A LOVE MATCH ENDS

IN A SENSATIONAL ELUPEMENT.
Washington Society for more than a month past has been interested over the announcement of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Mary Willard to Mr. Frank Simpson, of New York. They met in London, while Mr. Willard was abroad with his father, J. C. D. Willard, one of Washington's wealthiest citizens. Mr. Simpson is a roof Mr. George Simpson, of the firm of Daniel, Lawton & Simpson, bankers, 11 Broadway, New York. Most elaborate preparations were made for the wedding. Over fifteen hundred invitations had been sent out and a few days ago to expectant groom sent five hundred additional to such of his friends and relations as had been omitted in the first list. There were hundreds of presents of elegant description and in variety comprising everything that is usually given to brides. The wedding was announced for December 11 and the bride's father is now of this way from Europe, having sailed last night, to attend to his ceremony. The other side his daughter dresses by Worth of Paris, which are the talk and envy of nearly every society lady in town. The favored few who saw them spread glowing reports of the magnificence of the bride's wardrobe.

Both all her grand preparations, however, were faked dissatisfaction with the nuptials. The bride's father and mother were both heartily in favor of the alliance, but Miss Willard was averse to the match. She finally went to Mr. Simpson and told him that she would not have him and desire the release from his engagement. "Going to pressure of family influence, however, she did not insist that her decision was final, and so allowed to be announced that the wedding was to take place on the 11th instant. Tuesday morning, however, she went out of her home and met Mr. William Paxton, a clever young lawyer, who has already made his mark as patent attorney. The couple proceeded a marriage license and went to the parsonage of the Rev. Dr. Adams, clerk of Trinity Church, and were married in the presence of the groom's brother and a few of his intimate personal friends. After the ceremony the happy couple went to the Baltimore & Potomac railroad station and left on the 11 a. m. train bound for the South.

The bride is a very handsome brunette, with large, dark lustrous eyes and a plump figure. She wore a plain colored dress and hat, without sash and muff. She is twenty-two years of age. The elopement, owing to the prominence of the parties concerned, is the subject of the town and considerably scandalized among the friends were made public. The union of Miss Willard and Mr. Paxton is simply the culmination of a genuine love match and, rather than to seek unhappiness with the man whom she could not love, she adopted the heroic remedy given above.

RULED BY A MOB.
Armed men in Kentucky threatening a Judge and Defying the Law.
The staff correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal writes that the following regarding the war now in progress in Letcher county, Ky.: "Hon. J. H. Tinsley, of Ville, and Colonel Robert Boyd, of London, returning home from Whitesburg, Letcher county, where they had been in attendance on the circuit court, gave information of a very warlike state of affairs at Whitesburg, the town being filled with armed men and a bloody fight being imminent. Judge Finley, of Williamsburg, a noted mountain jurist, is just returning to Whitesburg, where he has not had time to get to Whitesburg to hold court, because of a threat made by one of the most desperate men in the county to kill him if he ever entered it. This man recently visited in the prevailing plague and after his death Judge Finley again went to Letcher. At this time of the Letcher county court a man was to be tried for murder. The man was out on bail and his friends—all of them being of the same desperate stripe as the murderer—determined that he should not be punished. The case was set for Wednesday, and on that day the accused came marching into town, carrying a double barreled shot gun and a belt full of revolvers, followed by a score of his friends, armed to the teeth. The sheriff and posse, immediately followed by another crowd of the same size, all carrying shot guns and pistols. The other company was composed of friends of the victim, who camped on a bluff overlooking and commanding the town. Meantime a third band, composed of citizens who thought the law should be allowed to take its way and the peace be preserved, even if they had to kill every desperado in the county to secure that end, organized, armed themselves and went on duty, to stay until after the court had adjourned.

The bands, composed of friends of the murdered man and those of his murderer, are watching each other closely—one to keep the other in town and the other to keep their foes out—while the citizens' band stands ready to clean out the entire party when the trouble begins. The party composed of the murderer and his friends had been very riotous and drunken since their arrival and several gory engagements had been played between some of its members and outsiders, and on Monday a pitched battle was so imminent that the game of the opposing squads were prepared for a fight, but for the time an truce was avoided. It is my informant's opinion that serious trouble will occur before the close of the session to-day. Whitesburg is a remote spot, far from the telegraph, and news later than the above regarding the situation is unobtainable.

"Another incident of this session of the court was the killing of William Hall, one of the most desperate characters in this section, by two guards from whom he tried to escape. He belonged to one of the bands flying in the above described affair, and was arrested on a charge of grand larceny committed in Wise county, Va., just across the mountains."

For children, toy animals are pretty and easily made. For a life white rabbit, dog or pig use cotton lannel, the nap side out to give them a floppy look. Sew the parts together, leaving an opening underneath through which stuff with bran or cotton, then close, use beads for eyes, red twist for mouth, and line with pink cambric. For a horse or elephant use plain dark cloth, make same as the others described; for the trunk of elephant shape two pieces of wood and cover with an old pair of white kid gloves. A bit of fringe serves for mane and tail of horse. A toy bear's paw is indeed a novel looking toy. The parts from an old pasteboard box sewed together, and then cover all seams and raw edges with narrow strips of bright colored paper. For the wee little girl make a rag doll—it will please her quite as well as a bought doll, and will endure all sorts of ill usage without any danger of being smashed in pieces. If your family is small procure a small evergreen tree, bore a hole in a heavy block of wood and in this set the tree, fasten with nails, set it on the table and it is ready for the pretty things. For ornamenting the tree cover English walnuts, anchors, hearts, etc., with tinfoil. Strings of pop corn are also pretty. Make stars, medallions, cornucopias with bright hued tissue paper. Steel filings dusted on the branches represent the glistening frost.

Importing Blooded Stock.
From the German town Telegraph.
It cannot be denied that we have now in the United States as great a number of all the best blooded stock of Europe as any portion of Europe itself. We speak of the very finest classes; and if so, why not then turn our attention to exporting some of the surplus over our needs that we may possess? It is true that the operations of the importers of Jersey, Horn, Guernsey, Holstein, Ayrshire, Hereford, etc., continue to go on and in all sell at exorbitant prices here, and the question may be asked, why not purchase those who are raising instead of those from abroad? This can be answered by saying that a great many of the best blooded stock in our country, the fresh imported stock is likely always to command higher prices than the same breeds raised in our own country. Hence, let us once start an export trade ourselves and prove our ability to produce as good stock as any in the world, and we may succeed in establishing a trade that will equal that of England. It, however, seems extraordinary that the high prices of imported blooded stock continue to prevail, while our products, only twice removed from the original source, are sold with a less degree of favor. Three must be an end to this folly.

"Paper Shamans."
A company in New Jersey is making paper counterpane and pillow sham. Number one manilla paper is used, two large sheets being held together by small twine at intervals of three or four inches, gummed so as to stick the sheets together where the twine lies. The twine strengthens the paper. The margin of the counterpane has a hem, in which is more of the twine to keep it from tearing. Beautiful designs are printed on the upper surface of the counterpane and pillow shams, which make a very neat appearance. When they are packed they can be shipped in boxes by box. They retail at 75 cents a set. The counterpane can be left on the bed when it is occupied if so desired, and in cold weather it will be found a very neat and warm article of bed clothing, since the paper will prevent the escape of heat about as well as a woolen blanket.

Popular Preachers.
An English paper having called for opinions as to who are the ten best preachers of the present day, received in its issue of the 14th inst. the following names as follows: Canon Liddell, 29; C. H. Spurgeon, 23; Joseph Parker, 21; Alexander MacLaren, 21; Archdeacon Farrar, 20; Henry Ward Beecher, 19; Bishop Magee, 19; Canon Knox-Little, 19; H. H. Hall, 19; W. W. Phelps, 19; W. Dale, 19. The Christian World remarks that, so far as its own observation goes, Farrar is more popular than Liddell, and both Spurgeon and Beecher than either.

One reason why HENRY'S (Kidney and Liver) Bitters is so popular for the cure of diseases of the kidney, liver and bladder, is that it shows immediate improvement in the condition of the patient and recovery is steady and sure. Its cures have been so wonderful that physicians of all schools prescribe it in their practice.

"Nothing Else Did Any Good."
Of course, because rheumatism is a dreadfully tough disease, and nothing but the best earth will reach it except Henry's Iron Bitters. After enduring the twinges of rheumatism for three years and all sorts of medicine, by delivery, Mr. John H. Pratt, of Savannah, Ga., writes, "I am now cured of my rheumatism by using Henry's Iron Bitters for rheumatism. Nothing else did any good." If you suffer from rheumatism, neuralgia, headache and other nervous diseases.

Mr. Wm. Johnson, of Huron, Dak., writes that his wife had been troubled with acute bronchitis for many years, and that all remedies tried gave no permanent relief, until he procured a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough and Colds, which had a magical effect, and produced a permanent cure. It is guaranteed to cure all Discharges from the Throat, and is sold by H. B. Cochrane, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Don't be Fair-Hearted.
If you are in trouble look up, hold on, give the blues good-bye. If you are in pain, have patience, have an ache of any kind, go to the druggist and ask him for Thomas' Electric Balm. It will cure you in ten minutes. For sale by H. B. Cochrane, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

We Challenge the World.
When we say we believe, we have evidence to prove that Henry's Consumption Cure is decidedly the best Lung Medicine made, in as much as it will cure a Consumption, Chronic Cough, Hoarseness, and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, and all other ailments. It will cure where they fail, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the youngest child, and we guarantee what we say. Price, 10c, 50c and $1.00. If your lungs are sore, Chest or back lame, use HENRY'S Corona Plaster. Sold by H. B. Cochrane, druggist, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen street.

CHAPTER I.
"I was taken sick a year ago with a bilious fever."
"My doctor pronounced me cured, but I got sick again with terrible pains in my back and sides, and I got so bad I could not move!"

"From 235 to 1201 I had been doctoring for my liver, but it did me no good. I did not expect to live more than three months. I began to use Hop Bitters. Directly my appetite returned, my pains left me, my entire system seemed renewed as if by magic, and after using several bottles, I am not only as sound as a sovereign, but weigh more than I did before. To Hop Bitters I owe my life."
R. FITZPATRICK.
Dublin, June 4 '71.

"Malden, M. S., Feb. 1, 1884, Gentlemen—I suffered with attacks of sick headache."
"Neuralgia, female trouble, for years in the most terrible and excruciating manner. No medicine or doctor could give me relief or cure, until I used Hop Bitters."
"The first bottle nearly cured me."
"The second made me as well and strong as when a child."
"And I have been so to this day."
My husband was an invalid for twenty years with a serious "Kidney and urinary complaint."
"Pronounced by Boston's best physicians—"Incurable!"
Seven bottles of your Bitters cured him and I know of the "Lives of eight persons"
In my neighborhood that have been saved by your Bitters,
And many more are using them with great benefit.

"They aim Do miracles?"
Howe & Co. Sirs.—Expose yourself day and night; eat too much without exercise; work too hard without rest; doctor all the time take all the vile nostrums advertised, and then you will want to know how to get well, which is answered in three words—Take Hop Bitters!

"None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with 'Hop' or 'Bog' in their name."
