SECOND EDITION

SATURDAY SVENING, DEC, 6, 1884 TRAGEDY IN OHIO.

CHARGED WITH A TERRIBLE ORIGE. A son Arrested for the Killing of His Mother-The Story He Tells of the Murder.

HAMILTON, O., Dec. 6.—George Snyder, aged 40 years, a farmer, residing near Dairtown, 15 miles from this place, was arrested and lodged in jail here shortly after midnight last night, charged with the murder of his mother, Catharine Snyder, aged 75 years, who had been missing for four weeks. Mrs. Snyder had a mortgage on her son's farm, and four weeks ago went to collect the interest. Her son paid her $125. His story is that he started with her next day to go to the rail road station. On the way they were attacked by two robbers who demanded Mrs. Snyder's money, and upon her refusal, they killed her and made him promise under penalty of death to say nothing about the murder. They then buried her. Mrs. Snyder's body was disinterred, and found to have heen buried in her night clothing. The supposition is that her son killed her in his own house.

SIRIRING HATTERS NOT RIOTING The Editor of the Norwalk "Hour" Says
Their Conduct is Honorable.

New York, Dec. 6.—The Associated Press has received the following from B. W. Naples, editor of the Norwalk (Conn.) Hour, which gives the strikers' side of the railroad company, states that the only action taken by the anthracite producing and carrying companies in regard to work in the future is an agreement just reached for the suspension of operations from the 22d to the 27th of this month. He declines to talk of the programme for next year, and says that the subject was not considered by Mr. Gowen during his repent visit to New York which was in connection with the officers of which was in connection with the officers of the South Pennsylvania railroad. Referring to the announcement that no further inter-vention would we made to the issue of bet terment stock and bonds by the Jersey Central to the Regding he says that no meeting with that object in view has been held by the directors of the former company) since the proceedings in court were instituted.
