TALKING IT OVER.

Lucky? I should say so! This is the eleventh,
And all the cards are out for the twenty-seventh—
Sixteen days! And then—ah! then—ah! then (don't twit me)—
I hope the tailor cuts that swallow tail to fit me!

Love her? Well, I don't!—speaking quite sincerely;
But then she'll stand me in twenty thousand yearly;
And a fellow can't, for any scruples silly,
Afford to let a chance like that escape him, Billy!

Doubtless we shall be moderately happy—
She's a woman grown, and I'm not over sappy:
And we've both confessed to many early passions
Which have been outgrown, along with other fashions.

Experience, you know, a woman's nature mellows,
And she has been engaged to half-a-dozen fellows;
So the old, old story to her was even older
Than to most who hear it with their heads upon your shoulder.

Still she's well enough—that is, I mean she's charming,
And loves me, though her symptoms are not as yet alarming;
And, remembering her fortune, her bank account, and carriage,
I really look with pleasure upon my coming marriage.

But, speaking now of love, perhaps you may remember
That little girl I met in the country last September?
Lord! what eyes she had! I told you something of her;
But I think I didn't tell you that I learned, in fact, to love her.

You see, I spent a fortnight in the sleepy, old, romantic
Village where she lives; and that fortnight drove me frantic.
We rowed and drove and fished, and roamed the woods together,
And talked—Oh! well, of science, and butter, and the weather.

And never once of love? No! never! on my honor!
She may have guessed at that from the way I gazed upon her.
So pure she was! so sweet! with such a freshness to her!
Upon my word, old boy! I felt ashamed to woo her—

Ashamed of vapid talk, and all the small devices
Which in a drawing-room we offer with the ices;
Not one of those soft speeches could I find the tongue to utter;
And so 'twas wise, perhaps, to confine myself to butter.

Well, when I came away I held her hand a minute,
And tried to use my voice; but the very deuce was in it.
As dumb as an oyster I stood; and she was dumber,
Until at last I told her I would come again next summer.

Now, what I want to say, should you chance to see her, Billy:
Just offer my excuses—make 'em sound or make 'em silly.
Tell her that I wrote her—that the letter was miscarried;
That I'm forced to go to Europe. But don't tell her that I'm married!

For—honor bright, old boy!—though this is the eleventh,
And all the cards are out for the twenty-seventh,
I half regret I didn't confess I loved her dearly,
And marry her instead of twenty thousand yearly!

She Thought it Was a Lost Pet.

George Carr and Miss Louisa Graham of Taylortown, Pa., went sleigh riding on Sunday night. On the river road, two miles from there, a small animal ran across in front of the horse, and, jumping on the fence, stopped there. Carr got out of the sleigh and approached the animal, which did not move away. The day before a pet raccoon belonging to a brother of Miss Graham had disappeared. Carr was about to strike the animal on the fence with the butt of his heavy whip, when Miss Graham exclaimed:

"Don't! It's Male's lost coon. Catch it and give it to me."

Carr dropped his whip and reached out both hands to seize the supposed tame coon, when the animal suddenly threw its head forward and caught the young man by the fingers of both hands, and held on so tightly that he could not shake it off. Carr was helpless, and cried to his companion to get out and aid him. She did so, and was compelled to beat the animal to death with the whip before Carr could release his hands. The first two fingers on the right hand and three on the left were bitten so they remained hanging only by three pieces of skin to the hands, and all five have been amputated. The animal proved to be an opossum, the first one ever seen wild in that vicinity.

Terrific Boiler Explosion.

At 11 o'clock Tuesday night one of the large boilers at the colliery of W. T. Carter & Co., at Coleraine, four miles from Hazleton, exploded and instantly killed George Krapf, the fireman, and seriously injured a boy named Whalen. Krapf was struck by the flying debris and horribly mangled, one of his legs being torn off and hurled a distance of one hundred feet. The body was covered with burning coals and burnt almost to a crisp. Whalen was struck by pieces of the flying debris and was badly cut about the head and body.

The boiler and engine houses were completely demolished, the roof of the former being carried fifty yards away. A piece of the boiler weighing a ton and a half was driven through a neighboring stable, where it instantly killed a valuable horse and several goats. Another large piece of the boiler, ten feet in length, was hurled 100 yards.

It is thought the boiler, which had been in use for seven years, was defective. The loss to the company will be heavy.

Profanity That Did Not Pay.

James Aravan, alias Lewis Norton, a Philadelphian, was convicted on Wednesday, in Media, of stealing at a house at Morton, and Judge Clayton sentenced him to a year's imprisonment, when the prisoner called the judge a very bad name and swore. The judge then increased the sentence to two year's imprisonment. At this the prisoner broke out into violent profanity, when the sheriff was ordered to remove him to jail.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

When in the Wrong Channel

The bile wreaks grievous injury. Headaches, constipation, pain in the liver and stomach, jaundice, nausea ensue. A few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will reform these evils and prevent further injury. It is a pleasant aperient, its action upon the bowels being unaccompanied by griping. The liver is both regulated and stimulated by it, and as it is very impolite to disregard disorder of that organ, which through neglect may culminate in dangerous congestion and hepatic abscess, the Bitters should be resorted to at an early stage. Failure to do this renders a contest with the malady more protracted. Fever and ague, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, are remedied by this fine medicine, and the increasing infirmities of age mitigated by it. It may be also used in convalescence with advantage, as it hastens the restoration of vigor. m3-1yeod&w

YOUNG MEN!—READ THIS.

The Voltaic Belt Co., of Marshall, Mich., offer to send their celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days, to men (old or young) afflicted with nervous debility, loss of vitality and manhood, and all kindred troubles. Also for rheumatism, neuralgia, paralysis, and many other kindred diseases. Complete restoration to health, vigor and manhood guaranteed. No risk is incurred as thirty days' trial is allowed. PNEUMONIA PREVENTED.

OYSTER BAY, QUEENS COUNTY, New York, April 11, 1883.

I believe I have been saved from a terrible illness by Allcock's Porous Plasters.

About a month ago I was attacked with a violent pain in my chest, accompanied by fever and great difficulty in breathing. I apprehended pneumonia, which is so prevalent at present; went to bed and applied one of Allcock's Plasters between my shoulder blades and two on my chest. In an hour my breathing was much easier, in two hours the pain had left me, and the next morning I awoke perfectly free from pain. I went about my business as usual, and at the end of a week took the plaster off.

For the last ten years Allcock's Plasters have been used by my family with the best effect in colds, coughs and pain in the side and back.

E. B. SHERWOOD.

Be sure to obtain "Allcock's" Porous Plaster, and all others are worthless imitations.

MEDICAL.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

A HOME DRUGGIST TESTIFIES.

Popularity at home is not always the best test of merit, but we point proudly to the fact that no other medicine has won for itself such universal approbation in its own city, state and country, and among all people, as

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The following letter from one of our best-known Massachusetts druggists should be of interest to every sufferer:

RHEUMATISM.

"Eight years ago I had an attack of Rheumatism, so severe that I could not move from the bed, or dress, without help. I tried several remedies without much if any relief, until I took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. Have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and it still retains its wonderful popularity. The many notable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public.

E. F. HARRIS."

River St., Buckland, Mass., May 13, 1883.

SALT RHEUM.

GEORGE ANDREWS, overseer in the Lowell Carpet Corporation, was for over twenty years before his removal to Lowell afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form. Its ulcerations actually covered more than half the surface of his body and limbs. He was entirely cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1883.

THOUSANDS OF CASES OF

SICK

Headache are permanently cured every year (as the hundreds of testimonials in my possession will testify) by the use of

DR. LESLIE'S

Special Prescription. This Remedy stands to-day without a rival, and with scarcely a competitor in the world. Thousands of Physicians throughout the country have acknowledged their inability to cure it, and are now prescribing Dr. Leslie's Special Prescription for all cases of Sick in either its nervous, bilious or congestive form, arising from obstruction, congestion or torpidity of the liver. When I say that Dr. Leslie's

HEADACHE

SPECIAL

Prescription will cure the most obstinate cases of Sick Headache, I mean just what I say, and that is, that it not merely relieves but cures, no matter how long the case may have been standing.

POSITIVELY

I have testimonials from persons who have been afflicted for twenty years, being confined to bed two or three days at a time every two weeks, that have been permanently cured by two bottles of Dr. Leslie's Special so that they have not had an attack for over five years.

PRESCRIPTION

If you are troubled with Sick Headache and wish to be

be sure and give this remedy a trial. PRICE, $1.00.
