Thursday Sellet Entertainment-Kink Matters-Personal and Social. The executive committee of the Colum bia club and institute, met in the opera house last evening with C. S. Kauffman as chairman, pro tem, and John S. Nichols as secretary pro tem. In accord ance with a resolution, Mr. Kauffman ap pointed a committee on organization, to draft a constitution and by-laws, to govern the club, a committee on finances, to solicit contributions for the same, and property committee to select a suitable building for the club and institute to use. A permanent organization will be effected on next Monday evening, when the committees will make their reports.

The executive and reception committees having in charge Thursday evening's benefit for the Columbia relief association, in the Metropolitan rink, met last even ing, and made all arrangements for the affair. As the name implies the reception committee will receive these who attend, and show them every courtesy and atten-tion they may deem necessary. The execu-tive committee decided not to permit school children to canvass the town tickets, but will do that work themselves assisted by the reception committee and the ladies of the relief association.

BINK MATTERS. Manager Keim, of the skating rink, has retained connsel to prosecute the Marietta Register for declaring in its issue of Saturday, that the prices at the rink on Thursday last "were raised from the regular afternoon price of 15 cents to the usual evening price of 20 cents."

The Wrightsville rink opened last Thursday afternoon and closed in the evening, as the floor of company G's armory was out badly. A new rink will be built it the citizens consent to patronize it as it deserves.

SOLITARY CONSIDERENT.

The View Taken of it at the Laucaster County Polson. As was briefly referred to in the INTEL-LIGENCER of Monday a disgraceful condition of affairs has been revealed at the county prison. George Spangler and Thomas Sharpe occupied a cell on the upper tier adjoining that tenanted by the female herse thief, Salome Whitman, and Frances Fisher, who is serving a 90 days, term for failure to pay costs. Two or three weeks ago the men cut a hole through the partien between the cells, and have been freely passing backward forward ever since By day they placed what they had taken from the wall back again and covered the crevices with lime given to them ostensibly to white-The opening in the wall was not large enough to more that permit the passage of a thin person, and as one man and one woman of the quartette were inclined to be stout, the fat man remained in his cell until joined by the thin woman; while the thin man sought the companionship of the stouter woman, Salome Whitman, All the above prisioners, with the exception of the Fisher woman, were sentenced to "separate and solitary confinement." In view of these revelations it becomes a pertinent inquiry whether our local prison management is not more than a screaming farce. The inspectors censure the underkeepers and the latter lay it to the rotten jail.

Little Lucair,

B. F. Davis, of this city, and R. J. Monaghan, of West Chester, will address the Democrata of Sadsburyville, Chester county, at their ex roast on Wednesday. On complaint of Adam Gitlisch, Martin Lieppe was arrested yesterday for false pretense, and in default of bail was locked up for a hearing before Alderman Samson.

The amount involved is about $150.00.
Last evening, at the Yeates Institute,

In the Court of Common Pleas,

BEFORE JUDGE LIVINGSTON. The suit of J. M. Westhaeffer vs. Dr. John Atlee, ir., was attached for trial this morning. This was an action to recover for books and stationary, &c., sold and delivered during a period of about twenty five years. The defendant was the attend ing physician of plaintiff and his family during all these years, and he has an offset to plaintiff's claim. Mr. Westhaeffer's bill is $512.70, and he alleges that the doc-tor's credits amount to $440, leaving a balance due him of $72 70, with interest. On trial.

A New Bustern League.

From the Philadelphia Times. The first step toward the reorganization of the Eastern League of professional base ball clubs for 1885 was taken at the Bingham house, Philadelphia, on Mon-day, when a conference was held to consider the formation of a circuit, visiting Mrs. S. G. Roath, returned to her which is to be presented to the meeting for regular organization on December 13. Delegates were present as follows: G. M. Ballard, Newark, N. J.; John Steel, Tren ton, N. J.; E. M. Curtis, Altoona; Charles Fulmer, Philadelphia, and the Lancaster club sent a proxy. Applications for membership were handed in from seventeen clubs, taking in organizations Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Washingtot and Virginia. It was doomed inadvisable to make up a circuit until after the Amer ican Association meeting on December 10. and the meeting a fjourned until Decem-

Died in Rending.

From the Reading Herald. The death of Mrs. Sarah Schuearer, widow of John Schnearer, formerly a resident of Brickerville, Lancaster county, occurred at the residence of her soc-in law, Henry Wolf, 146 North Tenth street, of a complication of diseases. Deceased had been all man unchanged until Wednesday last, when she was prostrated. She grew worse gradually and remained in a comatose state until her death. She removed from Lancaster county to this city about two years ago. Her age was 57. The surviving children are John Schnearer and Oliver Schnearer, of Canton, Obio Miss Lizzie Schnearer and Mrs. Kate Wolf of this city; George Schnearer, of Lititz and Madison Schnearer, of Ephrata. The nterment will be made at Brickerville, Lancaster county, on Thursday.

The Red Sten's Bail.

Last evening Red Jacket tribe of Red Men of this city, held their twenty-sixth anniversary ball, in Maennerchor hall. The skates were put away for the evening and persons who delight to skim around on rollers were obliged to give up amusement for one night. The Red Mea had full sway. The crowd was very large and the grand promenade took place be-tween 9 and 10 o'clock. Among the prominent Indians present were Andrew Baker, past grand sachem, and Robt. P. Martin and W. H. Dennin, member of the great council. The dancing was kept up until a late hour and the best of order Charged With Unleasn Stealing. John W. Bowers and John Jones were acrested by Officer Barnholt last night on warrant issued by Alderman Fordney, charging them with stealing the objekens of William A. A meeting of the Poultry association was held on Monday evening and it was decided to change the dates for holding the annual exhibition. It was intended to held it the latter part of this month, but that time conflicts with other exhibitions. The exhibition will be opened on January 7th and close on the 14th.

Arrested on a Caplas. Christian Binkley, charged with tearing down the fences of his neighbor George Kendig, was arrested by the sheriff on a capias on Monday afternoon. He made affidavit before the court that he was the owner of real estate and he was discharged on common ball, until December 13, when he was directed to produce the deeds of his property in court.

The City Lights. Two gasoline lights were reported as not burning on Monday night.

A Large Poperal The funeral of Mr. Al. M. Zahm took place this afternoon from his residence, 311 North Lime street, and was largely attended. The Conestoga Council No. 8, Tuesday, December 2 : TESTAMENTARY—Peter Stair, deceased, O. U. A. M., and Es shah ke nee Tribe, No. 23, I. O. R. M. attended in a body, and there was a large delegation of the Union fire company, of of which Mr. Zahm was vice president. The funeral service of the Moravian elfurch was read by Rev. J. Max Hark, who also delivered an eulogy on the character of deceased. The Mor-avian choir, of which Mr. Zahm was for many years the leader, sang Bradbury's beautiful composition "Rest, or "Asleep in Jesus" as it is sometime named. The following named gentlemen acted as pall bearers : A. J. Auxor and George H. Hambright, of the American Mechanics, and Poter C. Heusel and R. S.

Oster of the order of Red Men.
Mr. E. E. Snyder was marshal of the American Mechanics, and M. J. Weaver of the Red Men. The interment was made in Lancaster cometery.

Frank Mills and Eis Condition Frank Mills, who attempted to take his life by shooting himself at Ephrata on Saturday night, is no worse, and it is believed that he will fully recover. A dispatch from Littlestown to the INTELLI-GENGER concerning him states that he tended bar at the National hotel in that town until a few weeks ago when he left. He was always a sober, upright man. He scemed to grieve a great deal over the loss of his wife and three children, which occurred some years ago, and never seemed to have fully recovered from the shock. He was born in Harlford, Connecticut, and was a soldier in the Union army during the war.

degree of nerve that he has shown all along. He said he did not care to say anything more about the murder; that he hoped to go to a better world and believed his sins would be forgiven. He ate sparingly of the breakfast provided for him.

BIDDING HIS RELATIVES GOOD BYE. Soon after nine o'clock Sullivan's father and mother called and a number of Methodist ministers joined the party in singing a hymn. The condemned man warned his parents not to cry, as if they did he would cry too. His two sisters also called to bid him good-bye. The final separation was very destressing. His sister fell fainting and was carried away, and his aged father and mother seemed to suffer great mental anguish. Meanwhile Sullivan never fal tered, but remained standing and looking every inch the reckless fellow that he was. When the death warrant was read to him he was the coolest person present. He ascended the platform at 11:20, where another prayer was offered. After being bound and the noose placed on his neck, he was asked if he desired to say anything and replied that he was confident of salvation and that when he should fall of salvation and that when he should fall through the trap he would fall into the hands of Jesus. It was a marriage ceremony for him, he said, and he wanted to be in time for the feast with all those good men who had gone before him. At 11:20 the drop fell. There was no perceptible struggle, his neck being apparently broken and in three minutes he was pronounced dead. The body was cut down at 13:04 and turned over to the undertaker, who will bury it this afternoon.

A NEW ORLEANS TRAGEDY.

A Fraces on the atreet in Which a man is Shot Down.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 2.—A. J. Murphy, who was shot last night, was superintending a gang of men working on the street. Resolution Presented in the House on the Conduct of U. S. Marshal Wright, WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 .- After the reading of the journal, Sheffield, a new senator from Rhode Island, was sworn in. The chair laid before the Senate a joint resolution of the general Assembly of Vermont, urging congressional action looking to the national control of inter-state

Vest offered a resolution directing an investigation into all leases of lands in the Indian territory. He said these leases were obtained from Indians by corruption and fraud, and criticised the course of the interior department in protecting such leases. The ensuing discussion broadened into a general debate on Indian affairs. The matter was finally laid over until to-morrow and the Senate ad-

Mr. Follett, (Ohio), as a question of privilege, presented a resolution impeaching Lot Wright, United States marshal of Southern Ohio, of high crimes and misdemeanors, ursurpation and violation of law. The resolution charges Marshal Wright with appointing rough characters as deputies, arming them pistols said to have been obtained from the war department at Washington and with intimidating voters at the recent election. Kelfer (Ohio) made a point of order, but after some discussion was overruled by the

After a long discussion, Follett's reso-lution was adopted, and in accordance therewith a committee on expenditures in the department of justice will make a thorough investigation. The House then proceeded to the consideration of the inter-state commerce bill. The discussion will run all day.

The Murderer of Pretty Ella Watson Hanged

To-day-Scenes Attending the Execution—What He Had to Say.

SALEM, N. J., Dec, 2.—Last night Sullivan had an affecting interview with his mother, and after her departure he spent sometime in singing and praying. He slept well during the night, awakening once, when he ate half of a mince pic, A colored female prisoner, confined in the cell formerly occupied by Sullivan, wept aloud and prayed nearly the entire night, her piteous cries being heard a long distance from the jail. Sullivan was awakened at 7 o'clock. He smiled and maintained a degree of nerve that he has shown all along. He said he did not care to say anything more shown the care to say anything more shown the said he did not care to say anything more shown the said say say the said the s
