McCullough, deputy surveyor general, of Maryland; Superintendent of Schools, Butler, Middlesez county, Mass., Rev. R.W. Humphriss, W.H. Shenberger, F. A. Bennett, and W. B. Given, esq., of Columbia. Mr. Butler was the only person not present yesterday; 22 persons sat down to an elegant dinner. Mr. Given's residence was beautifully decorated, the handsomest piece of decorative art being a miniature steam ship, a model of the "City of Berlin," the vessel in which they made their trip to Europe. A reception was held at 10:30'p. m., and was attended by 75 Columbians. A FIGHT AND A FIRE.

Charlie Hiteshue on Wednesday night n Desch's saloon asked his brother Frank to drink with him. Frank refused, whereupon Charlie became angry, and said he could whip any man in the room He was mistaken, for Sam Read knocked him out of time with one blow. Charlie was revengeful, and leaving the saloo returned five minutes later with his brother Ed. and several friends. Read was set upon and badly whipped. A free fight followed, and in some manner, while blows were falling fast, a stove was upset, and the live coals falling out set afire the flooring The flames were extinguished after considerable trouble and the fight ended. Hiteshue and his gang then went to the Sons of Veterans' ball, and being refused admission, another row was inaugurated But the Sons of Veterans were too much for Hiteshue, and with his followers were ejected. No more trouble was then experienced.

THE TELEPIONE COMPANIES.

Carrying on a War in this City and United The fight between the old and new telephone companies in this city have become very bitter. The new party is busily en-gaged securing subscribers while the Pennsylvania company is just as industriously at work to retain their patrons, many of whom have shown a willingness to their fortunes with the new company. The quarrel here has led to a suit and on Wednesday in the United States circuit court, Philadelphia, a bill in equity was filed on behalf of the United States Telephone Manufacturing company, of New York, and the McDonough Telegraph and Tele phone company of New Jersey, asking for an injunction to restrain the Bell Telephone company from making an alleged infringe ment of certain patents held by the com-

which is starting the new telephone here and the old one is the Bell company. Almost every day officers of the two com panies arrive in this city to give their agents pointers for conducting the fight, by "seeing" the newspaper men, business men and others. The public look upon the row with pleasure as they are satisfied that it will result in lower rates, which they
