he Fire Queuched and no Harm Done—A Phil-adelphia Hobber Captured to Columbia. The Condition of the Susquehanna. Notes About Town.

COLUMNIA, Jan. a.—While sleeping in ront of a stove, on the floor, on Sunday, the dothing of Stephen and Hannah Burrells, residents of Tow Hill, was set on fire by a hot al from the stove. The flames were noticed a member of the Shawnee fire company. with the assistance of seven other mem-s were extinguished before any serious mage had been done. The clothing on the damage had been done. The clothing on the sleepers were partly burned, but their bodies escaped injury. The floor of the house was also slightly damaged by the flames. Had it not been for the Shawnee boys the Burrells would probably have been burned to death.

Another Important Arrest.

Officers William Wittiek and John Gilbert

led another feather to their caps, last night, by arresting William Turner, who at one time was a bootblack, in Columbia, and who had been "wanted" by the authorities in Philadelphia, since the night of November 14th 1884, Turner lived with Rev. W. M. Dobbins, at 1,402 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, and on the night referred to robbed the reverend gentlemen's mansion. Commit-ting Magistrate, J. W. South of the central olice office, Philadelphia, used every means capture him, but failed. Turner came to bin, yesterday, and went to a house on Tow Hill. The officers became aware of these facts, and surrounding the house captured ilm, as he attempted to leave by a back entrance. Wittiek took him to Philadelphia this morning.

The Condition of the River.

No further damage or danger is now apprehended from the raging Susquehanna. Excepting along the shores, the river is clear of ice, and while being several feet above low water marks, all danger is considered for the time being past. The damage it caused is considerable, but consists of that stated in last evening's INTELLIGENCER. Big and Little islands are considerably washed, as is also the Pennsylvania canal at several points. also the Pennsylvania canal at several points.

The C. & P. D. R. R. tracks have been cleared of their blockade and travel has been resume 1. Gorges remain on the dam and at the bridge piers, but the fact causes no uncasices.

The river fell several inches last night, but to-day is stationary, although it may commence rising every moment, on account of the recent rain. Several hundred boom logs were caught flow the dam on Sunday and yes-

THE DEATH ROLL.

An Aged Citizen Passes Away—The Demise of a Young Painter. Frederick Miller, who was stricken with paralysis on Saturday, died at his home No. 340 West Orange street, last evening. Mr. Miller was a native of this city, followed butchering for many years in East King street, and during his later years was one of the assistant city regulators. He was also a watchman at the Lancaster county prison for a few years, and tipstaff in the county courts. He raised a large family. Two or three of his sons were soldiers in the Union army, and one of them lost his life in the service. One of his daughters is the wife of R. P. Miller, wholesale grocer.

Death of Walter G. Bateman.

Walter G. Bateman, painter, son of Wm. H. Batemen, died last evening about 7 o'clock at his father's home, 442 East King street, of typhoid fever, after an illness of only about a week. Mr. Bateman was an in telligent, industrious young man, of much promise, and highly esteemed by a large circle of acquaintances who will sincerely mourn his unexpected death.

News Heard Away From Home.

A letter from Sam Matt Fridy, prothono of Lancaster county, to Prothonotary McCarthy, states that all the country McCarthy, states that all the country officers of Lancaster have combined to resist what is known as the Lancaster county salary bill, but which applies to four central Pennsylvania counties, including Schuylkill. They have employed Hugh M. North, J. Hay Brown and George Nauman, attorneys. They ask the Schuylkill officers to cooperate with them, and have the attorneys of all the countles have a meeting and work together.

January meeting of the Lancaster poultry society was held on Monday evening with the fell-wing members present: Frank Humphrey ville; J. B. Lichty, Martin Rudy, John F. Schum, Wm. A. Schoenberger, Joseph Trissler, and H. A. Schroyer, president. The only absiness transacted was the arrangement of details for the annual exhibition, which companies to morrow. Already over 200 entries have been made, and the show promises to be one of the largest ever held by the society.

SOME OF THE COUNTY EXPENSES. Reduction of the Bonded Debt—A Glance at the Coming County Commissioners' Report.

The annual account of the county commissioners shows that $75,900 of the county debt was paid off during the year 1884, and that the bonded debt of the county on January 1, 1885, was $201,050. From the list of expenses paid, it appears that there were $4,885.85 paid for advertising and printing. The Examiner received the largest amount, $886.60, and the Strasburg Free Press the smallest amount,

The aldermen, justices and constables drew $3,637.04 for cases disposed of, not returned to court. J. K. Barr heads the list with $396.85 and Alderman McGlinn received the smallest amount, $57.45. TWO NEW CHARGES OF FORGERY Made Against Joseph Herzog-His Hearings

Again Postponed.
Two o'clock this afternoon was the time appointed for the hearing at Alderman Barr's of Joseph Herzog, charged with forging two notes discounted by the Lancaster County National bank, but before the hour of hearing the case was again continued until Tues-day of next week, by agreement of all the counsel interested.

A similar disposition was made of the prosecutions brought by Samuel Burns against Herzog at the office of Alderman ordney. Jacob Bausman, president of the Farmer' National bank, this morning preferred two additional charges of forgery against Herzog. The prosecutor alleges that Herzog did on October 27, fraudulently make, sign, utter and publish a certain promissory note, pur-porting to be signed by Harry Nixdorf, for $490, and on October 4, forged the name of Milton F. Buch to a note for $400. Alderman Barr sent detainers to the county prison this afternoon to hold Herzog on the new charges preferred. The hearings in these cases will also take place on next Tues-

ACTOR MATLEY INCAPACITATED.

After a Trying Week. Mr. B. McAuley presented "The Jerseyman" at the Fourteenth Street theatre on the evening of Monday, December 29th. His engagement was for two weeks, but he appeared to be so ill on the first night that it seemed doubtful if he would last. On Tuesday night he was no better, and at Wednesday's performance Mr. Samuel Colville, the lessee of the theatre, had to get a substitute for him. He braced up on Thursday night and did quite well. On Friday night he was so sick that in the act in which he falls down on the stage, he was unwhich he falls down on the stage, he was un-able to get up, and the curtain was rung down. Mr. Colville closed the theatre on Saturday, and will keep it closed until next Monday, when it will be re-opened with "The Wages of Sin." Mr. McAuley has continued unwell, and his indisposition has thrown out of work forty-three actors and

During his last visit to this city Mr. Mc-Auley was "unwell," laboring from the effects of having imbibed too much of the spirituous.

The Manor Township "Spook."

The Police News of this week illustrates the Manor township spook story, which appeared "exclusively" in the New Era. The picture represents a lonely scene in the untry. A very pious-looking man, supposed to be a minister, is walking across a posed to be a minister, is walking across a field, evidently coming from a church, which can be seen in the distance. By his side walks the "spook," carrying in his hand his own head, which has a long beard attached to it. The News calls it "a spook which can unbutton its head." Next week's paper will have a correct picture of the Fulton township petrified man.

Separation of Man and Wife. Isaac McCutchen and wife appeared before Alderman Fordney, yesterday and stated that owing to certain family trouble and disagreements they could not longer live together. Articles of separa-tion were drawn up and signed by them in which they agree to disagree and live apart during their natural lives, and not to molest each other in any way or to hold each other responsible for each other acts.

It has not been de-cided what plan to pursue to collect the license, which William Westhaeffer, the owner of the rink, refuses to pay. Shooting Match At Schoenberger's park, Monday, Henry Gardner and Charles Franciscus had a shooting match for a private purse. Ten birds each were shot at, and each contestant killed five. They shot off the tie at one bird each, and each killed his bird, causing another tie. As no more birds were to be had it was agreed to decide the match next Monday.

An Owner Wanted. John Remick informed Officer Barnhold that Short and Boyd, the young men arrested for stealing buffalo robes, had left a trunk at his house. The officer had the trunk opened and in it was a lap blanket. The owner of the same can get it by calling at the office of Alderman Barr.

Represented Himself as a Healer. rom the York Dispatch. Levi Glassmyer, who has been representing himself as Edmund B.
