AN ASSAULT ON ROLLER SKATING.

A Minister, a Teacher and an Editor Makes a Simultaneous Move on Rinks.

Roller skating is receiving a severe shaking up in Reading. Rev. Dr. T. B. Neely, a Methodist pastor of that city, inveighs against them as follows:

"Roller skating may be an excellent exercise and to many may be beneficial, but if rink skating gives an enclosure of bad air and leads to excessive exercise until late hours of the night with exposure to drafts and sudden reaction when going out into the cold, certainly no one will call that beneficial. The Christian Advocate states that 'the Tribune gives the testimony of a physician in a large country town, that the excessive exercise, long hours and exposure to drafts and colds in these places, have greatly increased debility among young women and laid the foundation of serious diseases.' We hear of so many cases of great physical injury in the shape of sprains, spinal troubles, and more obscure injuries, that a question may well be raised as to whether rink skating is as healthful as many suppose, and doctors do say that it will greatly increase diseases which are peculiar to the weaker * * * a pastor whose church is within three miles of the City hall informs us that twelve young ladies in his congregation have lost all interest in religion since they became subjects of the craze, and that several have formed associations very grievous to their parents."

M. E. Scheibner, principal of the boy's high school of Reading, addresses an open note "to the parents of the pupils of the boys' high school." Referring to the time wasted at skating rinks, he says: "I protest most emphatically against the pernicious practice. The effects, resulting from an excess of physical (sic) exercises on the skating rink, to the exclusion of intellectual development, are painfully visible in the school room."

The Reading Times, in an editorial, comments as follows, on "Rink Instructor Mashers:" "An item of news is going the rounds of the newspapers concerning a young society lady of Reading who regarded an instructor at one of the skating rinks with favor, and presented him with a handsome gold watch, which the father of the young lady, waxing exceedingly wroth, compelled the rink instructor "masher" to return. Considering the circumstance that a number of young ladies are equally infatuated with the charms of the gentlemen employed to initiate them into the art of graceful roller skating, the great stress placed upon this little incident is deemed unfair in the society circles in which the topic is being discussed. Freaks of this kind may happen in the best regulated families. Of all classes of people, jewellers, at least, would be the less adverse to the presentation of such munificent gifts. If there is any reliance to be placed in gossip, however, the goodies of the confectionary stores are the principal gifts brought into requisition by the young lady patrons of skating rinks to enslave the devoted attention of the instructors at these popular resorts. It is hinted in broad enough terms to be easily comprehended by the most obtuse mind, that if treats for beer were in order, instead of presents of candies, oranges, cakes, etc., the saloon keepers of the city would not look so down-hearted whenever the attractions of the roller skating rinks were mentioned.

THREE FAST YOUNG MEN.

They Live High on Moderate Salaries and Two are Arrested for Embezzlement.

A few days ago the firm of Charles P. Kellogg & Co., Chicago, discharged a young man named R. F. Powell. An investigation of the books seemed to show that Powell had embezzled some of the firm's money. The suggestion that an investigation be made came from city detectives, who had noticed that Powell appeared to be leading a fast life. During the investigation the firm discovered that Walter Mills, the assistant cashier, had been irregular in his habits, and he was discharged on last Monday. His salary was $2,000 per year.

Mills, a young man named Charles W. James, also employed by the firm, and Powell were three fast men. They dined regularly at a noted chop house which is frequented by sporting men. As soon as Mills had been discharged an expert was put to work on Powell's and Mill's books.

The first discovery was a shortage of $200, then came $500 more, and then it was discovered that the two men had been systematically plundering the firm for several years. Mills was an old and trusted employe and up to Wednesday last, when Powell was arrested, no one in the house would have questioned his integrity. The shortage of the two men is fully $5,000, and it may reach $10,000. James was arrested, and Mills has disappeared.

EVIDENCE DESTROYED BY MURDER.

An Uncivilized State of Affairs in a County in Texas.

At Vernon, Wilbarger county, Texas, on the Panhandle, Friday night, Levy Morrison, a cattleman, was called to his door and shot down without warning. It is not known who did the shooting.

A few weeks ago James Wilson's livery stable was burned, together with some cowhides which were being stored as evidence against certain persons accused of stealing cattle. The killing of one Jones a few days ago grew out of this matter. It is uncertain how many more men will be shot down, as there are several others interested in the case. There seems to be an effort to destroy evidence. It is also reported that James Wilson, one of the most respected citizens of the county, was assassinated Friday night.

A Fatal Quarry Accident.

Three Italians in Drake & Stratton's granite quarries, Port Deposit, Md., were employed on Saturday were employed in drilling for a blast on a ledge of rock, when a huge mass of earth and stone, weighing several hundred tons, over their heads began to move. They discovered their peril and the two strikers succeeded in getting out of the way, but Antonio Brasco, who was sitting down holding the drill, was caught under the huge slide and life almost instantly crushed out of him. When his body was dug from under the many tons of debris which covered it by his fellow workmen his neck was found to be broken and his skull so badly smashed that the brains protruded.

This Beats the Record.

From the Philadelphia Ledger.

GOEKLER.—Mary H., daughter of James M. and Anna Goukler, aged 3 years and 1 month.

Hang the crape upon the knob,
A written notice on the door;
Another angel gone to God—
Our little darling is no more.
Mamma, wipe away that falling tear,
And weep no more for me;
With our Saviour away up here,
Sitting on my Maker's knee.
Kiss my little sister Nanne.
Give Rosie my little doll to-day;
Tell her I am up in Heaven—
With the angels I will play.
Adieu, 'tis past, the midnight hour.
Oh! how sweet the angels sing;
God is looking from the tower,
I hear the bells in Heaven ring.

A Mammoth Piano.

The concert grand piano used at the Millersville concert was the largest, and had the heaviest volume of tone of any that has ever been used in this part of the country. To-day it was shipped back by express to Henry F. Miller & Sons, Boston, by whom it was made. It has been used at grand concerts in many parts of the country. A. F. Reinoehl, who attended to the shipping of the instrument, says it is by far the largest piano he ever handled.

Ministerial Changes.

Rev. Charles Nagle, pastor of the Moravian church at Lititz, preached his farewell sermon to a very large congregation on Sunday. He goes from Lititz to take charge of the First Moravian church at Philadelphia.

Rev. Wm. Reinke, of Lebanon, who received and accepted a call from the Moravian congregation at Lititz, will enter upon his pastorate of said church on Sunday, February 1st.

Held for Embezzlement.

This afternoon John G. Dougherty had a hearing before Alderman Fordney on the charge of embezzling $130 from U. D. Miley, of Manheim township. The accused was an agent of Miley for the sale of tobacco. The testimony showed that he sold a quantity of it, kept the money and then acknowledged it. He was held in bail for court.

A Town That Murders Sleep.

From the Scranton Truth.

"Sindbad," of the Lancaster INTELLIGENCER, intimates that five hours sleep out of twenty-four is sufficient even for those who are intellectually employed. In Harrisburg, where sleep is scarce, the people manage to get along with less than that.

Meeting of Poor Directors.

The board of poor directors held a regular meeting on Saturday, but the only business transacted was of a routine character and of no public interest. The question of placing a telephone at the county hospital was not discussed.

THE SOUP FUND.

Are All Its Beneficiaries in Real Need?—A Proposed Concert.

This morning 518 rations of soup were given out at the station house. This winter the daily number of rations has been larger than ever in the history of free soup, and only a few days ago 800 rations were given out. It is a well-known fact that a large number of people are living off the soup house who are not in needy circumstances, and to see proof of this it is only necessary for one to stand at the soup house and watch the well-dressed people who come every morning with buckets as big as lard cans. No questions are asked by the easy going persons in charge of the soup house, and, although it should be the duty of the mayor to see to the matter he gives it about as little attention as he does many other city affairs. Persons who have contributed to this fund should inquire who are deriving the benefits.

The Lancaster Maennerchor and Liederkranz contemplate giving a grand union concert in the near future, for the benefit of the free soup fund.

All in the Same Dwelling.

From the Harrisburg Independent.

The Utz family residing on Meadow Lane, this city, can boast of a great grandmother (on the verge of 80 years), a grand mother, mother and daughter, all residing in the same house—a most extraordinary circumstance.

Amusements.

The Suydam's Tonight.—This evening the Suydam Brothers with their pantomime company, which includes Maurittius, the clown, and a number of others, will appear at the opera house. The company gave their fourth performance in York on Saturday evening, when people were turned away. Since they were here they have added Mateo and Lewis, contortionists, and James Howard, Dutch comedian, to the show. Their prices are but 10 and 25 cents.

Frank Girard's Attraction.—On Wednesday evening Frank Girard's "A Cold Day When We Get Left," will be given at the opera house. Last week it was played in Boston to crowded houses, and this is the first week of one night stands. The people are all fine artists and the prices are popular.

DEATHS.

WAIDLEY.—January 17, 1885, in Strasburg borough, Mrs. Levi Waidley, in the 64th year of her age.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from her husband's residence, in Strasburg, on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, without further notice. Services at the M. E. church. Interment at Strasburg cemetery.

DALEY.—In this city, on the 18th inst., Mary A., relict of the late Patrick P. Daley, in the 47th year of her age.

Notice of funeral hereafter.

MEDICAL.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the article for you, it stimulates the failing energies, invigorates the body and cheers the mind. It enables the system to throw off the debilitating effects of undue fatigue, gives renewed vigor to the organs of digestion, arouses the liver when inactive, renews the faded appetite, and encourages healthful repose. Its ingredients are safe, and its credentials, which consist in the hearty endorsement of persons of every class of society, are most convincing.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally. H. HOSTETTER & SON

BRANDY.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to MR. H. E. SLAYMAKER, Agent for REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE, by a prominent practicing physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is recommended to the attention of those afflicted with INDIGESTION AND DYSPEPSIA.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of greater potency in the cure of some of the diseases to which flesh is heir to, and many annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive, we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease, Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than BRANDY.

The aged, with feeble appetite, and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY

For all their ills and aches. Be it, however, strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

Regart's Old Brandy,

Sold by our enterprising friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies—no matter with how many jaw breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various imposient dyspepsia specifics, would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative power of

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we will cite.

A hard working farmer had been afflicted with an exceedingly troublesome Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used Moerman's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try in his case, he looked up with astonishment; but after hearing of his wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was all taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine, he has been of very pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY
