Stealing a Watch and Pin—Dangerous Tramps.
Robbing a Till.
William H. Kirk, boarding at Mrs. Rutter's, o's North Prince street, was robbed of a watch and breast-pin last night, under the following circumstances: While Kirk was in the parlor asleep, Oliver Sammis, also a boarder, slipped into the parlor, took Kirk's tch from his vest pocket and a breast pia from his shirt. As soon as Mr. Kirk awoke house and reported the robery. Chief Haines and Officer Weaver started out to search for the thief. The chief after satisfyany of the regular trains, went to the cut-east of the city to make inquiries whether boarded a freight train at that point, while Officer Weaver made inquiries as to whether he had boarded a west-bound train. This officer had the telegraph operator at the tower to send a message to Columbia, and the dispatch was received by the train master at the east yard. He made a search for the fugitive, finally found him between two freight cars, and took him to the Columbia station house. The wath was columbia station house. The watch was found on him, but the breast-pin could not be found. Sammis was wearing, when arrested, an overcoat also stolen from the boarding house. Officer Weaver brought the prisoner to this city on the 9 o'clock train and in default of ball he was committed to the prisoner to this city on the 9 o'clock train and in default of bail he was committed to the county prison for a hearing by Alderman Fordner. Sammis has only been a resident of this exy for a few months, and during that time was employed as a bar-tender at several of our lotels and restaurants. He was discharged every place on account of his bad character for truth - telling, and of late has been raddling cheese.

At non to-day, Andrew Rutter made com-plaint sgainst Sammis, charging him with stealing the overcoat, which was found on him when arrested.

ramps Who Need Suppression.

Last sight while the family of Mr. George M. Reyholds, who resides on Orange street between Lime and Shippen, were at supper, there wis a sharpring at the door bell. The servant went to the front door, where she was confronted by a big, dirty-looking tramp, was confronted by a big, dirty-looking tramp, who demanded lodging for the night. The girl tole him they could not keep him, but he instand upon remaining, and, finally, draw a large knife from his pocket. The girl ran, servuning to the back part of the house, and infermed the family of what had happened. Mr. Reynolds went to the front door an the tramp moved away. Mr. Reynolds then secured Officer Cramer, who took the fellow into custody. About this time a one-tramed tramp went to the home of George M. Kline, esq., and began abusing and making threats against the family. Officer Cramer took him into custody also. At the lock ip the men gave their names as John Bullivar and Martin Tint. A large knife was found upon Tint, the man who had been to Reynolds' house. After the men had been in the station house some time, a drunken woman, who said she was Tint's wife, went to the station house and became very noisy. She wa also locked up, and this morning the mayor sent them all to jail for 30 days each. Dall and chain would be splendid orname to for their legs.

The extern section of the city seems to be popular with burglars and sneak thieves intely, and the citizens are pretty tired of it. Housek epers should see that their doors are securely locked overy night, and that there is a stor. of ammunition on band. The police were notified about the recent robberies in asveral fouses, but they have done nothing. If a good detective or an officer, possessed of a head, would take an interest in the cases, the guilty parties could be brought to justice, Meanwhile the citizens will do well to protect thereselves against house-breakers.

Robbed a Till.

Some time last night thieves entered the blacksmith shop of George M. Steinman & Co., in the rear of their store on West King treet, troke open a box, took a bit therefrom, and will the latter succeeded in opening the box near the elevator in the rear part of the tore. They obtained the contents of the till, few dollars, and fled.

THENTY-TWO BIG GOOSE EGGS.

These Were the Prizes that Lancaster Drew While in Philadelphia.

If the Lancaster base ball club does not do better work in the Eastern League than they manifest in exhibition games, they will have a very poor show for a place at the end of the wassen. Yesterday they went to Philadelphia. season. Yesterday they went to Philadel phia and played the league team at Recrea tion park. About 500 people were present and the Lancaster boys made a miserable showing. Notan pitched for the home team and he allowed the visitors to make but two hits. Manager Wright enforced the league rules and Wetzell was obliged to pitch with his feet down. He was unable to do good work, and was batted for sixteen hits, with a total of nineteen. The playing of the Lan-caster infielders was very bad and the whole team had no less than nineteen errors.

While the other clubs in the Eastern League are surprising the people by their fine work the Lancaster is astonishing every one by their poor playing. The club will have to do better if they expect people of this city to go to see them play. The folks interested in the club are aware of this and if the nine is weak anywhere it should be strengthened before the championship season opens. The score of yesterday's game was:

he had a final stroke a few days ago.

Mr. Rutter was a blacksmith by trade and followed it for many years. He also kept the Nine Points and Green Tree hotels in Bart township for several years. He bought the farm in Sadsbury township on which his son John pow lives, and farmed it for many years, and afterwards bought another farm in Bart near Cooper's factory where he lived about four years. Subsequently he removed to the village of Smyrna, where he died as above stated.

Mr. Rutter was an honest, upright man, highly esteemed by his neighbors. His wife, a sister of Brisbin Skiles, survives him, as do his sons John and James, and his daughters Mrs. Steinbaugh and Mrs. Keeler. His son George died some years ago. Mr. Skiles was dren's Home, Tuesday afternoon, when Christ Deen was almost killed in a trench. Evarts & Overdeer have the contract for putting in a private sewer at the Home, and they have a number of men employed. Deen and John Gorman were at work near together in the trench, which was 12 feet deep, when the bank caved in. Gorman saw the dan when the bank caved in. Gorman saw the danger and attempted to get away, but his legs were caught in the dirt. His injuries were slight. Deen was not so lucky, and he was covered with three feet of dirt. For fifteen minutes the other men worked before they succeeded in uncovering him, and during all that time they could hear his piteous cries for help. It was found that a large clod of earth had failed upon his breast and it protected his head. He was removed to his home in Middle street, where Dr. Musser attended him.—He was found to have several ribs broken and to be severely injured internally. It is believed, however, that he will recover. Deen is a poor man and has a large family of small children. He has been idle all win-ter and only secured this job last week.

CAME A LITTLE LATE.

The Disbar ment of William C. Coxey for Pension Irregularities.

A telegram from Washington states that Wm. C. Coxey, of Lancaster, has been dis-barred from practicing before the interior department of the government, because of his having exacted exorbitant fees from applicants for pensions. More than a year ago plicants for pensions. More than a year ago Mr. Coxey was prosecuted and tried before the United States district court at Philadelphia and although it was shown that excessive fees had been taken, he escaped conviction, a strong feature of the detense being previous good character and ignorance of the law regulating fees. The trial cost Mr. Coxey a good deal of money, and atter his acquittal, we are told, he entirely gave up the pension business, and opened a grocery store at No. 523 Poplar street, this city. His disbarment, therefore, comes a little late, though it is likely that his case has not until now reached the chief of the interior department.

He Does Not Want to Hesign. On Monday, Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller, telegraphed W. E. Craig, collector of the Third district, at Staunton Va., that by direction of the secretary of the treasury his resignation was requested. Mr. Craig replied, asking by what authority the Craig replied, asking by what authority the secretary of the treasury had made such a request, and for what cause it had been made. Commissioner Miller telegraphed that the resignation was requested because it was understood in Washington that Craig was simply awaiting such request to tender it. As Mr. Craig had given no intimation of an intention to resign it was concluded that the commissioner's action was based on false representations made at the internal revenue department. There has been no further development in the matter. Mr. Craig still holds the office.
