CURRENT BUSINESS IN COURT.

Hearing Argument in Applications for Hotel and Restaurant Licenses.

Court met at 10 o'clock this morning for the transaction of current business and the argument for applicants for hotel and restaurant licenses.

Elias R. Brown, of Stevens, West Cocalico township, was an applicant for a hotel license. This hotel was licensed for many years and last year the court refused a license to Mr. Brown and granted a license to another stand in the same village. The petition of Mr. Brown this year was signed by nearly every resident of West Cocalico township, and accompanying this petition were the affidavits of a large number of the residents of the village, setting forth that the hotel of Mr. Brown was necessary for the traveling public. The court granted the license.

David Bair of Earl township, made application for a hotel license. Bair kept hotel for a number of years but last April failed to make affidavit that he had not violated the liquor law. With the petition filed to the present term Mr. Bair sent the necessary affidavit. The court continued the matter until depositions can be taken to show the necessity of the place.

George W. Sheetz, who made application for a license to keep a restaurant in the basement of the Western market, withdrew his application.

It was shown to the court that Jacob Schaeffer, who petitioned to keep a liquor store in the Second ward, was now a resident of the city, and the court granted him a license.

There are a number of other applications which will be argued next week.

CURRENT BUSINESS.

Reasons were filed for a new trial in the suit of Whitehill Reel vs. Philip Letzelter, tried this week, in which the verdict of the jury was in favor of the plaintiff.

E. Schaeffer Metzger was appointed watcher for the Sixth ward for Tuesday's election.

The report of viewers, laying out a road in Penn township from a point on the public road leading from Stauffer's mill from Petersburg and ending at the terminus of the Pennville road, was confirmed absolutely.

Argument on the rule to show cause why the executions against George P. Killian should not be set aside was postponed until next Saturday.

INSPECTING THE FIRE APPARATUS.

Visitors From Chester Investigating Our Call System.

On Thursday last Mr. Thomas Houston, president of select council of the city of Chester, Delaware county, visited Lancaster for the purpose of taking a look at our fire department and investigate its workings. Chief Howell showed him through the several fire houses and exhibited the working of our system, with which Mr. Houston appeared to be much pleased. Yesterday two other councilmen and a member of the volunteer fire department of Chester visited Lancaster on the same evening. Mayor Rosenmiller and Chief Howell took them to the new truck and engine house, on East King street, explained the workings of the Hayes truck, the fire alarm and other parts of our system, and then took them to No. 3 engine house. Before leaving Lancaster the visitors expressed an opinion that the city of Chester will before long introduce the fire alarm and the Hayes truck, if they do not go further and adopt our entire call system.

Sudden Death of an Aged Lady.

Miss Christiana Fordney died suddenly at the residence of her niece, Mrs. John P. Schaum, No. 208 South Queen street, with whom she made her home, at an early hour this morning. Miss Fordney complained of feeling ill for several days, but nothing serious was apprehended. She ate a hearty supper on Friday and retired to bed at her usual time. Shortly before midnight she was taken ill and Dr. Herr was summoned, but when he arrived she was beyond medical aid. Neuralgia of the heart is what the physician pronounced as the cause of death. She was 71 years old.

The Very Latest.

Honeybrook Dispatch to Evening Telegraph.

The report that Abe Buzzard has joined the regular army is not true. He has been seen within the past few days. A number of ministers are now having a paper signed asking the authorities to promise, if Buzzard surrenders, only to sentence him for the time he had to serve in jail when he escaped, and not to punish him for crimes he never committed. Buzzard says he will surrender under these conditions, and when he is released the ministers think he can be reformed.

More Forgery Charges Against Rutt.

Jacob M. Rutt, against whom there are now pending four indictments for forgery, was arrested this morning by Officer Barnholt on his warrants issued by Alderman Barr. The charges were made by the officers of the Union National Mount Joy bank, and the allegation is that Rutt imposed on them two forged notes of the value of $1,075. Rutt waived a hearing and entered bail in the sum of $1,200 for trial at the April court.

Two Servants Burned to Death.

A special from Calvert, Texas, says: "Late Thursday night, the servants' quarters on Dr. R. R. Fancher's premises, were discovered to be in flames. Before assistance arrived two colored people were burned to death. One was a grown woman, the other a young girl. The firemen saved the main residence."

Will Live in Harrisburg.

From the Marietta Times.

D. D. Courtney, who represents this county in the legislature has sold his house in Elizabethtown to A. Harchenrader, and it is probable that he will make his future home in Harrisburg, where he acts as traveling passenger agent for the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

Ecclesiastical Matters.

The pope has written to the Catholic bishops in England to publish the instructions of the Propaganda against the education of Catholics in English Universities. The pope intends to proclaim the canonization of the English martyrs Sir Thomas More and Cardinal Fisher.

At the Station House.

One drunk and twelve lodgers were the occupants of the station house last night. The lodgers were discharged and the drunk paid costs this morning.

One electric, two gasoline and four gas lights were reported as not burning last night.

Two Operettas by the College Circle.

Some of the young ladies and gentlemen of the College circle will render two operettas at Diagnothian hall on the campus on Monday evening at 8 p. m. It promises to be a very interesting event. The proceeds are for the pipe-organ fund of College chapel.

The Minstrels.

At noon to-day Armstrong & Dockstader's minstrel band made a street parade, and this afternoon they are giving a matinee at the opera house. They appear for the last time this evening.

Sale of Real Estate.

Henry Shubert, auctioneer, sold at private sale for Samuel Wetzel, the "Wetzel" farm, opposite the prison, containing about 17 acres to Dr. M. L. Herr for $19,000.

Committed for Ten Days.

Wm. Horner, arrested for drunken and disorderly conduct, was committed for ten days to the county prison by Mayor Rosenmiller.

THE prayer meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance union will be held to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at quarter past 3 o'clock, in Salem church, West Orange street, and will be led by the pastor. The union meets regularly at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, in the hall of the Y. M. C. A.

A MEETING of Sunday school workers in the city and county is to be held in St. John's Lutheran church on Monday evening, March 2, under the auspices of the Pennsylvania State sabbath school association. Mr. E. Pason Porter, of Philadelphia, state secretary, Mr. Clarence J. Reddig, of Shippensburg, of the state executive committee, will address the meeting.

Amusements.

Fanny Davenport in "Fedora."—On Tuesday evening Miss Davenport appears in "Fedora," and nearly 300 seats have been sold for the performance. The New York Clipper says of her: "Miss Davenport has never done anything better, and has done but few things so well, which is saying a great deal of this crowning success in a professional career of so many triumphs."

A Good Actress.—Miss Vickers, who is a fine little actress, deserves a large audience when she appears on Monday. The St. Louis Republican says of her: "Miss Vickers has an attractive stage presence, and shines all over with good humor and unaffected gayety; she is graceful in movement, refined in manner, effective in all her work, and has a bright future before her."

HOUSEHOLD GOODS.
The season is now at hand for refurnishing and restocking the Household with articles of use and necessity as well as ornament.
When buying solid, sterling Silver there is satisfaction in the thought of its being able to be used for generations; not only used now, but by your people that follow after you.
Our stock of plated Goods is very complete and we keep only the very best makes, in all the different grades. Knives, Forks, Spoons, &c., are cheaper now than they have ever been. Now is just the time to buy, before the Spring trade makes prices go up again.
But you cannot tell on paper what can so much better be understood by calling and seeing for yourself, and consequently being convinced.
