Notes About Town.

Again are teams to be seen driving on the e-covered Susquehanna. A course has been id out between the dam and bridge, and way trotters dash over its smooth surface a caution. The ice on the course was first unded, and ranged in thickness from 13 schee to, weil, the bed of the river.

The display of spring goods by our merchants is not only very large but exceedingly fine.

A cake of ice 8 feet long, 3 feet wide and 27 inches thick and as clear as crystal has been cut from the canal outlet at Wrightsville, by a merchant of that borough and placed in front of his store as a curiosity.

FRENCH INTRIGUES.

The Real Origin of the Central America some action on the part of this gov-ernment to protect its interests and ted with the warlike movements of Pres ident Barrios, and attributed both to the inspiration and instigation of the French. We'll have to take a hand in this matter sooner or later, said the admiral, and in my opinion the sooner the better. It is for this reason that I am so desirous of sending to the seat of troubles all the vessels that we can muster, and have suggested that we can muster, and have suggested that the Tallapoosa, Dispatch and Dolphin all be performed to be walked over to join my squadron. I want to show them that we have some vessels and do not intend to be walked over rough shod. The French are going to do everything in their power to prevent the construction of any canal but the Panama canal, and in my opinion Barrios' movements are not made of his own accord, but you will find the French at the bottom of it. They will stay at the bottom until the time to come to the top and then they'll come, and we had better look cut. Now look at that Fanama canal; the French have spent millions and intend to spend millions more, and they do not intend that it should be wasted. To this end they have secured the ownership of nearly the whole of the Panama railroad, and on that ittle strip of land, less than fifty miles wide, they have massed 15,000 workmen. Do you suppose that there are no French army officers on the Isthmus of Panama among those workmen, and do you suppose that tevery more we make, or rather that we don't make workmen, and do you suppose that every move we make, or rather that we don't make is not known in France immediately? If you do you are mistaken, and it won't be a great while before you will find out your mistake." A Posteffice Clerk Who Doubts His Luck.

W. L. Lawrence, a clerk in the mailing department of the Chicago postoffice, has received letters from a sister in Rochester, N. ig him that he is one of 149 heirs to English estate valued at $180,000,000. Ac-ciding to these letters the Lawrences are a such of an old English family named Town-As the story goes, his great-grandfather bis mother's side was William Townley, by son of Lord Townley, of Townley Hall. Hism fell in love with his mother's waiting Alliam fell in love with his mother's waiting aid and eloped with her to America, leaving a heritage behind. He was killed in one of a battles of the Revolution. He left two as Boas Huntley Townley and Samuel ownley, and the Lawrences are descendants the latter. Mr. Lawrence is not inclined to at much faith in the story, thinking that be to the minds of unrupulous lawyers who wish to get fat fees rlocking into the matter. view with him published in the Lancaster INTELLICENCER. We reproduce below one paragraph taken from the same, as commending liself to the consideration of every young man. It is the doctor's recipe for prolonging life. "Regularity, moderation and punctuality are great helps to success. Even the life of a physician, who is supposed to be necessarily irregular, can be guided by these principles. Except in extraordinary cases, I have seldom missed my meals or kept them waiting. I have used and administered the least possible quantity of spirituous liquors I have tried to be prompt with all professional engagements, and my experience suggests the advice to young men of regularity and punctuality."

Mad as a Fighting Cock.
From the Columbia Herald.
Two lively "cocking mains" were fought Two lively "cocking mains" were fought on Friday night at a point near York (not near Columbia, as the Examiner would have its readers believe), and the Lancaster papers devote two or three columns to an interesting (?) review, in their respective issues of the following day. There is little use for moralizing on the evils of flash literature when two such respectable journals as the INTELLIGENCER and Examiner pander to the vitiated tastes of the black-leg and bully, by reporting their doings under flaming headlines.

Who Will Take It? There is now fifty dollars at Geo. Kreiner's usquehanna fish market, Water street, await ing any person who will post a like amount that there has not been a shad in Lancaste caught in the Susquehanna this season. The parties who have the money posted claim that the river is full of ice and in some places frozen to the bottom and that there will not be a shad caught in the Susquehanna for a month, notwithstanding the fish story published in the New Era last evening.

5 years, has been the faithful watchman at the Myerstown bank. On Monday, while on duty at the bank, he was attacked with asthma, and was rendered helpless, so that when the bank officials came around the next morning to commence business he could not open the doors. Crowbars were procured, and the iron grating in front of the window torn away with great difficulty, when an entrance was effected.

The Reiner Robbery. The complaint was made against Zell before Alderman Deen. It is thought that there were others present when the robbery was committed and the policemen are on the lookout for the suspected parties.

Killed at Glen Rock. Scott Wilson, aged 21, unmarried, formerly a resident of Woodberry, Md., but employed at Glen Rock, was killed at the latter place at 70 clock Wednesday evening. Stepping from the track to avoid a southbound train, he was struck by an engine coming north. The coroner held an inquest.

Ehrhart Winterhalter, arrested on Wed nesday evening by Officer Messenkop, on a charge of larceny preferred by John Utzin-ger. The allegation is that accused stole a coat from Utzinger. In default of bail he was committed for a hearing by Alderman Barr.

Prosecuted for Neglect of Duty. Martin Bleecher called at Barr's office on Wednesday afternoon, and entered complaint against Gordon Armstrong and Alexander Hemperly, supervisor of Martic township, for neglect of duty. The alderman sent the warrants for their arrest to the constable of the township to execute.

Sent Out. Lewis Getz, a colored man, charged with frunkenness and disorderly conduct at the Stock Yard hotel, was heard by Alderman Barr this morning and committed to the county prison for five days.

from the Texas Siftings. house servant. They are very confidential with Tiff and tell him all about their private affairs. A tew days ago Pete winked mysteriously at Tiff, and, taking him off to one side, said to him: "Mr. Johnsing, I wants ter confide a great secret ter yer." "What is it, Pete?" "I'se got a notion ter ask Swayback Lucy ter marry me." "Do you think she reciprocates your affection?" "What did yer say she did?" "Do you think she loves you as much as you do her?" "Dat's what I 'spicious." "Do you think she loves you as much as you do her?" "Dat's what I 'spicious." "Did she tell you so?" "No; but she mout jess as well hab tole me so. When she was goin' fru de yard I punched her wid a pitchfork, and she said, 'G'way, yer black nigger. I doan want ter hab yer about me.' I tells yer, Mr. Johnsing, dat when a woman tells yer to go 'way she wants yer ter stay right dar. Dey am de contrariest critters in de world." "So you think that is a symptom of love, do you?" "I does, sah, for a fae." Shortly afterward another negro woman heard Swayback Lucy singing away for dear life in the yard, as happy as a bird. "What's de matter wid you?" "I tells yer, Aunt Sukey, I believes Pete Jackson wants ter marry me." "Has he done tole yer so?" "No; but he mout jess well hab tole me so. He punched me wid de pitchfork. I tells yer dat means sumfin."
