A spelling Boo--Formation of a Thori Insurance Company. The Meeting of Company U-Notes about Town.

A large spelling bee was held in the Sand Hole school house last evening. [This building has been recently finished, the work being done by Mr. C. C. Ferguson, of Columbia. J. A. Horn and Miss Suale Oberlin are employed as teachers.] The bee was divided into three classes. The first class had 14 prizes; 2d 12, and 3d 9. Miss Laura Shank won the first prize of the 1st class; Miss Alice Horn the first of the 2d class, which was a tollet set; Miss Lizzie Albright the second prize of class 2, a bread plate; Mr. Wm. Baer first prize of 8d class, clock, and E. Myers, 2d prize of 8d class, a perfume stand. Measrs L. C. Oberlin, J. A. Mouk and J. A. Smith acted as teachers of the bee.

A THEFT INSURANCE COMPANY. The Lancaster county live stock and chattel theft insurance company was formed in Columbia recently, with the following officers and board of directors: President—J. B. Strine.

Vice President—Geo. S. Redscoker.

Treasurer—Juo. B. Wieler.

Scoretary—George Young, jr.
Board of Directors—J. S. Strine, Geo.

The object of the company is to mutually idemnify themselves and associate against loss by theft of their live stock and chattels.

A standing reward of $25 is to be offered for the arrest and conviction of a thief who stole from parties insured in the company. MEETING OF COMPANY C.

Company C had drill and inspection last evening; after this was over a business meeting was held. The proposition of the Columbia Rink association to lease Armory ball for 5 years, and to make an addition of 45 feet to it was rejected. This settles the rink in the hall, so far as Company C is concerned, so the associa-tion will vacate to-day. They will look for sultable grounds on which to erect a rink. The company will hereafter drill from 7½ to 8 instead of 8 to 9. The boys are getting ready to attend Cleveland's

LIPE IN THE WELSH MOUNTAINS. The Police News is never behind, and this week it produces a picture of Abe Buzzard in his cabin on the Welsh mountains, to suit the story which was recently sent around the country by lying Reading reporters. In the picture the reporter, who is a very innocent looking fellow, is standing in the doorway. He has his bat in his hand and behind him guarding the door stands a villainous looking fellow, with a revolver in his hand. looking fellow, with a revolver in his hand. Abe is the central figure of the picture. He is seated on a stool in the middle of the cabin. He is represented as a tall, muscular looking man, with long hair and a cowboy appearance. On his lap is his favorite rifle. Frankford, with a patch as big as a vest is standing against the back part of the cabin with a cigar in his mouth and a revolver in his belt. On a board bed two other ill-looking men with fire arms are lounging and others are scoattered around the room. The cabin is full of arms are lounging and others are scattered around the room. The cabin is full of skins, guns &c. and on the rear is a large bill with the words '$500 for the capture of Abe Buzzard, Dead or Alive.' This reward certainly was not offered by our county authorities or Abe might have been county authorities or Abe might have been that during his talk with the governor and express package was brought in. The package when opened was found to contain a handsomely made boot of enormous size and thickness of sole. The foot was at least two feet in length. Upon the sole was the legend, 'Kick the Rascals of the contained o
