THE MOSS ROSE.

Beneath a rose, as morning broke,
An angel from his sleep awoke.

Pleased with the flower above his head,
So fair and beautiful, he said:

"Thy fragrance and thy cooling shade
Have doubly sweet my slumbers made.

Fairest of flowers on earth that grow,
Ask what you will and I'll bestow."

"Grant, then," she cried, "I'll ask no more,
Some charm no flower has known before?"

The angel first seemed at a loss,
Then clothed the bush in simple moss,

And, lo! the moss rose stood confessed,
A lovelier flower than all the rest.

—John Stillwell.

BE CHEERY.

Lift up your voice and sing, my man,
And never look so sad,
There's enough of the joy of Eden left
To make the whole earth glad.
What if a shadow sometimes shifts
Across the landscape, darkling?
Down in the dale the lilies swing
And the happy beck is sparkling;
Then over the hills the sunshine drifts
And away, away the shadow shifts.

Take up your burden and sing aloud,
But be not your burden's slave.
For cares, they will crush a timid soul,
But they crouch before the brave.
Make of the vexing things of life
Stepping stones over trouble,
For as you sing, or as you sigh,
Will cheer or worry double.
So lift up your voice and sing, my man,
For with song, not sorrow, the world began.

—Olive Bartle.

A NOVEL WAY TO WED.

The Consummation of a Romantic Marriage by Correspondence and Photographs.

From the York Dispatch.

Thursday evening another romantic wedding took place on West Philadelphia street, being the wedding of the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Blasser, No 25 West Philadelphia street, Mrs. Emma R. Tracy to Artemus Emery, of Independence, Wisconsin. The services were performed by Rev. A. H. Irvine, of the Evangelical church. Miss Jane Blasser and Miss Annie E. Weitzel acted as bridesmaids, and Mr. G. F. Young and W. B. Blasser as groomsmen. The happy couple will leave in a few days for Independence, Wisconsin, the home of the groom, which will be their future home. The friends and family of the bride were present and the occasion was a very pleasant one.

The romantic features of the wedding were that neither the bride or groom had seen each other before Wednesday of this week. The entire courtship had been conducted by correspondence and the exchange of photographs. Mr. Emery was a widower, his former wife being a Pennsylvanian, and being desirous of obtaining another Pennsylvania woman, he advertised in Cupid's Corner, a paper published in Plainfield, Cumberland county, for a wife. Mrs. Tracy saw the advertisement and answered it. A correspondence ensued, and the parties being mutually pleased with each other, after exchanging pictures entered into a matrimonial engagement which was consummated last evening as above stated. The groom is a fine looking man, engaged in the lumber trade in Wisconsin. We acknowledge the receipt of some of the wedding cake, and tender the happy couple our hearty congratulations and wish them a long and happy life.

The Upas Tree Not Strictly Poisonous.

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The upas tree is the poison tree of Macassar. The tradition is that putrid steam rises from the tree, which grows in the island of Java, and that whatever the vapor touches dies. This fable is chiefly due to Forersch, a Dutch physician, who published his narrative in 1783. "Not a tree," he says, "nor a blade of grass is to be found in the valley or surrrounding mountains. Not a beast or bird, reptile or living thing lives in the vicinity." He adds that on "one occasion 1,600 refugees encamped within 14 miles of it, and all but 300 died within two months." This fable Darwin has perpetuated in his "Love of the Plants." Bennett has shown that the Dutchman's accounts is a mere traveler's tale, for the tree while growing is quite innocuous, though the juice may be used for poison; the whole neighborhood is most richly covered with vegetation; man may fearlessly walk under the trees and birds roost upon its branches. A upas tree grows in Kew Gardens, London, and flourishes amid hot house plants.

On the blasted heath
Fell Upas sits, the hydra-tree of death."
—(Darwin, "Loves of Plants," iii., 233.)

Insanity from Religious Excitement.

A rousing religious revival is in progress in the farming town of Tiverton, R. I., and the result is the hopeless insanity of Deacon Luther W. Wilcox. He left home Friday and walked to Newport, a distance of twelve miles. He desired to reach there in season to take the Sound boat for New York. He said that he had received divine inspiration from the "King of Kings" for the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and was ordered to deliver it in person. He did not arrive there until midnight, too late to take the boat. He was cared for during the remainder of the night at the house of a friend, and at seven a. m., on Saturday was in a cell at the police station. One hour later he was adjudged insane by two physicians, and before 10 o'clock two officers started with him for the insane asylum in Providence. When he left his cell, tears filled his eyes, and he said it was hard to be torn away in such a manner from his wife and family. He was rational upon all subjects save the inspiration which he had for Beecher. He was finally persuaded to send it by bearer.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Commence the Year Right.

Don't make too many resolutions, but hold on like grim death to those you do make. If your physical system is out of order you should attend to that at once; for its no use trying to keep a stiff upper lip when your kidneys or liver are taking the courage out of you. If you really made up your mind to turn over a new leaf, commence the year by taking a thorough course of the celebrated Kidney-Wort. Thousands of people testify to its good effects for kidney diseases, biliousness, piles, constipation, etc. jan28-2mdeod&mw

If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians in the United States. A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, forty years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me. I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them, and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold, or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head, by sniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice it twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. For deafness and earache, it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eclectric Oil." Dr. E. F. Crane, Corry, Pa.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

IT LEADS ALL.

No other blood purifying medicine is made, or has ever been prepared, which so completely meets the wants of physicians and the general public as

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases. If there is a lurking taint of Scrofula about you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA will dislodge it and expel it from your system.

SCROFULA

For constitutional or scrofulous Catarrh, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is the true remedy. It has cured numberless cases. It will stop the nauseous catarrhal discharges, and remove the sickening odor of the breath, which are indications of scrofulous origin.

CATARRH

"Hutto, Tex., Sept. 28, 1882.

"At the age of two years one of my children was terribly afflicted with ulcerous running sores on its face and neck. At the same time its eyes were swollen, much inflamed and very sore. Physicians told us that a powerful alterative medicine must be employed. They united in recommending AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. A few doses produced a perceptible improvement, which, by an adherence to your directions, was continued to a complete and permanent cure. No evidence has since appeared of the existence of any scrofulous tendencies; and no treatment of any disorder was ever attended by more prompt or effectual results.

ULCEROUS SORES

SICK

Headache are permanently cured every year (as the hundreds of testimonials in my possession will testify) by the use of in either its nervous, bilious or congestive form, arising from obstruction, congestion or torpidity of the liver. When I say that Dr. Leslie's cures, no matter how long the case may have been standing.

I have testimonials from persons who have been afflicted for twenty years, being confined to bed two or three days at a time every two weeks, that have been permanently cured by two bottles of Dr. Leslie's Special
