In the Revival Coming? The New Year opens with a respectable boom in the stock market.

The New Year opens with a respectable boom in the stock market. The average individual will not place much confidence in it as an indication of a revival in the business industries of the country.

While everyone is turning over a new leaf this peculiarly blessed season, it might be well for the servant girl to stop talking back to her mistress long enough to give the matter some serious reflection.

George Alfred Townsend kindly explains that the current slang word "snide" i. e. "schmide" from Pennsylvania Dutch, means the cut as applied to a tailor, who is called schneider, and probably cuts the cloth too short.

The dynamite fiend has already smashed his New Year's slate. The dairymen of some of our neighbor counties are in favor of a prohibitory law preventing the sale of adulterated or bogus butter in the state.

One way in which it is proposed to reduce the surplus this winter is by the erection of as many public buildings as Congress in its beneficence will permit. When the possibilities of combinations between congressmen to obtain votes for pet measures in return for similar favors are considered, it is easy to see how vast sums will melt away like snow under a warm sun.

Sharon deserves and he will get no popular sympathy in the imposition of the judgment which has been visited upon him. The villainess of the woman who triumphs over him only makes his fate the more deserved.

His First Name. Brother Sellhamer, of the Church of God, has frankly informed the public through the columns of the INTELLIGENCER what is the Christian name of "Rev. Mr. Meredith, of New Jersey," who lately introduced himself and was introduced by Rev. Mr. Sellhamer in this community.

By the failure of this information the risk was incurred of great injustice to "Rev. Mr. Meredith of New Jersey," as a minister of his name, assuming also to lecture on temperance, had brought himself into disrepute and disgrace in Philadelphia.

As Bad as Tramps. Three men convicted of manslaughter in our local courts have been taken to the Eastern penitentiary for three years and three months.

Homeless is still a slightly higher grade of offense in this jurisdiction than the crime of being without home, friends, work or money.

Quickly Settled. The story that Frank Hurd recently said Cleveland was a free trader, was president of a free trade club in Buffalo and had been since its organization, and that the fact was suppressed during the campaign, has received an effectual quietus.

Gov. Cleveland says that there is not a word of truth in it; that he never belonged to any such organization.

Mr. Hurd says he told no such story. A great many vigorous Republican editorials of the past two days have been spoiled.

If man was a spiritual being, what a number of broken resolutions he might witness!

While everyone is turning over a new leaf this peculiarly blessed season, it might be well for the servant girl to stop talking back to her mistress long enough to give the matter some serious reflection.

The coachman now begins to look with envy on the skating rink assistant.

A monument to Virgil has just been erected on the heights called Montecello di Virgilio at Fiesole, near Mantua.

There are six hundred and twenty-three newspapers and periodicals published in foreign languages in this Republic. The Germans have the most. The Chinese, Chinese and Irish have one paper printed in their own language.

Life has been so long and so weary in Asia and America will find men reason there, perhaps as acutely as himself, who yet never heard of a syllogism.—Locke.

A curious incident occurred in St. Paul's cathedral last Sunday. Cannon Liddon was the preacher, and, as usual, there was a big congregation.

Dr. Frederic Elliot, deceased, whose services during the war of the rebellion, and whose wise methods of practice since that time will not be easily forgotten, was also noted for his common-sense views of health.
