HANGED TO A FLAGSTAFF. errible Fate of a Lawyer Who Was Sai

two o'clock on Thursday morning a mob of about twenty-five men came from the eastern part of the county and, taking James B. Bell, a lawyer, of Harrold, Dakota, from the jail, hanged him to the flagstaff of the court house. The offense was the murder of Forest G. Small, a lawyer, formerly of Ster-ling, Ill., on December 4 last. The mob ling, Ill., on December 4 last. The mob gained easy access to the jail because the locks and bars were worthless. No such movement being anticipated, there was no guard in the jail and the jailer and his deputy, who slept in the building, were corraled in their room. The lynchers did not take more than fifteen minutes to do their work, at the end of which time the sheriff arrived from the hotel and cut down the victim, the mob dispersing at his approach. Bell was still alive when cut down, but his heart ceased to beat soon afterwards. So hastily was the lynching done that the victim's arms were not pinioned and, as the mob heard the ringing of the telephone, they hastened their work by pulling on his body, which hung only a couple of feet from the ground.

The leaders of the mob were from Harrold received accessions in Blunt, leaving the er place at dark in all manner of vehicles, latter place at dark in all manner of vehicles, the last of them arriving an hour or more too late. Deputy Sheriff Chase left Blunt half an hour in advance of the mob, but losing his way on a piece of burnt prairie only got to the sheriff when the crowd arrived at the jail and too late to raise a posse. When Bell was seized he cried "murder" three times before his voice was stifled and once more when the rope was put over his head. No attempt was made to molest his confessed accomplice, Bennett, who was in the jail when they came through. The lynchers were provided with two ropes: already prepared. The district court is in session and the case was before the grand jury with a probability of indictment, but the term being necessarily short it was feared that the case would have to be continued and Bell would escape justice.

feared that the case would have to be continued and Bell would escape justice.

The proof of his guilt and the enormity of crime have accumulated since the discovery of Small's body and each new detail of atrocity in connection with the commission of the crime increased the popular indignation. Had not the town been alarmed by telephoning to every public place, Bennett would undoubtedly have suffered a similar death.

Equal to the Emergency. From the New York Sun.

A wild-eved man entered a Chatham street pawnshop and wished to see some pistols. "I sell you dot pistol for two dollar," said the

"I'll take it. Load it up, and before another sunrise I'll put an end to my miserable existence."
"Vat? You shoot yourselluf mit dot pistol?"

"Yes," said the wild-eyed man desperately.
"Mr. Isaacstein," called the clerk to the proprietor in the back room, "der shentlemans vants a two-dollar pistol to kill himselluf mit. Vat shall I do?."
"Sharge him five dollar."

A Bright Spring Morning. From Charles Dickens.

"What man is there over whose mind a bright spring morning does not exercise a magic influence—carrying him back to the days of his childish sports and conjuring up before him the old green fields with its gently waving trees, where the birds sang as he has never heard them since—where the butterfly fluttered far more gaily than he ever sees him now in all his ramblings—where the sky seemed bluer and the sun shone more brightly—where the air blew more freshly over greener grass and sweeter smelling flowers—where everything wore a richer and more brilliant hue than i is dressed in now!"

High-Priced Legislation.

The legislature reached the end of its bundred days on Wednesday, with a record of thirteen bills passed finally, two of which have been vetoed and one recalled to prevent a veto. The session has cost the tax-payers in the neighborhood of three hundred thou-sand dollars.

Letter from Assemblyman Hoag. STATE OF NEW YORK ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, ALBANY, April 13, 1883. During my temporary residence here the past winter I contracted a severe cold, which for a time confined me to my room and rendered me unfit to attend to my duties. I not only suffered all the inconveniences which usually attend a heavy cold, but was afflicted with a tightness in the chest, accompanied with a severe pain which made breathing difficult and rest impos which made breathing dimentiant rest impos-ble. I tried the usual remedies—cough drops, cough cordials, &c., but received no substantial relief until I applied Allcock's Porous Plasters on my back and chest.

These I put on when retiring, and was de-lighted to find myself much better the next morning. In two days I was well. This, and the experience I have had with Allcock's Plasters in my family has convinced me that for coughs, oilds, sprains, bruises, rheumatism and local pains, Allcock's Porous Plasters are the quick-est and most effective remedy extant, JOHN HOAG.

" Home Sweet Home,". This song is very good in its way, but is there any sickness in the household? If so, home cannot be always pleasant. We take especial pleasare in recommending Burdock Blood Bitters, a bona fide and certain cure for dyspepsia, and all diseases of the liver and kidneys. For sale by H. B. "I feel new. I was afflicted with sick head ache and general debility, but Burdock Blood Bitters brought about an immediate improvement in my general health. I consider them the best family medicine in the market." Adolph Laloz, Buffalo, N. Y. Forsale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 129 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Kicked Out How many people there are who are struggling to rise in this world that are kicked down and out by envious rivals. Thomas' Eelectric Oil never "kicked out" its patrons. It is true bine. For throat affections, asthma and catarris it is a certain and rapid cure. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 157 and 128 North Queen street, Lancaster. SPECIAL NOTICES.

When the nerves are unstrung, the head aches, the appetite is poor or variable, the sleep disturbed, and ageneral depreciation of vital power is experienced. Such a state of things cannot long exist without a development of serious disease. The most active and genial invigorant known is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The absolute purity of its spirituous basis and botanic ingredients give it a permanent claim to public solute purity of its spirituous basis and botanic ingredients give it a permanent claim to public confidence, and its surpassing medicinal value is admitted by medical men of distinction, by whom it is widely used in private practice. For fever and ague—both as a preventive and remedy—dyspepsis, liver complaint, billous remittent fever, constipation, choleraic complaints, flatulence and all intestinal disorders, it is a thoroughly reliable remedy. It is the antifely rile specific par excellence of the malarial districts of this and other countries, where disease born of miasma prevail, and as a general household remedy it is also universally esfeemed.

One of my children, a girl about nine years old, had a very bad discharge from her head and nose of a thick, yellowish matter, and was growing worse. We had two different physicians pre-scribe for her, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise in three days there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was apparently cured.—O. A, Housed Up.

For the last three months a great many people have been housed up, because they have not felt able to withstand the stormy wintry weather that has prevailed. But unfortunately the con-finement and the close air of modern houses during the winter season, is very enervating, and the system needs help to enable all the organs to do their proper work. If these organs have been inactive the consequences are showing themselves in the billious condition of the system, er in constipation of the bowels, or in disorders of the kidneys, with all the aches and cathetic accordance. pains that accompany these complaints. If you are in this condition from any cause you should make a faithful trial of that well-known remedy Kidney-Wort. It acts at the same time on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and is therefore especially fitted to correct this torpid condition

Some Strong-Minded Women
