BANK FAILURE.

Farmer's Bank of Elizabethtown Suspends. Its President Embarrassed.

The Farmer's bank of Elizabethtown, a private banking house owned by Samuel Eby, of Elizabethtown, this county, suspended to-day, and probably will not resume.

A despatch received by a firm in this city says: "Owing to the illness of Mr. Eby and a run on us, we were compelled to suspend."

The suspension was not unexpected in banking circles in this city. Judgments to the amount of $26,000 have been entered up against the bank. The deposits are very light.

Judgments were entered against Samuel Eby, of Elizabethtown, Friday night, for $26,299.01.

Business Troubles in Town and County.

The first deed of assignment for the year 1885 was received at the recorder's office to-day. By it Benjamin K. Hawthorn and wife, of Manor township, transferred all their property for the benefit of creditors to Henry Bowman, of the same township.

Execution was issued against Jacob Bork, shoe dealer, yesterday afternoon, for $1,350, at the suit of Charles F. Scheid in trust for the use of Mary Bork. The stock of Bork has been levied upon by the sheriff.

Hunting for John E. Dennison.

John E. Dennison, of Maytown, who has been under bail to answer charges of conspiracy and false pretense at the January term of court, was arrested in Baltimore last night on a telegram sent by District Attorney Eberly. Dennison, it was learned, had left the county to avoid trial, and when his bondsmen learned that he had "skipped" they had the district attorney telegraph to the Baltimore authorities to arrest him. Sheriff Tomlinson went to Baltimore last night to bring Dennison back.

The Baltimore Sun, of to-day says: Detive Freeberger arrested Dennison on Friday on West Fayette street, and Justice Cashmeyer held him for a hearing to-day. Over $300 was found in his pocket.

A telegram received from Sheriff Tomlinson says that he will arrive with his prisoner from Harrisburg at 5:18 this afternoon.
