The treasure: 40 bound volumes, 60 serials, 146 pamphlets, 18 photographs and engravings. Twelve original papers were read before the society during the year and published. Thirteen plants and animals were reported as being new to the country.

The treasurer $2.58.

The socretary reported that he had colted some dues from delinquent members since the treasurer's report had been made out and that the amount collected paid all indebtedness and left a balance in the treasurery in favor of the society.

On motion S. S. Rathvon, S. M. Sener and C. A. Heinitsh, were appointed a committee to see at what price the constitution and bylaws could be printed.

The constitution and by-laws were referred to Dr. Stahr, S. M. Sener, and J. P. Wickersham for editing and defining duties of officers.

PRESERVING THE HISTORY OF THE COUNTY. The following resolution was unanimously depted: Resolved, That the members of the Lungean (Scientific and Historical) society, of the city and county of Lancaster, society, of the city and county of Lancaster, desire the co-operation and donations of all who are interested in collating and preserving the history of this wealthy and interesting county. Belleving as we do, through the tight of experience, that it will be better to build on the foundation already laid than to divide the material, and begin over again. Outside of the Smithsonian institution there are faw salaried functionaries whose business it is to collect and arrange historical matter for the future historian. It is mainly a work of disinterested love. Therefore, let all who feel the Importance of this work, and are inspired with the desire to add it, bring to the society's rooms such material as he or she can collect or furnish, where it will be propcan collect or furnish, where it will be prop-erly credited and cared for by experienced bands.

hands.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Hon. J. P. Wickersham; vice presidents, Dr. J. H. Dubbs and Charles A. Heinitsh; necording secretary, S. M. Sener; corresponding secretary Miss E. V. Baker; treasurer, Dr. S. S. Rathvon, librarian, Mrs. L. D. Zell; curators Dr. S. Rathvon, J. S. Stahr, S. M. Sener and Falling From a Precipice.

The hillside at the head of Sixteenth street, Pittsburg, is steep for a distance and then the descent is sheer downward for nearly a hundred feet. Robert Sproul and John McGuigan, who are about eleven years old, live on the hill, and early Saturday morning started to thread their way along a narrow pass to the bottom. The hillside was covered with lee and the boys had gone only a short distance, when both slipped and began to roll down the hill, shricking for help all the time and making frantic efforts to save themselves. The smooth ice offered no foothold and the boys, after rolling for fully 200 feet, dropped over the high bluff to the rocks beneath. Sproul will probably die. His skull was fractured, an arm broken and his body horribly cut and bruised. McGuigan escaped with a broken west and a number of severe dred feet. Robert Sproul and John McGuiwith a broken wrist and a number of severe Preacher Newton Speaking His Mind. -The Rev. R. Heber Newton, of the Anthon Memorial (P. E.) church, New York, made no allusion in his pulpit Sunday to the statement that he was to be tried for heresy. In the course of his discourse he said that in all of the writings of the discal Teacher there was found some imperiest thought; also: "If the teachings of some men are to be believed the Eternal Being has selected certain individuals for heaven and ordained that others shall be consigned to everlasting dampation. The distring the means according to nation. The doctrine means, according to this theory, that some men are chosen as the objects of Gou's havor and others are left to fate. Such a theory is revolting to human nature, Is there any wonder that the hot irons of indignation are barbed against it?"

A Strange Hiding Place.

Robert A. Walisce, a prominent citizen of Buffalo, N. Y., died in April. 1878. He left four grown-up children by a former wife, and a second wife and four little ones. The second wife also had a daughter by a former husband. On his death-bed he told his elder husband. On his death-bed he told his elder children that he had made a will providing for them. After his demise no will was jound. The estate was settled, and a year later the wife died, leaving the remaining property to her children. A permit was recently obtained, and the elder children have county their father's grays and layer found. opened their father's grave and have found the missing will tucked away snugly in his vest, and as the estate, which amounted to thirty thousand dollars, has passed through several hands, it is not believed there is suffi-cient left to warrant carrying it into court.

Death of a Former Lancastrian.

A telegram from Pittsburg, received last evening, announces the death in that city, on Saturday, or Benjamin McClain, a former resident of Lancaster, but who had been in the west for the past 7 or 8 years. He was unmarried but leaves a brother, John, in Chicago, and a sister Sarah McClain, in this city. His remains will be brought here for interment in Lancaster cemetery.

A ROW AT THE DEPOT. of one of the Rowdles of the Bottle

Saturday evening a gang of drunken rowdies who rejoice in the name of "the Bottle Gang" assembled at the Pengsylvania milroad depot and became very noisy and disorderly. Officer Boas, after telling them to keep quiet, and finally ordering them to disperse, which they refused to do, attempted to arrest James McGrady, one of the gang.
McGrady resisted and drew a knife on the officer, but the latter held on to the prisoner and called for assistance. Wm.
Urban, who went to the assistance of the officer, was knocked down and kicked, and Officer Boas received a terrible kick in the abdomen from McGrady's heavy boot.
Another of the gang got hold of McGrady's knife and ran off with it. McGrady was landed in the lockup and Boas made complaint against him before Alderman Spurrier, of drunken and disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. This morning file accused entered ball for a hearing on Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Shortly after the arrest of McGrady another Saturday evening a gang of drunken room

Shortly after the arrest of McGra.ly another Shortly after the arrest of McGra.ly another of the gang entered the depot where Railroad Officer Roy was talking to a friend. Walking up to them the ruffians after calling the officer opprobrious names struck him a terrible blow in the face felling him to the ground and cutting his tace badly. The fellow then flourished a knife and threatened to cut anyone who dared to take him, and did make a lunge at one of the men who went to Roy's assistance and cut a button from his coat. The fellow then ran off, and up to noon today had not been arrested.

THE PRISON BOARD MEETS. And Decides to Employ Additional Watchmen of Its Own. The prison board met this merning with all the members present. The usual bills were approved. Henry Hershey was awarded the contract for furnishing, rye coffee to the prison for the next six months, at 215 cents per pound. The solicitor was instructed to advertise for proposals for printing the annual report of the prison. Mr. Carter was appointed a committee to purchase pigs for prison use. The bond of Eli B. Miller, assistant underkeeper, in the sum of $500 was approved. The following resolu-tion offered by Mr. Carter was unanimously

WHEREAS, The Lancaster county prison is well-known by this board to be in an insecure condition and

A COWARDLY LOVER.

A gentlemen who was passing down South Prince street, near the Stevens house, between 190 and 41 o'clock on Saturday night, had his attention excited by the screams of a young woman who was going down the other side of the way in company with a young man. The girl screamed for help and as the gentleman came up appealed for his protection from the assault of her escort. The lubberly coward took himself off and the gentleman who had come to her relief, upon asyrtaining her resignant. took himself off and the gentleman who had come to her relief, upon ascertaining her residence accompanied bet thither. Arriving there he found that her assailant had reached the house first and was trying to make a satisfactory explanation to the mother. It seems that he had been paying the girl some attention and they had a difference of some kind on the street, he was partially intoxicated and in their discoult have the accordant here. in their dispute a scallted her; her protector left the parties together and it seems to have been amicably arranged. A FALSE REPORT. The Rumor That the Bodies of Four Brothers Are to Be Cremated.

There has been a rumor on the street today that the bodies of four brothers were to be brought to this city next week for incineration at the Lancaster crematorium. The report has been diligently hunted

There is nothing in it. The genial and accommodating secretary of the Cremation and Funeral Reform association gives his assurance that he has no information of any such quartette.

There is a body, of a person deceased over a year ago, which its custodians propose to have cremated in the latter part of February.

When it happens the readers of the INTELLICENCES will hear of it.

A narrow oscape from a fatal accident by shooting occurred in Port Deposit Friday. Miss Sidney Frist, a young lady of about 17 years of age, was handling a revolver in the presence of a number of young friends, when the weapon was somehow discharged. The ball apparently took effect in the left breast of George Baines, a young cousin of the lady. The youth was much frightened, thinking he was fatally wounded. On examination it was found that the billet had penetrated his overcoat and undercoat and other clothing, passed directly across his chest, leaving a vivid rod mark on the flesh without breakless. vivid red mark on the flesh without breaking the skin, and came out at the right breast and lodged in the wall.

A Southern Horsewhipping. A few days ago a young farmer named Murphy came to Americus, Ga., and while there direulated stories of a standarous nature regarding Miss Myers, employed as a clerk by a merchant named Cohen. The father of the lady took Murphy to the court house and he made affidavits denying the stories. He was then taken into a back room in Cohen's store and horsowhipped. Murphy's father has now brought suit against those instru-mental in the punishment of his son.

Discharged on Habeas Corpus.

Henry Horner, arrested on a fi fa and ca so, on Saturday, was taken before Judge afternoon, Iv was shown to the court that Homor was dis-harged under the insolvent act some time ago, and that the present h /a and ca a was issued for arrearges due at the time Horner was discharged under the insolvent law. The court discharged Horner from castedy.

Jones Elected Senator in Arkansas. When the Arksness Legislature met in joint session on Saturday at Little Rock, Ex-Gov. Barry's letter withdrawing from the senatorial race was read. On the first ballot James K. Jones, representative from the third congressional district, was elected United States Senator. The vote stood; Jones, 72; Dunn, 49; C. R. Beckenridge 3; necessary to a choice, 64.

Because He Married His Housekeeper. The circuit court at St. Louis has appointed a receiver for the estate of General Harney, which yields an income of about $100,000 a year. As the general, who is $4 years of age, married his young housekeeper a few months ago, he is presumed to be unable to take care of his own interests.

A Suit For Damages.

Amusements.
The Private Secretary.—This excellent drama is a medification of the Private Tutor.

is a modification of "The Private Tutor," and on the order of "The Professor," and well merits the popularity it has attained. The Scranton Republican says the acting in the piece is ex-ceedingly natural, deliciously unconventional, and possesses a nonchalance that makes an evening with the "Private Secretary" peculiar ly a fascination. It will be given at the operahouse by the Madison Square company this evening

Over the Garden Wall. -This comedy is said to be byin full of fun. An exchange says the piece may not bear severe criticism, but it serves its purpose in admirably provoking laughter. The sporting company is strong and the members The Ellis Family. These well-known artists will appear in their famous bell-ringing per-formance at the Chestnut street Baptist church on Tuesday evening. They will, doubtless, have a large audience.

Little Barefoot - Wednesday evening Maggie Mitchell will personate the herofre in this the most popular drama of her liberal repertore. In this role competent critics speak of her favor ably, and the Lancaster theatre-goers will un-doubtedly pack the house on the occasion of the coming of this very popular actress.
