De ceased was aged 43 years, and unmarried. THE BURGESS AND THE POLICE.

Chief Burgess Irwin says he has n further use for the police force of Columbia. Most of his attempts to abolish nutsances in the borough have failed and just because the constables and special policemen refuse to cooperate with him in his work. Time and again have they promised their failed to keep their word. The chief burgess, finding that requests and plead-ings are without avail, will now adopt a new course. Hereafter he will not make any requests, but command, and if his on the Welsh mountain, on the "Whiskey orders are disobeyed, the matter will be placed before council, who will act. Their past neglect of duty will probably be brought before the borough fathers tomorrow evening, when their regular monthly husiness meeting will be held. A CHILD'S LIFE SAVED BY A FIREMAN. While coming towards Columbia or Taesday evening from Reading, Engineer A. B. Greagory saw a child playing on the track in front of his engine. He notified his froman, J. J. Calnan, of the fact, and heatly hastily springing out of the cab window and running along the foot board of the engine to the pilot, the brave) fireman at the imminent risk of his own life, suc-ceeded in snatching the child from the very jaws of death. It was brought to Columbia and given in charge of John Foley, an hostler at R. & C. round house, who will care for it until claimed by its parents.

FLINN & BRENEMAN. Joe Hezzard and dis Compacions Held for Trial at Court on Several Charges. Alderman Fordney's office was crowded this atternoon, the occasion being the hearing of Joe Buzzard, William Marshall and Bauj. Green, alleged members of the Welsh mountain gang of thieves. Justice A F. Slaymaker, of Salisbury township, was the first to hold court and William Marshall, the aged colored man, was obarg Marshall, the aged colored man, was charg ed with larceny and receiving stolen goods. J. M. Hershey was the prose-cutor and he testified that his store was robbed of goods valued at $200 on the night of November 14. Part of the goods were found on Marshall's premises. His statement was that Abs Buzzard, John lineits and the man has man to bin Lippincott and another man came to his house one night and wanted permission to stay there all night. He would not give them permission, but when they talked about shooting he allowed them to stay in the stable all night. The stolen goods found in the stable were left by these men. Joe Buzzard was charged with the same offenses, and the testimony against him was that he was wearing a pair of sus-penders which were identified by Mr.

Hershey as stolen from his store. Benjamin Green, a colored boy, was charged with the same offenses, and the same testimony was given against him. He said he got the suspenders from Abe Buzzard for doing him a favor. All three defendants were committed for trial.

Wm. Marshall was charged before Justice Lee with receiving goods stolen from Benj. M. Roseboro and Charles Hillard, in July last. These cases were also returned to court.

Joe Buzzard was charged with carrying concealed ;deadly weapons before Alder-man Fordney. Joe admitted that he had a pistol when he was arrested, and this case was also returned to court.

Advance in Education.
