A MILLIONAIRE CONVICT.

Milton Weston, the Chicago Capitalist, Ser tenced to Five Years' Imprisonment.
Milton Weston, the millionaire Chicago capitalist, who was convicted of complicity in the riots of the Murraysville gas well, eighteen months ago, when Superintendent Haymaker, of the Pennsylvania fuel company, met his death, was brought into the Pittsburg court on Saturday to hear Judge Bailey's decision on the application for a new trial. The court stated briefly that he had considered the case fully and was convinced sentence was passed Mr. Weston's counsel read letters from several prominent gentlemen in Chicago and New York, one of them a judge, commending the prisoner as a man of excellent character. Weston had nothing to say himself before being sentenced, simply stating that his counsel had expressed themselves for him. The court then imposed a sentence of five years to the penitentiary.

Mr. Weston received the sentence with remarkable composure and followed a dentry herifl quietly from the room afterwards. He was taken to the penitentiary, but as the case goes to the supreme court an application will be made at once to some of the judges of that court to have him admitted to bail pending disposition of the case. Michael Haymaker, a beather of the mass whereas willed a brother of the man who was killed, was present. The riots, it will be remembered, were the result of a dispute as to the owner-ship of the big gas well at Murraysville, Haymaker's party had possession and the Weston party attempted to oust them and the riot followed.

The bride and groom were betrothed sixteen years ago, but, owing to opposition by the lady's parents, the nuptials were not celebra-brated, and separating, she knew nothing of his whereabouts for thirteen years. In 1872 he married another lady in Humboldt, Kan. In 1882 she died in Sigourney, Ia., exacting from her husband a promise that if he married again it should be to his first love, if possible. Subsequently, writing from Mexico, he found his present wife unmarried, and the sequel indicates her fidelity.

Alternately Shaken and Scorched.

By the paroxysms of chills and fever, the wretched sufferer for whom quinins has been prescribed, essays in vain to exterminate the dreadful disease with that hurtful palitative, which at best only mitigates the violence of the fits, and eventually proves highly injurious to the system. In order to effect a thorough cure of malarial fever, whether intermittent or remittent, or to render the system impregnable to its attacks. Hostetter's Stomach Blitters should be used daily. That this medicine is a searching eradicant of diseases generated by miasma, and a reliable safeguard against them, is a fact so widely recognized in this and other countries that to adduce evidence in support of it is unnecessary; but were it either essential or desirable to do so, it may well be supposed that from the testimony corroborative of its claims, which has been accumulating during the last twenty-five years and over, sufficient proofs might be gathered to convince the most inveterate skeptie.

DR KENNEDY'S REMEDY.

$500,000 a Year.

Statement of the American, National and United States and Canada Express Companies.

Troy, New York.

The strength of Rome lay not in her multitude, nor in her grain-laden fleets. These were elements of strength, but her never failing resource lay in the self-control and discipline of Roman soldiers. Discipline—it is the very sont to all the wonderful meaning poasessed by the word "veteran." Mr. Benedict, of Troy, is a veteran in the express business. "Thirty-three years," he said to your reporter, "I've stood at this desk." It is the discipline of years of experience which gives him the position he holds in the trust and esteem of these three great corporations. "We have a business of 800,000 a year, and I've been absent from this office hardly a month in all that time, although I must confess that many times I've worked here when suffering great pain, for I have been troubled all my life with billousness and dyspepsia. My system has become so reduced and weak that I had no appetite, and my digestion wholly disordered. I have tried various remedies, but almost two years ago I happened to hit upon Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. After using only one bottle or so, I began to feel stronger in every way. The great difficulty has been with my digestion, but this seems to regulate it perfectly. I have, sir, great faith in Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. I have bought and given a great deal of it to the poor around here: those, you know, who have no money to buy medicine of any kind, for there are a great many troubled with billous diseases and suffer on without aid. I always keep FAVORITE REMEDY in the house. I consider it the best meclaine for the blood in the market, Weil, I must to know him." I left the veteran, still at his post, rejoicing in health and grateful to Dr. Kennedy.
