A Fine Collection of Curiosities. m the Oxford Press.

A neighbor of Simpson Preston, of Point A neighbor of Simpson Preston, of Point Lookout, Lancaster county, informs us that he was recently well pleased and surprised on visiting his residence a short time ago to find there such a fine display of curiosities brought from the islands of the sea, from South America and elsewhere, by his son, E. Darwin Preston, who recently returned home from South where, by his son, E. Darwin Preston, who recently returned home from South America. Among the collection are some of the very handsomest specimens of coral and sea urchins he ever saw. Also a number of very fine photographic views on the Sandwich Island, in the Southern Pacific ocean, of the mountains on them and of the volcano Mauna Loa in active cruption. Mr. Preston was a member of the United States government surveying party which visited these islands two years ago to take observations of a total eclipse of the sun. Among the views is one of the Caroline islands which appears only as a fringe of palm trees in the vaste of water surrounding them. There are also views of Lima and other South and Central American cities, which are very interesting.

WHAT THE MARDE IS DOING.

The Italian commander at Massowah has inken extraordinary precautions to prevent treason among the natives. He has received reports that El Mahdi has been sending emissaries into Massowah. Hostile Arabs last night again stole up to the British camp during the darkness and attacked a sikh (Indian) sentry, stabbing him to death.

The Independence Belge, of Brussels, announced in a dispatch from its correspondent at Rome that Italy will undertake the relief of Kassala. The correspondent says that plans for the necessary campaign have been completed by the general staff of the Italian army and forwarded to Massowah.

A dispatch from Suakin says that the Mahommedan native troops from India who are now assembled there unanimously repudiate El Mahdi. They say that he is not even a Moslem and they are disgusted with his pretensions to be considered the successor of the prophets They believe him to be immensely elated with the idea of a war between England and Russia on the frontiers of India, but they state that in the event of such a war being declared every native regiment in India could be doubled or trebled by volunteers determined to resist Russian invasion to the death.

Fire Extinguished by City Employe There was a slight fire in the green house in the rear of Adam Landis' house, near the city mill, between 8 and 9 o'clock on Wednesday night. Word was sent to the employes at the water works, near by, they attached the city hose to the plug of the water works and extinguished the flames before much damage was done. Willam Heline, the engineer, and William Fisher, the fireman, were the city employes who extinguished the fire.

A Minister Who is Mistaken for State From the Mt Joy Starand News. Rev. J. T. Shaffer, lately appointed pastor of the United Brethren church, bears a close of the United Brethren church, bears a close resemblance to Congressman John A. Hiestand. He has several times been taken for Rivivalist Moody and once for President Garfield. All our renders who do not per-sonally know him, may judge from this, that his appearance ranks high.
