on, foredoomed, unhappy soul, paed thee o'er the ocean wave, not reach the longed-for goal—the port be made thy grave."

—From Litter bry Life. Thereon, and One to Carry.

A well-husbanded lady is now residing in a state of Arkaneas. She is 65 years of age, and is living with a courageous man who has sumed the position of being her fourteenth schand! It is said that in the hall of her care threen pegs, upon each of high hangs a hat duly labelled as the property of one of the defunct husbands. Taken the Agency.

Bisry N. Howell, chief engineer of the fire depriment, of this city, has taken the agency for town and county for the "Harden Hand transde." which was exhibited so successfully a Centro Square last week. A LAWYER'S OPINION OF INTEREST TO ALL.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to MR. H. E. SLAYMAKER, Agent for REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE, by a prominent practicing physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afflicted with INDIGESTION AND DYSPERSIA.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of greater potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweeps away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive, we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease. Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than BRANDY.

The aged, with feeble appetite, and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly.

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY

For all their lils and aches. Be it, however, A SOVEREIGN REMEDY For all their ills and aches. Be it, however, strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

Regart's Old Brandy,

Regart's Old Brandy,

Sold by our enterprising friend, H. E. SLAY.
MAKER. This broady has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandles—no matter with how many law breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics, would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curaitve power of

BEIGART'S OLD BRANDY

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we will cite: A hard working farmer had been afflicted with an exhausting Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour cructations constantly—no appetite—in fact he was obliged to restrict his diet to cruckers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Hoot Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When salvised to try

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY

In his case, he looked up with astonishment; but after hearing of his wonderful effects in the cases of some of his mear acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the lirandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was all taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he choose to eat. He still keeps it 'and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine, he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.
