Begun to Practice.

As will be seen by an advertisement in another column, Dr. Roscoe Murphy, one of the graduates of this year's class at the Pennsylvania College of Dental Surgery, has begun the practice of his profession in the office of Dr. H. D. Knight

Fine Line Bob, Roan, Chestnut Sorrel, Jet Black, Bay, Mahogany Bay, Dark Brown and Sorrel horses, Bay Ponies, buggies, carriages, wagons, sleighs, harness, robes, &c., will be sold at Colvin's sale, March 16.

Sale To-night.

A large number of building lots and dwellings, principally in the northern and northeastern section of the city, belonging the estate of George Shulmyer, deceased, will be offered at public sale at the Cooper house, at 7 o'clock this evening.

READ the handsome bills posted up giving a description of property to be sold at Colvin's livery on March 16th.

ON March 16th the public will have an opportunity seldom offered to purchase a fine outfit at Colvin's sale.

IF you are in want of a fine driving horse, double team, or wagon of any kind, attend Colvin's sale on March 16.

Amusements.

Harris' Mammoth Opera Company.—The members of the Harris opera company will arrive in Lancaster at 12:53 Monday afternoon. They will appear in the opera house in the evening in "Olivette," and give a different opera at every subsequent performance during the week. "Girofle-Girofla," "Chimes of Normandy," and other favorites are included in their repertoire. This is the second year of the company's existence.

Another Race on Rollers.—Charles Sener, Frank Heline and Val. Hoffman, three ambitious boys, are going to have a race at the Maennerchor rink this evening, to determine which of them shall be awarded a season ticket.

Don't forget Monday, March 16. On that day the entire stock and fixtures of Colvin's livery stable, consisting of the finest stock of horses, robes, &c., in the city, will be sold at public sale.
