As comtion was less than half a million. As com-pared with the record of previous months, when millions have been paid off, these statements are startling. Unfortunately they are due to lavish and wasteful expendi-ture under laws passed by Congress, and are thus proof of a vicious policy. But then, the country is safe and is not go-ing to the dogs; and as for the national debt, it might for many reasons be left alone. There is no occasion for calling in a first-class security and adding millions each month to the capital seeking investment. The present generation has done its duty with the debt.
