I WONDER.

If this night, at set of sun,
Should find my race was nearly run,
Would I have earned the glad "Well done?"
I wonder.

Would I look back at dear ones here?
Would I go onward without fear?
Would there be time for any tear?
I wonder.

Would it then be so strangely sweet
Where loved ones wait their own to greet,
That life would pass with winged feet?
I wonder.

Would all the countless trials sore
Perplex me never, never more?
Would heartaches, failures, all be o'er?
I wonder.

He says, "Unto the weary rest,"
Unto the friendless home so blest;
And so to Him I leave the rest.
Nor wonder.

EVENING SONG.

Look off, dear love, across the sallow sands,
And mark you meeting of the sun and sea,
How long they kiss in sight of all the lands.
Ah! longer, longer we.

Now in the sea's red vintage melts the sun,
As Cytherea's pearl dissolves in rosy wine,
And Cleopatra's night drinks all. 'Tis done,
Love; lay thine hand in mine.

Come forth, sweet stars, and comfort heaven's heart;
Glimmer, ye waves, round else unlighted sands.
O night! divorce our sun and sky apart—
Never our lips, our hands.

—Sidney Lanier.

THE CHANGELESS FRIEND.

"But I wonder, still I wonder,
Who among mankind to trust,
Where my pure, sweet faith so often
Has been scattered as the dust:
Comes to me the solemn answer,
Like a voice from 'neath the sod,
"There is nothing true but heaven,"
And no changeless friend but God.

—Judge J. F. Simmons.

THE BRADLAUGH DECISION.

A Professed Atheist Cannot Qualify for a Seat in Parliament.

It is now settled by a London court of appeals decision in the Bradlaugh case that, unless he forswears, not his religion, but his want of it, there is permanent disqualification to his sitting in Parliament, for he cannot hope for a reversal in the House of Lords. The opinion, when put into the reports, could bear this headline.

No professed atheist can be a member, because he cannot qualify, his oath not being an oath, according to law." The probabilities are now that Parliament, as the judge of the qualifications of its own members, on this decision will declare Bradlaugh's seat vacant, and under such a situation his formal return by the electors will be extremely improbable.

Only a Drop of Nitro-Glycerine.

Benjamin Grey, a blacksmith in the middle oil field, near Warren, Pa., was called upon by a well shooter to make some repairs on the running gears of his wagon, which he used in carrying nitro-glycerine. Grey crawled in under the wagon. He found a bolt broken, and took the remains of it to [illegible] out to make room for a new one. A deafening explosion followed the first stroke of the hammer. The wagon was shattered to pieces which were thrown in every direction. Grey was knocked senseless to the ground, and so badly injured that his life is despaired of. The owner of the wagon stood several feet away, but was thrown to the ground. One wheel of the wagon was carried into a tree twenty feet distant. The explosion is accounted for on the theory that a quantity of nitro-glycerine had leaked out of a can at some time while being transported from the factory, and had collected on the running gear of the wagon. The blow from the hammer was all that was needed to explode it.

Bishop Gross' Views.

The Savannah (Ga.) News quotes Bishop Gross as saying, in regard to the recent explosions in London: "I was unable to express my horror and indignation when I heard of the terrible disaster. It is simply murder. The Catholic church is opposed to all such methods of warfare. The Irish bishops and clergy have denounced the dynamiters, and the church regards their methods opposed to every principle of religion. While the pope would like to see the Irish secure their rights, he has repeatedly denounced any method like that which crops out in the London catastrophe to — for myself, I am Irish on my mother's side, because I was a participant in the [illegible] were taken for their protection, and [illegible] end a private meeting of any, but I dealers was recently held. What action was taken has not been divulged, but of destruction that the organization of above persons." [illegible] men more [illegible] be use of A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, forty years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me. I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them, and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident that it is a cure for the most obstinate cold, or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head, by sniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice it twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. For deafness and earache, it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eclectric Oil." Dr. E. F. Crane, Corry, Pa.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

IT LEADS ALL.

No other blood purifying medicine is made, or has ever been prepared, which so completely meets the wants of physicians and the general public as

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases. If there is a lurking SCROFULA taint of Scrofula about you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA will dislodge it and expel it from your system.

For constitutional or scrofulous Catarrh, CATARRH AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is the true remedy. It has cured numberless cases. It will stop the nauseous catarrhal discharges, and remove the sickening odor of the breath, which are indications of scrofulous origin.

ULCEROUS SORES "At the age of two years one of my children was terribly afflicted with ulcerous running sores on its face and neck. At the same time its eyes were swollen, much inflamed and very sore. Physicians told us that a powerful alterative medicine must be employed. They united in recommending AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. A few doses produced a perceptible improvement, which, by an adherence to your directions, was continued to a complete and permanent cure. No evidence has since appeared of the existence of any scrofulous tendencies; and no treatment of any disorder was ever attended by more prompt or effectual results.

THOUSANDS OF CASES OF

SICK

Headache are permanently cured every year (as the hundreds of testimonials in my possession will testify) by the use of

DR. LESLIE'S

"Special Prescription." This Remedy stands to-day without a rival, and with scarcely a competitor in the world. Thousands of Physicians throughout the country have acknowledged their inability to cure it, and are now prescribing Dr. Leslie's Special Prescription for all cases of Sick in either its nervous, bilious or congestive form, arising from obstruction, congestion or torpidity of the liver. When I say that Dr. Leslie's

HEADACHE

SPECIAL

Prescription will cure the most obstinate cases of Sick Headache, I mean just what I say, and that is, that it not merely relieves but cures, no matter how long the case may have been standing.

POSITIVELY

I have testimonials from persons who have been afflicted for twenty years, being confined to bed two or three days at a time every two weeks, that have been permanently cured by two bottles of Dr. Leslie's Special so that they have not had an attack for over five years.

PARKER'S TONIC.

STORIES ON THE ROAD.

Commercial Travelers at a Wayside Inn--Something to Put in a Gripsack.

"Gentlemen, I almost envy you the positions you fill; your experience of the world; your knowledge of business; the changing sights you see, and all that, you know."

This warmly expressed regret fell from the lips of an elderly pleasure tourist, last August, and was addressed to a semi-circle of commercial travelers seated on the porch of the Lindell hotel, St. Louis, Mo.

"Yes," responded a New York representative of the profession, "a drummer isn't without his pleasures, but he runs his risks, too—risks outside the chances of railroad collisions and steamboat explosions."

"What risks for instance?"

"This, for instance," said Mr. W. D. Franklin, who was then traveling for an Eastern house, and is known to merchants in all parts of the country: "The risk—which, indeed, amounts to almost a certainty—of getting the dyspepsia from perpetual change of diet and water, and from having no fixed hours for eating and sleeping. I myself was an example. I say was, for I am all right now."

"No discount on your digestion?" broke in a Chicago dry goods traveler, lighting his cigar afresh.

"Not a quarter per cent. But I had to give up traveling for awhile. The dyspepsia ruined my paper. Finally I came across an advertisement of PARKER'S TONIC. I tried it and it fixed me up to perfection. There is nothing on earth, in my opinion, equal to it as a cure for dyspepsia. Messrs. Hiscox & Co., of New York, the proprietors, hold a letter from Mr. Franklin stating that precise fact. PARKER'S TONIC aids digestion, cures Malarial Fevers, Heartburn, Headache, Coughs and Colds, and all chronic diseases of the Liver and Kidneys. Put a bottle in your valise. Prices, 50c. and $1.
