AN INCENDIARY FIRE.

no Dwelling House in Willow

Prame Dwelling House in Willow Street Goes Up in Smoke. ast night a frame one-story dwelling ise, belonging to Emanuel K. Stettler, and inted in Willow Street, was destroyed by The building was completed by airs, voler. The family were in bed when the was discovered by Michael Groff, who hre was discovered by Michael Groff, who was passing. They were awakened and eas-ily escaped from the house. Nearly all the household goods were saved. The fire broke out in the rear of the house and it was un-doubtedly the work of an incendiary. Al-though there had been fire in that part during he day there was none after 4 o'clock in the formoon. The building was fully insured. Mrs. Daveler loses a small lot of furniture.

Alarm Caused by a Smoking Chimney. Last night about 9 o'clock, box 52, corner of Poplar and Filbert streets, struck an alarm of fire. The fireman responded, but on arriv-ing discovered that the alarm had been ing discovered that the aiarm had been sounded on account of a chimney that was smoking badly in the neighborhood. Owing to the whipping of the wires on St. Joseph street, and some disarrangement of the ground wires, the apparatus did not work well, and the chief and his assistants were some hours in making the necessary re-nairs.

ER. LIATILIA DECOVERSIO. ision of Their

Assiliants' Identity. A gentleman who on Sunday visited the family of Mr. Edward M. Linville, of Salis-bury, who was robbed and, as was for a time supposed, mortally wounded by robbers on the 22d of March, found Mr. Linville improv-ing rapidly, being now able to walk about, but unable to do any work. His sister, Miss Linville, still bears the marks of the rufflans' hands many here the set and arms.

Linville, still bears the marks of the ruffians' hands upon her throat and arms. The story in circulation that the suspicions of the Linville's pointed to certain parties as being the robbers, and that there was some evidence against them has no foundation. Miss Linville says that after her brother had been shot and was supposed to be dy-ing, and the robbers demanded the money, she promptly gave them all there was in the house about $73, and then one of them said, "where is the money you re-ceived for your wheat ?" She replied, "you are a day too early for that; the money is at the Gap." Being unable by threats to secure any more booty the robbers left, as has been heretofore stated.

A MIXED FAMILY AFFAIR.

Father and Daughters Against Mother and Sons-A Sad Story From Salisbury. Martin D. Hess and wife, of Bethania, Salis bury township, through family difficulties separated. Three daughters sided with the father, while the same number of sons cast their fortunes with the mother. Shortly after the separation the sons went to the house and the separation the sons went to the house and took away some of the furniture, but not until they had overcome the opposition of the father and three daughters. The result of the difficulty was quite a large number of suits before Justice A. Fleming Slaymaker and on Saturday he returned the following cases to court : Henry Hess and Peter Hess, for assault and battery and threatening to do great bodily harm to their father Martin D. Hess, and their three sisters and George Eckert for assault and battery on the same parties. Eckert is a neighbor and friend of the boys and got into the difficulty through his aiding the boys in their effort to take away some of the household goods.

An Incorrigible Boy. Complaint was made last week before

Alderman Fordney against Heary Fisher, of Colmbia, for being incorrigible and beyond control of his grandmother, Mary E. Weaver, with whom he makes his home. The boy's mother is dead and thefather had him placed in the Home for Friendless Children. The grand-mother had him indentured to her, and for some years he has made his home with her. During the past two years he has been be-having very badly, associating with idle boys, Staying out all night and refusing to work. Officer Wittick arrested the boy this morning and brought him to this city. Alder-man fordney heard the case this afternoon, and he committed the boy for a hearing be-fore Judges Livingston and Patterson, with a view of sending him to the House of Refuge. levy of four mills, together with balances paid over from the former supervisors, is $2,760.46, which leaves the township short in the sum of $43.79, with very bad roads. The roads south of the "Valley Road" cost the taxpayers over $500 more than those northe of the valley. The way school houses have been let, Frank Atabouse taking them both, at $1,392 for Mt. Pleasant and $1,439 for George-town.

Supposed to be Horse Thieves.

Frank and Mathern O'Hagan were arrested at Columbia on Saturday evening, on suspicion of being horse thieves. They arrived in that borough late on Friday night, and on in that borough late on Friday night, and on Saturday they acted so suspiciously that Officer Wittick arrested and Justice Evans committed them to the county prison. They had in their possession a bay horse, good buggy and silver-mounted harness. They claimed to belong to Straaburg, but could not tell the names of any of the residents of that borough. They will be held until inquiries can be made if a team answering the descrip-tion of the above was stolen. tion of the above was stole

BARTROVARS IN SHE LOWER MED. ecial to the INTELLOBRCHE. QUARRYVILLE, April 13.-About 9:50 -

QUARRYVILLE, April 13.—About 9:80 a. m. to-day, a very severe shock of earthquake was felt,; and from accounts the phenomenon was manifested throughout the entire neigh-borhood. The windows of all the houses, crockery in cupboards and on shelves, the machinery in Herr's warehouse, shovels in Hensel'ghardware store were violently ratted and plainly moved. Persons driving along the road suddenly stopped; and everybody in the village heard the report and felt the vibration sensibly.

Collection of State and County Tax.

Robbed of Cash.

Robbed of Cash. On Wednesday evening a man who gave his name as Bradley, and representing him-self to be interested in a telegraph company, stopped at the house of Mrs. Sallie Murphy, below Penn Hill, Fulton township, over night. Mrs. Murphy had received some money the day before and laid it upon her burean. The next morning Bradley disappeared, soon after breakfast, and the money, about $23, was also missing. There is no doubt that the telegraph man got away with it.

Another Charge Against Kahoe.

John Kahoe, who is now in jail on charges of forgery, will likely have as many charges of forgery, will likely have as many charges against him as Herzog when full develop-ments have been made. This morning another complaint was entered against him by Elim Charles, of Wakefield, before Alder-man Spurrier. It appears that Kahoe gave Charles a note for $62 to which he forged the name of his mother, Elizabeth Kahoe.

Police Cases Conrad Halbine, arrested on complain t o Martin Rush, charged with the larceny of household goods, will have a hearing before Alderman McGlinn this evening at 9 o'clock. George Smith, arrested on complaint of his wife for assault and battery and surety of the peace, will have a hearing to-morrow at 7 p. m., at Alderman McGlinn's. Albert Bemis, ar-rested on complaint of George Smith for assaulting him in his own house, will have a hearing at the same time and place.

A Deserted Village.

For the last 50 years there have been very tensive mines of iron ore worked about own, Clernarvon township, from which one of tons of iron ore have been shipped. the mines have finally become exhausted and the companies have abandoned them and the companies have abandoned them, never expecting to resume operations again. The machinery has either been removed or let go down. When these mines were in op-cariton they afforded employment for a great many men. Stores and other enterprises were started, but these are now gradually dying out, and the place somewhat resembles an oil village which flourished in the palmy days of oil excitement, finally decaying when the source of its prosperity had vanished.

When he turned up on West King street, be When he turned up on West King street, be-low Water, he laid down his satchel at differ-ent points, but was unable to dispose of his other load so easily, and began singing. The people in the neighborhood, becoming tired of his bad music, made complaint against him before Alderman McConomy. He was arrested and locked up by Officers Winower and Weaver. On the way to the station house he showed fight and kicked and bit at the officers, but did not injure them.

Decoyed to Be Assaulted and Robbed

On last Thursday night two negroes called at the farmhouse of Wm. A. Palmer, on the Rappahannock river, in Middlesex county, Virginia, and told him that his aunt, living Virginia, and told him that his aunt, living five miles distant, was ill and desired to see him. Mr. Palmer started toward the stable to get his horse when the negroes knocked him senseless with a club. After taking $165 from his pocket they carried him into the house and set fire to the building. A younger brother, who was sleeping up stairs, was awakened by smoke and ran down stairs. Near the door he fell over his brother and dragged him from the house. The building was destroyed. The assailants are unknown.

St. Anthony's Catholic church was crowded at the 9 o'clock mass on Sunday morning, the occasion being the interesting ceremonies of a class of boys and girls receiving first of a class of boys and girls receiving first communion. The class numbered ten boys and fifteen girls. The altar was handsomely decorated in honor of the event. At this mass Father Kaul preached a sermon, parti-cularly applicable to the young folks who were about to receive holy communion, giving them advice, which if followed will make them true members of the church and good citizens.

Arrested for Disorderly Conduct. Fred. Maulick was arrested on Saturday afternoon by Officer Bushong for disorderly conduct. He, with a number of boys, were conduct. He, with a number of boys, were playing ball on the grounds attached to St. Mary's church, and refused to leave when ordered away. As the sexton of the church has been greatly annoyed by boys breaking windows and acting in a disorderly manner, he decided to make an example of Maulick, and he had him locked up at the station house. After an incarceration of a few hours he was discharged on his promise not to again annoy the sexton.

At the Station House

The mayor disposed of thirteen cases this morning. Tweive of that number were lodgers and were discharged. The thirteenth was a man found wandering on the streets by Officer Cramer last evening.
