AN IRON BAR'S FEARFUL FALL.

IN ITS DESCENT IT SEVERELY INJURES EMANUEL HOGENTOGLER.

The Strange Accident to a Susquehanna Rolling Mill Workman—Work of the Relief Association—The Champion at Wheelbarrow Racing.

Regular Correspondence of INTELLIGENCER.

COLUMBIA, Jan. 30.—Emanuel Hogentogler, while at work at the large iron shears in the Susquehanna rolling mill, yesterday, was severely injured. Preparations were being made to cut a large bar of iron, when in some manner it was caught by the shears and hurled skywards. It struck the roof of the building and such was its force that a large hole was made. In falling it struck Hogentogler knocking him down and on top of a pile of old iron. He was was internally injured, besides having one ear nearly severed, and a deep gash cut in his head. Dr. Markel attended him.

The Relief Association.

But little business of importance was transacted at yesterday's meeting of the Columbia Relief association, at Mrs. S. H. Purple's. Weekly reports were read, but they will appear in the monthly report later on. The finances of the association were becoming quite low, and an appeal is hereby made to have the treasury replenished. Much work lies before the ladies, and it cannot be accomplished without money. If the present strain on the treasury continues two weeks longer, the funds will all have been exhausted. Be liberal in your contributions.

The Wheelbarrow Champion.

With last evening's race in the rink Henry Smith, of Columbia, won the championship of Lancaster county for one mile wheelbarrow race. He had only one opponent, Harry Mites, who, owing to sickness, quit at the end of the 12th lap. In justice to the young man, we must say that he was in no fit condition to enter the race, as he has been ill for several days past. Smith made the mile in 4 minutes, 55 seconds.

Twelve Cars Wrecked.

A broken truck frame of extra train of engine No. 736, east bound, caused twelve freight cars to be wrecked at Collins' Station, at 10 p. m., yesterday. Several trucks were broke, while the damage to the tracks and ties was considerable. Both the south and north tracks were blocked until 5 this morning. The Columbia wreckers worked on the wreck from 11:15 p. m., until 6 o'clock this morning.

Borough Budget.

Mrs. Dr. S. A. Beckins entertained last evening in her usual hospitable manner.

An evening company was held at J. C. Stoner's on Wednesday evening, and the occasion proved to be an exceedingly pleasant one.

A horse owned by Mrs. Brenneman, ran off on Third street yesterday. It was caught by Percy Wall, of Philadelphia, who is visiting in Columbia on Second street, by climbing into the rear of the wagon and seizing the reins.

Several Columbia boys, who attended the shooting match for a hog, in Wrightsville, yesterday, raised a row by their action, and caused a general melee to ensue. It would have gone rough with them, but the Wrightsville constables forced them to leave, after which quiet was restored. This thing is becoming monotonous.

The platform at the transfer freight ware house is being extended several feet.

The teachers and pupils in the Poplar street schools complained greatly about the intense cold. The heaters are not doing their duty.

The latest curiosity exhibited in Columbia, is a double leaf of Havana tobacco on one stem. It was raised on F. S. Bletz's farm, near this borough.

On Friday evening, Feb. 6th, '85, Tony Denier's famous Humpty Dumpty and specialty company will appear in Columbia.

Orrick Richards has a "shin plaster," signed by Rufus Smith, and dated 1837. Where is an older one to be found?

The Amusements, a journal devoted to sports of all kinds, and published in Boston, pays the Metropolitan rink, of Columbia, a fine compliment, by saying it is, without doubt, the most complete rink, for convenience, in the state. The dimensions of the building, its seating capacity, etc., are also given.

Rev. Wm. P. Evans, pastor of the E. E. Lutheran church, will deliver a course of lectures on "Christian doctrine," on Friday evening of each week, between this and Easter, in the lecture room of the church. The first lecture will be delivered on Friday, Jan. 30th, at 7:30 p. m.

Was It John Frankford?

The following dispatch from Ephrata, dated Thursday, to the Philadelphia Times may be believed or not, according to the taste of the reader:

A gentleman who came here to-day from Bowmansville reports that he encountered John Frankford on the Welsh mountain. Frankford is one of the fugitive Buzzard gang and is wanted to serve about eighteen years in the Lancaster jail, from which he escaped. Recently his friends gave out that he had died in Ohio and was quietly buried. This the people generally believed, and Frankford took advantage and became bolder than ever. He and Abe Buzzard are a choice set of villains are still living on the mountains. The authorities have given up hunting Buzzard, at least until spring.

Re-Arrested in View of Huber's Condition.

Mike Gorman, charged with committing an aggravated assault and battery on George M. Huber, was re-arrested this morning and committed in default of $2,000 to await the result of Huber's injuries. Gorman was arrested on last Sunday and entered bail in the sum of $500 for a hearing on next Saturday. To-day it was reported to the alderman that Huber was suffering greatly from his wounded nose, that there was danger of erysipelas setting in, and it was deemed best to re-arrest Gorman.

The Colored Line in Skating Rinks.

Thursday afternoon Judge Parmenter, of Boston, gave a decision in the case of Richard S. Brown, a well known colored man, against Joseph Hawes, treasurer of the Winslow skating rink, fining Hawes $15 and costs. Brown visited the rink with two children, but was not allowed to purchase admission tickets. Upon demanding the reason for this discrimination, Brown was forcibly ejected from the premises.

It Was Best That He Should Go.

From the Boston Transcript.

"No," said the dying punster, with a grim smile, "I don't object to flowers, but don't have my violets, please. I shouldn't care to have my grave violated, you know." It was immediately agreed that it was best that he should go.

Dramatic Art in Reading.

From the Eagle.

Schoch's American Variety theatre is drawing big audiences nightly. The programme includes a new original farce entitled "On the Quiet, or Reading After Dark" in which some of the sins and follies of life under the gas light are depicted. The piece describes the adventures of John Schmidt, a Kutztown youth, who came to Reading to see the elephant. Ten people are in the cast.

Ex-Governor Moses Again Arrested.

Detectives returned from Detroit on Wednesday having in custody ex-Governor Moses, of South Carolina, who is wanted in Cambridge for obtaining money by false pretense from Col. T. W. Higginson. Moses obtained $34 from Col. Higginson by representing himself as a lawyer by the name of Tyrum, who had been robbed while returning from Canada. The prisoner was committed to jail to await trial at the February term of court.

"White Plume Celery."

A. R. C. of Morristown, N. J., writes: My experience with it, on the best possible soil, is that it is an unmitigated humbug, such as the average farmer is periodically taken in with. I purchased the seed, at 25 per oz., at the same time as I did the celery of commerce. The latter turned out superbly; the former you can safely say is a fraud.

Sale of Real Estate.

Samuel Hess, auct., sold last night at Samuel Marilu's Leopard hotel, Lancaster city, for the heirs of C. Eckert's estate, a one story house and lot situated on East Chestnut street, to Charles Johnson, for $945.

Teaching in Adams County.

Prof. Krebs, formerly of Franklin & Marshall, and principal for a year of Allentown's female seminary, starts the Edgeville family school on Monday in Littlestown.

Big Papers and Little.

In the "Here and There" chat of to-day's INTELLIGENCER appears some notice of the largest newspaper ever printed in this country. In striking contrast with this great half-acre sheet is The Evening Minute, of Indianapolis. A copy of this publication, the smallest daily journal in the world, has been received by Master Frank Barr, son of Alderman Barr, of this city, whose sister—and the lad's aunt—Miss Miriam Barr, is canvassing Indianapolis for Williard Glazier's military histories, which are highly commended by the Minute. This diminutive daily is of four pages, not as big as an eight by ten window pane, but it is well arranged, neatly printed and has a marvelous variety of editorial, news and advertising matter considering its size.

The Best of Good Reasons.

Evening News Legislative Correspondent.

"I want this bill favorably reported," said old Mr. Myers, of Adams, in the judiciary local committee of the House to-day, "because a young fellow ran away with my daughter."

The committe laughed and recommended the bill. It came from Eckels, and provides that when a young couple present themselves to an official with matrimonial purposes they must either bring their parents' consent, have the old folks present, or else produce a certificate from the prothonotary of their county proving that they have sworn before him to their marriageable age.

Two Thousand Colored Dancers.

The first annual reception and ball given by the editor and proprietors of the colored newspaper, the New York Enterprise, took place Wednesday night in Madison Square Garden. Over 2,000 persons were present. It was the largest and most enjoyable ball ever given by colored people in that city, and was the first to be held in Madison Square garden. Guests were present from Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia and Boston. The dances numbered 24, and it was daylight before carriages were called.

The State Apportionment Bills.

The House apportionment committee in Harrisburg, have agreed to recommend the passage of the MacFarlane legislative apportionment bill of last session, which gives 129 Republican and 85 Democratic districts. An agreement was also reached in favor of the Longenecker senatorial bill, which allows the Democrats 18 out of the 50 districts. The Democratic apportionment bills were all negatived. The McCracken congressional apportionment bill, giving the Republicans 18 districts out of the 28, was also agreed upon.

Narrow Escape from Suffocation.

Mrs. William O. Seull, wife of a well-known citizen of Reading, awoke Thursday morning almost suffocated from coal-gas. She managed to reach a window, which she threw open, not only saving her own life but the lives of her husband and guest—Miss Thesta Shaff, editress of the Chambersburg (Pa.) Register—both of whom were insensible, and were resuscitated with the greatest difficulty. All three are very sick and are confined to bed, but will be able to be out by a few days.

Nearly Suffocated.

Thursday night the family of Morris Gershel, tobacco dealer, residing at 512 West Chestnut street, made a narrow escape from suffocation from coal gas. The house is heated by a heater in the basement, and by some means the smokepipe was pushed so far into the flue that the gas could not escape up the chimney, but was forced back into the house, ascending to the sleeping apartments and stupefying every member of the family. To-day they are all sick, but out of danger.

"Mysterious Disappearance" Explained.

The Kansas City Journal publishes an interview with a detective who says he was one of the two men who served the pretended warrant on Alfred Sheldon, the Englishman, on the night of May 4 last. He states that the mysterious disappearance was a ruse planned by Sheldon to elude his creditors, and tells how Sheldon escaped, and boarding a freight train east of the city got away to Canada.

Dynamite Explosion in Ontario.

Six dynamite cartridges which were lying on the floor of the engine house of the Tay canal works, at Beveridge Bay, Ontario, exploded on Thursday morning, blowing the house to atoms. A man named Lewis, who had charge of the explosives, and George McDonald, son of the contractor, were fatally injured. Another man, named Buchanan, was severely hurt, but is expected to recover.

Fees for Tavern and Restaurant Licenses.

The county commissioners at their session yesterday afternoon designated fifty cents as the price to be paid to the clerk of quarter sessions for all the blanks incident to tavern and restaurant licenses. The clerk's fees are $1.25, which will make the cost to each applicant in the future $1.75. The price charged for several years has been $3.50 for each license granted.

A Two Mile Rink Contest.

At the Mannerchor skating rink last evening, Master Edward Troyer won the third of the series of the two mile contests for a silver medal, in 7 minutes and 50 seconds. John Eckert was second and John Villee third. This is Troyer's second victory in this series.

Loss Adjusted.

The adjusters of the insurance companies interested in the fire at C. A. Locher's building, settled the losses yesterday afternoon. They allowed Mr. Locher a loss of $800 on stock and the same amount on the building, and Mr. Hatz, whose upholstering establishment was on the second floor, was allowed $150.

Home Missions.

The mission meeting of the college and seminary students will be held this evening in St. Paul's church. Rev. Whitmer, who will deliver an address on "Home Missions," is an excellent speaker and is thoroughly conversant with his subject.

Slight Fire at Penn Iron Works.

A fire was discovered in the engine room at the Penn Iron works on Wednesday afternoon, but was extinguished with a few of Harden's Star hand grenades before much damage was done.

Tobogganing.

The boys and girls are enjoying themselves with their sleds, coasting on the conveniently located hills in the city. West Vine, West Chestnut, North Ann, and a few other hills are the favorite slides, or toboggans, as they are now called by people of "culchaw."

At the Station House.

Three gas and four gasoline lights were reported as not burning last night.

The seventeen vags who occupied the station house as lodgers, last night, were discharged this morning.

The Black Flag.—Saturday evening will witness the rendition of this famous melo-drama by an excellent company led by Edwin F. Thorne. They have been playing to crowded houses in the larger cities.

Maggie Mitchell.—This talented actress will visit the city on Wednesday evening next, presenting at the opera house "Little Barefoot," a domestic drama borrowed from the German. To sound Miss Mitchell's praises as an intelligent artist would be to gild refined gold.
