KILLED IN HER HUT.

Death of an Aged Woman, Who Had Been Hermit Forty-Eight Years. Undoubtedly the strangest character in Eastern Pennsylvania died on Monday in the mountains back of Bernville, Berks county. This was Sallie Ketner, who was cnown as "The Woman Hermit of the Mountains." She lived alone in a rude log hut, away from all society and neighbors, The tumble-down hovel fell of its own weight. Some of the falling timbers struck the woman and she was so badly injured that she died shortly after being taken from the wreck. Four of her favorite dogs were also killed. The old woman was 84 years old and lived in voluntary exile in the same old dilapidated hut exactly forty-eight years.

The story of her eccentric life would fill a book. When she took up her solitary abode she was thirty-six years old. People remember her as a stout, healthy and comely woman. The story goes that in her youthful days she fell in fove with a prepossessing young man, who followed the sea for a living. He leit with the promise that in five years he would make ler his bride. He never returned, having teen impressed into the service of another country. He died in a French prison sixty years ago, but the old woman. prison sixty years ago, but the old woman kept his memory ever green, would never have anything to do with men, and in her bosom when dead was found the last letter posom when dead was found the last letter from her lover, faded with age, written just before he died. The woman grew melancholy, forsook her family and friends, received a small inheritance from her father, and in 1837 took up the life of a hermit. She fled at the approach of strangers, was a good shot and during the winter season her hut hung full of game brought down by her unerring rifle.

She abhorred men, never apply to them. If unerring rifle.

She abhorred men, never spoke to them, if she could help it, and lived in the society of her cats and dogs, of which she had nineteen of the former and twelve of the latter. Frequently she was not seen for months. The rumor in the neighborhood was that she was a miser and had considerable money hid away, but none has yet been found in the debris of her hut. The Rev. D. D. Trexler will officiate at her funeral on Thursday. Her rude life had made her healthy and strong and when she died she was as well preserved as a woman of fifty.

A Great Religious Revival.

A Great Religious Revival.

Saltillo, Huntingdon county, and the community for a distance of four or five miles around are swayed by the most intense religious fervor. A revival in the Methodist church, under ministry of Rev. Charles Dunning, has been in progress for nearly a month and has been drawing into it the unconverted by the score. The meetings are nightly crowded so that there is scarce room for the great mass of people to kneel at prayer or to rise to their feet. The number of seekers is undiminished. Members of other denominations are carried away with the enthusiasm, and Pressbyterians, Baptists and Dunkers join in the praise and shouting with a zeal and vigor that have been regarded as characteristic of their Methodist brethern alone. Distinctions of sect and creed have been lost in the general union of the churches in the work of Christian conversion. The revivals in other parts of the county are still going on. ty are still going on.

The county commissioners heard and dislowing districts to-day: Strasburg borough, Strasburg township, East Cocalico, West Cocalico, Brecknock, Manheim borough, Cornarvon, Colerain and Fulton.

Arrested for Being Drunk and Disorderly. John Sherlow, arrested for drunkenness and d sorderly conduct by Constable Dern, was committed last evening for a hearing by Alderman Barr,

ONE OF THE OLDEST.

of an Old Soldier, Who Was the Seni-Citizen of the Town. At the residence of his son, John Spangler, grocer and ex-restaurateur, on Columbia avenue, this city, to-day died, of old age, his father, Francis Joseph Spangler, in the 98th year of his age—in all probability the oldest Mr. Spangler, though so far advanced in

Mr. Spangier, though as degree of good years, had enjoyed a fair degree of good health, and it was the hope of himself and his family that he would round out a century After a short illness his death occurred be tween 9 and 10 o'clock this morning.

Besides his sons—John, William, late ba keeper at the Cooper house, and John, the slater, he left a daughter, wife of Charles Zech, who lives on North Queen street, near the Schiller house. Deceased was born in Baden Baden, Germany, and was a soldier under Napoleon in the great Continental war which shook Europe and disturbed the whole politi-

Europe and disturbed the whole politi-cal world in the early part of the present century. He was probably the sole survivor of those armies in Lancaster. His mind was clear and his memory good and he was wont to relate with much vividness and to tell with great pride of the military achievements which he had seen and part of which he was. His funeral will take place on Thursday at 9 a. m. from the residence of his son where he has long made his home, and after re-quiem high mass at St. Joseph's Cathotic church his body will be interred in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Joseph's cemetery.

Mr. Spangler was married in Germany to Mary Magdalena Wetzel, who is dead some years. He came to Lancaster in 1851, soon after he landed in New York, and though by after he landed in New York, and though by vocation a farmer and grape grower in the old country, he adopted no particular calling here. In 1866 he fell from a grape arbor while trimming vines for Mr. Houston in this city and received injuries of which he long felt the effects.

Since the candidacy of Pierce he has taken a settic interest in redities and voted for every Death of an Old Grave Digger. Abram Kline, sr., of Cresswell, died on Friday last, aged 71 years. Mr. Kline was an old resident of Manor township and a lifelong Democrat. He was highly respected by all who knew him. He was an old grave digger and dug nearly all the graves at Cresswell for many years. He was buried yester-day, Monday, at Cresswell church. His funeral was largely attended.

COMMON PLEAS COURT. A Verdict Against the Penn Iron Company. Current Business.

BEFORE JUDGE PATTERSON. Ali of Monday afternoon and evening was taken up in the argument by counsel of the suit of Frank Diller vs. The Penn Iron company, limited. The jury were charged by the court this morning, and after a deliberation of two hours, rendered a verdict in favor of plaintiff, and assessed the damage at $295. The suit of Samuel Keeler and Mary Keeler, his wife, for the use of Mary Keeler vs. The American Merchants' Building and Loan association, was attached for trial this morning. This was an action to recover the value of nine shares of the stock of the de-fendant's association, alleged to be the property of Mary Keeler. The examination has not progressed far enough when court ad-journed at noon to develop the facts in the case.

In the suit of John W. Swift and W. A.

Swift vs. J. Swift & Bro., judgment by con-sent, was entered in favor of plaintiffs for $557.95 and costs of suit. In the suit of Aldus F. Hawthorn and G. W. Hawthorn vs. Robert E. Bruce, action to recover damages for an alleged infringement on a trade mark, the plaintiffs suffered a non

BEFORE JUDGE LIVINGSTON. The suit of John F. Girvin vs. E. Y. Sterner was attached for trial before Judge Livingston in the lower court room this morning. This was a suit brought by plaintiff to recover for Iss1 tobacco sold to defendant at 1714 cents per pound. When the plaintiff delivered the tobacco the defendant's employes refused to accept the same, and plaintiff brought this suit. Before the case had proceeded far it became necessary for the plaintiff to amend his declaration or suffer a non-suit. He preferred to amend. The de-fendant pleaded surprise and the case went over at plaintiff's costs.

CURRENT BUSINESS. H. K. Brossman was divorced from his wife Lucetta Brossman, and Martin Leisy from his wife Susan, on the ground of Christ Shearer, of Tuckerton, Berks county, has stored 14 tons of Havana seed tobacco, 2,600 bushels of apples, 15,000 gallons of wine, 5,000 gallons of new cider and from 35,000 to 40,000 gallons of cider vinegar. He has on his farm at present upwards of ten thousand who gains of cuter vinegar. He has on his farm at present upwards of ten thousand fruit trees of bearing age, besides many thousands of young trees in his nursery. When John Moore, editor of the Harris-burg Telegram, was released from prison a few days ago, after sixty days of confine-ment for libel, he left a cell adorned with the inscription over the door: nscription over the door:

Had I served error and falsehood with half the zeal I served right and truth. I would not have spent sixty days within these whitened walls.

Taken to the Eastern Penitentiary, Sheriff Tomlinson, this morning, took George W. Smith, of Columbia, to the East-ern penitentiary. Smith pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, some weeks ago, in killing Henry Struck and was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of five years and three months in the Eastern penitentiary.

Arrived in Fernandina, Florida. A private dispatch from Fernandina, Fla., to J. D. Pyott, states that the party of saw-millers from this city and county, whose departure was noted last week, have arrived at Fernandina. The mill goes up the St. John's river to Astor, thence by rail to Umatilla, the nearest station to the 'scene of its first operations. All the party are well, and goods reports are expected from them later.

Home Acknowledgments. The managers of the Home gratefully ac knowledge the following donations: Mrs. S. Bowers, basket of cakes; G. S. Brady, basket of cakes; G. S. Brady, basket of cakes; Wm. C. Henry Baumgardner, by his counsel, Geo. Nauman, this morning filed a bill in courts to perpetuate the testimony of Joseph Her zog as to certain notes now due and matur-ing at the Laneaster County National bank, on which Mr. Baumgardner's name appears as endorser and which he says are forgeries. The total number of notes of the County bank, on which Mr. Baumgardner's name appears, is nineteen, and their face value is $9,333.

U. S. Grant, Jr., continued his testimony Saturday, in New York, in the suit of Jerome B. Chaffee to recover securities entrusted to the firm of Grant & Ward. A number of let-ters were read from Mr. Chaffee, in one of which, referring to loans made to young Grant for the firm's use, he says he would like to make a few thousands to spend in Denver in the political campaign. The wit-ness said that if all the profits of the firm had been real the firm would owe him $1.

At the Mannerchor Rink There will be a one-mile race at the Man erchor skating rink this evening. The contestants will be Robert Greezinger, the winner of the mile race in a former series, and John Eckert, who is also a fast skater. The contest promises to be close and exciting.

The County Auditors. The county auditors spent all of Monday afternoon in examining the accounts of fees earned by the various county officers during the month of January. The auditors dis-cussed the propriety of electing a solicitor and clerk, but did not come to a conclusion. They will be in session again to-morrow. Coming Over to Talk Temperance.

Mr. Montague is a graceful and pleasing actor. The support was fair."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A GREAT DISCOVERY. The greatest discovery of the nineteenth century is Dr. Leslie's Special Prescription for sick headache, which is the discovery of an eminent physician and used by him for over thirty years before giving it to the public, and it stands to day without a rival. LET THESE THINGS BE CONSIDERED. Thousands of men die every day who could be saved. Prejudice is mainly to blame for this oss of life. If it were believed that the sum of disease may certainly be reduced by physic, much would be gained. And yet the proposition is very simple: If you take out daily more imurities than is daily generated, you will soon be rid of impurities. The effect of this wise practice is soon seen in Billious, Liver and Kid-ney troubles. But it is equally of value in head and brain affections: in Plenrisy, Pneumonia, Apoplexy and Paralysis.

In chronic and acute Rheumatism, and in all affections of the bowels, this principle soon relieves and cures, when the medicine used is

"HE KEEPS BOOKS!"

Jan19-tfd

That was the remark made by a young person whom we overheard on the street the other day, and the meaning was that a certain person kept a book store. That's one way to "keep books," and a very good way if you have the necessary experience and capitaf; but there is another way to "keep books," and that is to keep accounts by the best methods of book-keeping, such as are taught in every detail, and practically, too, at the Brandy as a Medicine.

INDIGESTION AND DYSPERSIA.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Absolute Silmulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of greater potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweeps away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic modice, we present to the faverable notice of invalids—spec fully those afflicted with that miserable disease, Tryspopsin, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than BRANDY.

The maded, with feelide appetite, and more or less debitity, will find this simple medicine, when used properly.

A SOVEKEGN REMEDY

For all their ills and aches, he it, however, strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

Regart's Old Brandy,

Regart's Old Brandy,

sold by our enterprising friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This brandy has shood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies—no matter with how many law breaking French tilles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifies, would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative power of

KEIGART'S OLD BRANDY

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we will cite:

A hard working furmer had been afflicted with an exhausting Pyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had some cractations constantly—no appetite—in fact he was obliged to testrich ha dict to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He he a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

In his case, he looked up with astonishment; but after hearing of his wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acqualutances, he at last consented to follow our advice, Be used the Brandy fathfailty and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was all taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he choose be out. He still keeps it and uses a liftle occasionally; and since he has this medicine, he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.
