The river is now nearly clear of ice from Harrisburg'to Columbia. The space between the dam and the bridge contains but little Ice, and that lies along the shores. But above the bridge to the tunnel there is a great quantity of ice Indeed in some places there are acres of it. Against nearly every plen, on the north side, there are huge piles of ice and snow, which reach to the wood work of the bridge at many points. A large cap stone on the fourth pier from the Wrightsville side has been lifted from its place and several boards of the bridge have beer broken.

Trying to Form a New French Ministry.

M. de Freycinet has resumed his task of forming a new French ministry. He expects to conclude the work soon. It is now stated M. de Freycinet will act as minister of the interior in the new cabinet, and that the post of minister of foreign affairs, which had been occupied by M. Jules Ferry, will be filled by the present French ambassador to Germany, Baron de Courcel.

Baron de Courcel.

M. de Freycinet has failed to secure the adhesion of the Clemenceau section, as he insists upon a thoroughgoing war policy. It is reported that General Campenon has refused to accept a portfolio in the new cabinet unless the French operations in Tonquin be confined to the Red river delta. M. de Freycinet submitted to President Grevy the following partial list of ministers: M. de Freycinet, president of the council and minister of the interior; Baron de Courcel, minister of foreign affairs; M. Floquet, minister of justice; M. Spuller, minister of public instruction; the Duke d'Auerstadt, minister of war; Rear Admiral Aube, minister of marine.

Patent for Improvement in Trucks.

A patent has been granted Mr. Henry Martin of this city, dated March 31st, 1885, and numbered — for an improvement in trucks. This truck is intended more particularly for hauling fresh bricks from the place at which they are moulded to the drying ground or shed, and the novelty consists in attaching the frames, which carry the bricks, to the truck frame by a spring at one end and a hinge at the other, the upper one being sup-ported by uprights and hinged so that it can be opened by raising one end to permit the loading of the lower frame. This patent was secured through Wm. R. Gerhart, solicitor of patents, of this city.

closely watched by three anxious-looking policemen and a score of "old citisena." The fellow, who was above middle age, wore a stove-pipe hat and was well-dressed. It seemed that the dynamite which he had been drinking only effected the upper part of his body. From the waist upward he was very crooked, and his head assemed inclined to go down South Queen street. His legs showed wonderful service, however, and kept his feet upon one row of Belgian blooks across to the telegraph office. His progress was slow, but his lower limbs kept him straight, and he passed up East King street anfely, to the amusement of those on the street and the diagust of the policemen, who were very anxious to have him make a noise. The sight was very funny, and the man was shaped more like a Creacent than an April visitor, but it is safe to bet that he got to his destination safely with those sensible legs.

Cured of His-Disease by Falth.

The friends of Miss Mable Wood, a daughter of Reuben Wood, Syracuse N. Y., were much surprised to see her on the street on Wednesday, apparently in good health. About a year ago she fell from a hammock which brought on hip-disease. She has suffered greatly ever since and for the last three months has been confined to her bed. Her aunt, Miss Olive Wood, of Chicago, believes in the faith cures, and for several weeks she has made her niece's condition a subject for prayer. The patient finally was able to leave her bed and walk with crutches. C. H. Woodworth heard of the case and called on Miss Wood to pray with her. He said that it was wrong for her to use her crutches instead of leaving everything to the Lord. She then threw the crutches saide and in a day or two began to walk about the house unaided. She astonished every one by attending the First Baptist church on Sunday. Miss Wood says that it was entirely a faith cure.

The Examiner assures its readers that the Lancaster club will be ably managed, and that there will no longer be any animosity between rival clubs; all of which remains to be seen.
